Truck Drivers Agree to Rely On Arbitration

Counter Demand of Owners for 10-Hour Day on Present Wage Basis Is Put Before Union Members

There will be no strike of organized teamsters and chauffeurs on November 1. Officials of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters and Chauffeurs made this announcement last night after a conference with the wage scale committee of the employing truck owners in the City Club, at which the counter-demands of the truck owners were presented to the union delegates. The union delegates agreed that their men should continue working at the same scale of pay now received and under the same conditions pending further negotiations and consideration by the brotherhood membership of the proposed ten-hour work day and other concessions demanded by the truck owners.

The employers' counter-demands include a provision for the filing of $500 bonds by the individual drivers to assure payment of damages suffered by the employer "because of any unauthorized strike or lock-out in contravention of the agreement." It is also provided that the employer shall assume a like responsibility.

The employers' demands, which, it was announced Sunday, would be presented to the union yesterday, were presented in the form of a resolution, after which a two-hour discussion ensued. The resolution in part follows:

"The scale of wages shall be paid as at present.

"Ten hours shall constitute a day instead of nine, as at present.

"Overtime shall be paid by the minute at the rate of $1 per hour (not pay for an hour when work has been done for only part of an hour).

"Drivers and chauffeurs to be paid for holidays, providing they work the entire week.

"A bond in the amount of $500 shall be filed by both employer and employee to assure the payment of damages sustained to either because of an unauthorized strike or a lock-out in contravention of this agreement."

William O'Neil, business agent of Local 807 of the brotherhood, the largest local in the city, who was one of the delegates at the meeting last night, said the employers' resolution would be put before the 30,000 drivers involved in the present wage controversy this week or next, "as soon as a hall can be hired and all the men notified."

The provision in the truck owners' resolution for payment of the workers for holidays if they work the entire week was explained by members of the wage scale committee to constitute a measure for the prevention of sporadic strikes by groups of the workers whenever a holiday arrives.

Representing the drivers at the conference were A. Schaffer, Joe Brennan, William Brown and William O'Neil, all officers of Local 807; Joseph Tobin, of Local 202; Martin Lacy, of Local 645, and Edward McCafferty, of Local 282. The employers were represented by Charles A. Patterson, of the League of Metropolitan Merchants; H. H. L. Kuhst, E. R. Baker and S. A. Mangan, of the Freight Transfer Association; Isaac Goldberg, T. B. Murphy and Matthew Lowden, of the New York Team Owners' Association; Arthur Williams, Joseph Seaman and Charles Ward, of the League of Metropolitan Merchants, and President J. J. Riordan, William J. McCormack, F. J. McDonald, E. R. Lowe and E. R. Elder, of the Merchant Truckmen's Bureau.

Representatives of the Citizens' Trucking Company and the New York Board of Trade and Transportation also were present.

Poison and Trolley Car Fail to Kill Physician

Neither bichloride of mercury nor being run over by a trolleycar was able last night to kill Dr. Abraham Skversky, thirty-two years old, of 640 Madison Avenue, although he tried both.

First he swallowed several tablets of mercury. Then he started to cross Lexington Avenue directly in front of a car coming south. As the car approached, he either fell or jumped in front of it. The motorman, William Arnold, of 440 West 125th Street, applied the emergency brakes, but not in time to save Skversky from being dragged twenty feet.

It required the fire apparatus from Truck 2 and eight men to hoist the car from Skversky's prostrate body. He was hurried to Flower Hospital where it was said he had minor bruises.

He then confessed to having taken the mercury. A stomach pump was used and two hours later it was said he might recover.

Cocchi Defense Weakened By Assistant to Swann

BOLOGNA, Italy, Oct. 26.—At the continuation to-day of the trial of Alfredo Cocchi, charged with the murder of Ruth Cruger in New York in 1917, Owen Bohan, an Assistant District Attorney of New York City, testified. Mr. Bohan said that Cocchi's wife, who was accused by the prisoner of having committed the crime, but who was exonerated, was a hard-working and moral woman, and that Cocchi's eldest daughter was dead.

Cocchi previously had testified that he made his confession of killing Miss Cruger so as to protect his wife and children. The testimony of Mr. Bohan was declared by the defense to have considerably weakened the pleas of the defendant.

Mr. Bohan's testimony that one of Cocchi's children was dead created a sensation. No one in the court had knowledge of this. Judge Bagnoli scowled at Cocchi, the defendant's own lawyer frowned and the jury evinced emotion.

"Georgette is dead and Athos is going to school," said Mr. Bohan in referring to Cocchi's children, who the accused man said he had protected in making his confession. Mr. Bohan reviewed the entire case. He laid emphasis on the morality of Mrs. Cocchi and her hard-working traits. Until he had given his testimony Cocchi had been able to assail his wife without rebuttal.
