WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 2, 1863.

Bonds to Piratical Privateers.

THE Americans have loudly and very justly protested against the substantial and to, and quasi recognition of the South by the English Government during a large and portion of the English press. It is scarcely possible to be too severe in our language in denouncing the shameless, unfriendly conduct of both that Government and that press. But do we ourselves enter the Supreme Court of public opinion with perfectly clean hands? Have we done nothing, are we now, after upwards of two years of destructive and costly warfare, doing nothing to extenuate, or even to invite and excuse the overbearing unfriendly conduct of the English Government and the English press? Do we not treat with regard chiefs as generals, and with them original lowers as though they were the legitimately constituted officers of a legitimate government? Has our press, the self-styled patriotic press, said one word about the monstrous exorting by pirates of bonds for the payment of immense ransoms to their scoundrelly captors by captured American merchantmen? With the knife at his throat or the revolver leveled at his head, the solitary traveller gives his all to the highwayman. Instead of hard cash and tangible valuables, the traveller were to give, while under such irresistible terrors and accompanying bodily fear, a bond for future payment of such sum or sums of money, would any Judge and jury in America, or in any land where law is respected and equity known, sanction, far less order the payment of such sum to the highwayman or the party representing him, as the merely and legitimately commercial discounter or purchaser of that bond? Would they not rather order the highwayman to the criminal bar as a felon in the first degree, or his representative for similar trial as particeps criminis, or accessory? It seems to us to be about high time that gentlemen of the law and the press should not only take the matter into their consideration, but should also bestir themselves to awaken a clear and justly indignant public opinion on a subject which sooner or later must be of immense importance to our plundered merchants, and to their grievously insulted officers and seamen. It seems to us that the complacent announcement of this bonding to pirates, without a word of indignant comment, or legal or moral protest, is sufficiently discreditable to the press to be discontinued forthwith.

The Factions in Missouri.

The Radicals in Missouri are very far from troubling themselves about the doctrine of unconditional loyalty that prevails among their brethren elsewhere, and are but little distinguished for their obedience to the powers that be. The Charcoal or Abolition party in that State have been almost in a condition of semi-rebellion ever since the adoption of the Gradual Emancipation ordinance by the Convention, and are moving heaven and earth, and President LINCOLN, to secure by the intervention of the military authorities, the immediate overthrow of slavery. The Lawrence massacre was a perfect godsend to them and the New York TRIBUNE, and the bloody scenes at that place are pointed out—not as an example of the evils of departing from the regular usages of civil and military law—but as a reason for a further violation of them by overthrowing the authority of Gov. GAMBLE and the decrees of the famous Convention that has saved Missouri to the Union. In the recent bursts of party violence, the Germans of St. Louis are particularly noted, and by voice and pen out-Herod Herod in their fierce invectives against what they call the temporizing policy of the President, who pursues a straight forward middle course between the Charcoals and Clayhanks. So far Mr. LINCOLN seems to have inclined towards the latter, or the conservative party, probably because they are friends of the laws—both State and Federal—as they are. But the way in which his Excellency has been aggrieved by both these factions, is best learned from the following letter, in response to a request from the clayhanks, protesting against the removal of Gen. CURTIS, which had been urged by the charcoals, or abolitionists. The President writes:

"Your dispatch of to-day is just received. It is very painful to me that you in Missouri cannot or will not settle your factional quarrel among yourselves. I have been tormented with it beyond endurance for months by both sides, neither side pays the least respect to any appeal to reason. I am now compelled to take hold of the case."

Financial Reports, Markets, &c.

New York, Tuesday, Sept. 1, 6 P. M.—The Stock Market opened heavy this morning, the average decline being 1 a 2 per cent. At one o'clock business was a little better, but after the second board the market broke down again, and there was a decline of 1 to 1½ per cent., especially on the leading rebellious shares. Business very light. The market finally closed without gaining much on the second board. Gold closed at 127, a fall of ¼ per cent. during the day. Government and State stocks were steady and without material change. The loan market was unusually active at 6 a 7 per cent. In exchange a fair business was done at 140 a 140¼.

