COUGH EXTERMINATOR—THIS EXcellent preparation is again presented to the notice of the sick, with the assurance that it is more or less, with the sudden changes which have taken place during the last month. This remedy has been well tested and if persevered in, is sure to afford relief. It is not intended to check the Cough at once, but to do it gradually, and without leaving it in the system to ripen, at a later period, into CONSUMPTION. We know it to be just as it is represented, as we have used it for several years, and with perfect success. We do not tell you that it will CURE Consumption, but we do say that it will BELIEVE the sufferer from the agony of that dreadful Cough, which is usual in that disease. There is not a day passes but that testimony to the efficacy of this Remedy is given by Physicians to their patients suffering from Colds, Coughs, &c, yet you pay four times the amount for the same article. A lady residing in Williamsburgh, had a child taken down with a severe cold last winter, called in a physician, who, after puttering with it
