The report of the Committee concludes with the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Clerk of this Board be, and he is hereby directed to file in the office of the secretary of State, and the Clerk of the City and County of New York, a description of said Assembly Districts as above setforth, and specifying in such description the population of each of the districts aforesaid according to the enumeration or census of the inhabitants of this State, taken in the year 1865.

The report of the Committee, and resolution attached, were adopted. Adjourned till Tuesday next at 1 o'clock.

EXPLOSION OF GUN COTTON.—At about 10 o'clock yesterday morning, about twenty pounds of gun cotton, belonging to Daniel D. T. Davis, exploded in the yard of premises No. 93 Crosby street. Mr. Davis says the explosion was caused by Mrs. Clement, who occupies the first floor, carelessly placing a furnace near it. The concussion shattered the windows of the basement and second floor, damaging the building to the extent of $25. Mr. Davis's loss was about $35.

Complaint was made to the Board of Health that the manufacture of the combustible was dangerous to life. The Fire Commissioners, under whose supervision the case comes, notified Mr. Davis that he must discontinue the gun cotton business within the city limits.

CONFIRMATION.—The Most Rev. Archbishop McCloskey yesterday administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to 1,500 young ladies and gentlemen, at the Church of the Holy Redeemer, in Third street. A Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by the Archbishop previous to the sacrament, and a sermon preached, in which he instructed the postulants in their duties as full members of the Church of Christ. At the sacrament which followed, the German custom of having a godfather or godmother to witness the confirmation was carried out for the first time in this country. A lady placed her hand on the shoulder of the girl, and a gentleman on that of a boy. The girls were beautifully dressed in white, and wore handsome white wreaths. The whole ceremony was very interesting.

FENIANISM—MEETING OF FENIAN HEAD CENTRES.—At a meeting of the Centres of the Circles of New York and vicinity, held at Tammany Hall, on the night of the 18th inst., the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, The course of action pointed out by James Stephens, Central Organizer, was the original and settled policy of the Fenian Brotherhood, namely, direct aid to the revolutionary organization in Ireland; and

Whereas, We learn with satisfaction that the mission of James Stephens, to the cities between New York and Richmond, has been crowned with success, and that our distinguished leader contemplates returning to New York for a few days before starting on his holy mission of union to the West; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the Centres of Long Island, New York and Jersey City, now present, be a committee to receive James Stephens on his return to this city with a Cead Mile Failthe, and also to present to him the resolutions of unbounded and unshaken confidence adopted at this meeting.

Resolved, That James Stephens, now as ever, has our unbounded confidence in his integrity, and in his ability to carry out to a triumphal issue the only plans destined to result in the freedom of Ireland, and we hereby pledge him anew our cordial and hearty support in all his efforts to that end.

Resolved, That we look upon the embarrassed and degraded position of England amongst the nations of Europe at this time, as an additional incentive to increased vigor in our labors; and we hereby renew our promises to sustain our countrymen at home, who, under the able guidance of James Stephens, have shown a fidelity, devotion and discipline of which we feel truly proud.

Resolved, That the Irish people and the friends of Irish liberty of New York and vicinity, be and they are hereby invited, to meet James Stephens, at such time and place as may hereafter be agreed upon.

The following Centres were appointed as a Committee to make suitable arrangements for a demonstration, to take place this week or early next, at some point hereafter to be designated.

Timothy L. Lynch,	James Sheedy,
B. G. McSwyny,	Patrick Hickey,
Dr. Brosnan,	John Kerr,
J. Donohue,	Jeremiah Donovan,
R. G. Duffy,	Jeremiah O'Head,
Col. Power,	Luke A. Murphy.