CONSUMPTION.—DR. O'TOOLE'S remedies for the CURE OF CONSUMPTION, which have cured over five hundred persons in the last year in the City of New York, of this hitherto so incurable disease, are a guarantee. The success of DR. O'TOOLE'S success in curing Consumption, lies in the fact that his medicines remove the corrupt phlegm or matter from the lungs and afterwards heal those parts which have suffered from ulceration or tubercles, by the means the Cough, PAINS IN THE CHEST, Tickling in the Throat, and other symptoms of Consumption are removed, and the sufferer soon regains his original strength and vigor.

Mr. William Cullen, residing at 240 West 42d st., says:—"I suffered with a Consumption for three years. When I consulted Dr. O'Toole, I was confined to my bed, and friends had given up all hopes of my recovery. I began to feel better after using his medicine a few days. I continued their use for two months, by which time I was restored to perfect health."

Mr. James Kernan, residing at 56 Essex st, says:—"I suffered with a distressing cough, dizziness of the head, and other symptoms of Consumption, to such an extent that I was considered incurable. My breath became so short that I was supported by pillows at night, fearing I should be smothered if I laid down. When I consulted Dr. O'Toole, I had used every medicine known to be prescribed for the disease, but found no relief. I commenced using his medicines, and went according to his directions, for six weeks, by the end of which time I was perfectly cured. This was in 1861, and I have enjoyed good health ever since."

Mr. John Dunne, wagon manufacturer, residing at 41 East 14th st, says:—"I suffered for four years with a most distressing cough and shortness of breathing, so I was unable to attend to business. I used Dr. O'Toole's medicines for three months; they cured me. I enjoy good health."

These medicines cured—

Mr. John Ewan, residing at 67 Charleton st, of Consumption of two years standing.

Mr. Mathias Eck, 517 4th st, was cured in six weeks.

Mr. Patrick Langan, 160 West 26th st, was cured in two months.

There is scarcely a street or avenue in the city where there do not reside patients who have been cured of consumption by these medicines. All who suffer with COUGH, PAINS IN THE CHEST, SPITTING OF BLOOD, SHORTNESS OF BREATH, or other symptoms of Consumption should use them.

II.—The words, "having a family dependent on him for support," which occur in the fourth section of the Ordinance aforesaid, and their equivalent as used in the seventh section of said Ordinance, are construed to mean and include the following cases, that is to say:

IV. In case any such indigent drafted person whose liability to serve has been determined by the action of the Board of Enrollment has a family depending upon him for support, who are in such condition as to render it, in the opinion of the Substitute and Relief Committee, a case of peculiar hardship for him to leave them, and he shall be unable to procure a substitute within the time required, he may report the fact to said Committee, and on their being satisfied in regard to it, and particularly that he has used his best endeavors to obtain a Substitute, they will furnish him a certificate to be presented to the Comptroller, who will thereupon pay to the proper officer of the Government the sum necessary to obtain his exemption from the draft.

THE COUNTY OF NEW YORK.

NOTICE TO APPLICANTS FOR SUBSTITUTES AND EXEMPTION MONEY.

I.—The National Government requires more men to complete the work of suppressing the South ern Rebellion, and to obtain them, it resorts to a Draft, as authorized by an act of Congress, which is the law of the land, and as such, is entitled to all respect.

II.—The authorities of this County, are desirous to aid the Government, as in duty bound, in accomplishing its just purposes, but inasmuch as the presence and services of certain of our citizens—the active Firemen, the Policemen, and the uniformed Militiamen, are deemed essential to the maintenance of public order in this metropolis, and the protection of the lives and property of our own people—they desire to make such arrangements as will effectually secure those ends, and at the same time furnish the number of men needed by the Government.

III.—With these views it has been determined to pay "such sum and sums of money as may be necessary to procure acceptable substitutes, not exceeding $300 for any one substitute," for the citizens above mentioned, who are liable, under the provisions of the Act of Congress referred to, to be drafted, and who have been or may hereafter be actually so drafted to serve in the armies of the Union.

IV.—It is, nevertheless, hoped and expected that all such drafted Firemen, Policemen and militiamen will feel it incumbent on them to use their best exertions to procure acceptable substitutes to serve in their respective places, and thus comply with the reasonable and just requirements of the Government.

V.—The Ordinance provides that, "In case such substitutes, or any of them cannot be procured within the time they may be required, it shall be the duty of the Comptroller to pay to the proper officers of the United States, the sum necessary to procure the exemption of the persons above mentioned, for whom substitutes are not furnished."
