been reached relative to the addition of the grounds between 106th and 110th streets.

The Commissioners have accepted the liberal offer of Mrs. Crawford, to place copies of all the works in sculpture of her late husband in the Park, subject to the condition that a suitable building should be provided for them. The proposition of the Historical Society to furnish a building with treasures of art, science and literature, has been accepted, and will greatly enrich the value of the Park as a favorite place of resort for the public. The number of visitors to the Central Park during the last year was 1,863,263 pedestrians; 73,547 equestrians, 467,849 vehicles. At an average of two to each vehicle this would give the total number of 2,401,059 visitors during the year, or more than three times the population of the city. Only 93 arrests were reported, of which 23 were for fast driving.

The Report contains a variety of papers showing the importance of the Central Park in improving the sanitary condition of the city, and recommending that it should be more extensively visited by the children in our public schools and sabbath schools. Its distance does not preclude it from being far more extensively used than at present, as over 10,000 children attend school within ten minutes' walk of the Park, and for those who live at a distance too great for walking, suitable transportation could easily be provided.

The Report contains a statement of the provisions for summer and winter amusements during the year. Boats have been placed on the lake, which are subject to conditions calculated to preserve the public from imposition, and are obliged to conform to uniform rates of fare. The introduction of hired carriages, subject to certain regulations, would be a public convenience, and we hope soon to notice their establishment.

ESTHER, THE BEAUTIFUL QUEEN, was the title of an Oratorio sung, composed by W. B. Bradbury, at the City Assembly Rooms last evening by the pupils of Colored Grammar School No. 2, for the benefit of the Colored Orphan Asylum. Among the prominent invited guests were Mr. Thomas Downing, of Broad street, and Mr. Tracey, of Pine street. The pupils were assisted by Misses Remsen, Warey, Vogelsang and Paul, formerly pupils of the school, and Messrs. Hamilton, Sturges, O'Fake, Gambier, and Bolee, the whole under the direction of Mr. S. C. Waldron. The maids of honor, chorus, &c., were represented by the scholars, the girls being tastefully dressed in white, with Union colors, and with white wreaths on their heads. The whole of the music, vocal and instrumental was beautifully rendered by colored people, and the entire audience, which was very large, was composed of the same.

CITY GOVERNMENT.—In the Board of Aldermen yesterday resolutions were adopted calling upon Congress to pass the bill now before the House, providing for the defence of the Northern frontier, with such appropriations as may be deemed necessary for the widening of the locks of the Erie and Oswego Canals to admit of the passage of gunboats, thus securing a direct and rapid water communication for vessels of war from the bay of New York to the Lakes, and through them to the Mississippi river. A vote of thanks of the Board, and through them, of the inhabitants of New York, was tendered to Archbishop Hughes for his patriotic services in Europe on behalf of the general Government. A communication was received from Col. William Wilson, transmitting a secession flag captured by one of Wilson's Zouaves at the Pensacola Navy Yard. After other unimportant business adjourned....In the Board of Councilmen a resolution of thanks was passed to his Grace Archbishop John Hughes, D. D., LL. D. of New York, for the interest he has shown in the cause of the North, during his visit abroad. The Committee on National Affairs were instructed to originate suitable resolutions of condolence for the family of the late Col. J. L. Riker, who fell at the battle of Fair Oaks. His Honor Mayor Opdyke, sent in a veto to the resolution authorizing the Comptroller to purchase lot No. 195 Elizabeth street, as an unwise departure from the practice hitherto of advertising for proposals within prescribed limits of location. Adjourned.

WE HAVE RECEIVED A LETTER from Capt. J. S. Pfaumuller, Co. G, 55th Regiment, N.Y.S.M., in which he says that an article published by us from the Tribune is calculated to throw disgrace upon the 55th regiment, and denying the statements therein contained about the conduct of his regiment on the battle field. Capt. P. states that the 55th was sent ahead to support the artillery, which was about to fall into the hands of the enemy. This duty was performed although the regiment was left alone, exposed to the murderous fire of a whole corps d'armee. A ter using all their ammunition, and having about one-fourth of their men killed, he regiment retreated in good order until reinforced. The "red trousered" men seen running away could not have been the 55th, for they changed their red pants in Washington for the army gray ones. Gen. McClellan complimented the regiment for their bravery the day after the battle.

SAENGERBUND FESTIVAL—TWENTY THOUSAND PEOPLE AT JONES' WOOD.—The first grand festival of the season, and annual feast of the Saengerbund, came off yesterday at Jones' Wood. Fully twenty thousand persons were present. At about 9 o'clock the societies composing the Saengerbund formed on Hester street, opposite the Metropolitan Rooms, the Headquarters of the Saengerbund, in the following order:

Flora Mannerchor, Soc. Ref. Ver. Liedertafel Turn Verein, Teutonia, Schwabische Saengerbund, New York, Frohsinn, Mozart Mannerchor, Fidelia, Yorkville Mannerchor, Allemania, Colonia, Euphemia, Harmonia, Germania, Liedertafel, Brooklyn Liederkranz, Mozart Verein, Loreley, Rheinischer Saengerbund, Schillerbund, Williamsburgh Saengerbund, Uhlandbund, Melomania, Sing Academie, Bloomingdale Eintracht, Melrose Lidertafel, Saengerrunde, Saengerbust, Eintracht.

In all the representatives of these societies at the festival numbered fully 7,000. Mr. Hillenbrand officiated as Grand Marshal at the procession, which marched up through Grand street, Essex, Avenue A and Tenth street to the foot of East Tenth street, whence the societies were conveyed by a boat and barges to Jones' Wood. Here the usual amusements of lager, dancing, shooting, promenading, &c., were enjoyed by the people until dark, the only specially noticeable feature being the concert, which was given under the direction of Mr. Paur, leader of the Liederkranz, in which fully 400 vocal performers joined in the chorus, together with a magnificent orchestra led by Mr. Herschman. The concert began at 3 o'clock and lasted about an hour, according to the following programme:

Overture of Libella, (orchestra,) Reissiger.
The love of Cherubim, (chorus,)
Tonkünstlerlied, (chorus,) Otto.
Potpourri of Zauberer, (orchestra.)
To the Fatherland, (grand chorus,) Abt.

At dark the festivities of the day closed and the immense multitude returned to the city. All the proceeds of the festival will go the Saengerbund fund.

THE FUNERALS OF THE LATE COLS. RIKER AND MILLER.—These take place at 3 P.M., today. The line will be formed in the Park at 2½ P. M. The procession will pass through the east gate of the Park into Chatham street, up Chatham street and the Bowery to Bond street, through Bond street to Broadway, and through Broadway to the South ferry.

JERSEY CITY.

THE MYSTERY REVEALED.—From the description given of the woman who drowned herself and child, by jumping overboard from the Jersey City ferry-boat Colden on Wednesday last, there is no doubt but she was a Welch woman, named Jane Morgan, residing in Williamsburgh, who had been on a visit to some friends living in Bright st, Jersey City, where she remained three days, and started that afternoon, as they supposed, to return home. Her husband deserted her a short time since, and went west, which making her disconsolate, and being in destitute circumstances, no doubt led her to commit the act of self-destruction, at the same time destroying her babe. The child was about nineteen months old.