BUTCHERS AND DROVERS' MEETING.—A large meeting of the New York and Brooklyn Butchers and Drovers was held, yesterday afternoon, at the Hall of the Butchers' Hide Association, corner of 5th street and 1st avenue. The object of the meeting, as stated in yesterday's SUN, was to discuss the action of the Board of Health in prohibiting the driving of cattle through the streets of the city, and causing the arrest of parties so driving them. Mr. John M. Seaman was chosen President and Mr. Stephen Cornell, Secretary. The Chairman was very severe on the Board for their "arbitrary seizure" of meat, calves, skins, &c., and he stated that the butchers of New York would let the Board see that they had rights as well as other citizens—rights that should be respected—and that they would resist to the last any encroachment on those rights. He urged the butchers to be steadfast and united, and they would be able to defy the Board in their attempts to compel the butchers to conduct their business in abattoirs outside the city limits. The following declaration, signed by over 600 persons who have handed in subscriptions amounting to upwards of $10,000, was then submitted to the meeting and carried unanimously: "We, the undersigned, propose and offer to unite with each other, to use our exertions, and to contribute pecuniarily, to test before the courts, and otherwise, the authority of the Metropolitan Board of Health to pass ordinances to regulate or prohibit the driving of cattle through the streets of the cities of New York and Brooklyn; and, also, their power to pass ordinances to remove slaughter houses or prohibit their erection in said cities, and the power of the police to carry out such ordinances." Addresses were then made by several gentlemen present, after which the meeting adjourned.

N. Y. UNIVERSITY LAW SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT.—The commencement exercises of the University Law School took place last evening in the Chapel of the University. Chancellor Ferris presided and read the report of the Supreme Court Examining Committee, which was very favorable. Orations on "Roman Law" were read by A. P. Compton, and on "Legislative Reform" by J. H. Bryan, who also delivered the valedictory address. The degree of Bachelor of Law was then conferred on twelve gentlemen graduates, after which Mr. Michael H. Dutcher, Esq., read an address to the graduates on the relation of Lawyer and Client. The exercises were then dismissed with the benediction.

CENTENARY CELEBRATION.—The establishment of a Methodist church in America, one hundred years ago, by five persons, now representing thousands of churches throughout the country and millions of worshipers, was suitably celebrated on Monday evening, in John street M. E. church—the first established on this continent. The exercises were of an interesting character. Addresses were made by Rev. Herman Bangs, D. D., Rev. J. B. Wakely, G. Hisloway, and others. Dr. Bangs exhibited two candlesticks that belonged to Barbara Heck, and which were presented to her by the church. He also showed Harbard's old hymn book, that she brought with her from Ireland. It has not been re-bound, but appeared as it did when it was said "she used to praise God out of it." Another book which belonged to the same person, but which had been bound, was also shown. Mr. Bangs then held up a piece of timber about three feet long, on which was painted: "This is a part of the timber of the old sail loft, the first Methodist preaching house in New York, now No. 120 William street, New York; and this is given to the John street Methodist Episcopal Church to take care of." Some of the original pulpit, and the chair in which it is said Bishop Asbury used to sit, were also exhibited to the large audience. The speaker said that the first Methodist meeting was held in a kitchen in Ann street, with five persons present. When that room got too small they went into a sail loft, and when that also was found to be too little, they went to work to build a church. Mr. Wesley was written to, and sent them one hundred pounds sterling. Rev. Mr. Wakely and Mr. Disoway gave some personal reminiscences of the church and its founders, after which the meeting was dismissed.

FESTIVAL OF THE SCHUTZEN CORPS.—The ninth annual festival of the New York Schutzen Corps—an organization consisting of many of the "crack" marksmen of the German element of our population—was inaugurated at Jones's Wood, yesterday morning. The favorable weather, the unusual excellence of the programme of exercises, and the rare value of the prizes to be contested for, drew together one of the largest assemblies ever gathered on a similar occasion. The exercises of the day commenced with a trial of shots, in which every member of the Corps engaged—the target, consisting of a mammoth Prussian eagle, decorated with silk cocoons, and fastened to the top of a high pole, being placed at a distance of 175 feet from the marksmen. Both excellent shots were made, and the ridiculed and shattered appearance of the bird, at the close of this trial, testified to the skillfulness of the members in the use of the rifle. The first shot was fired in honor of the President of the United States; the second in honor of the Company, and the third in honor of Capt. Busch. It followed a prize contest of marksmanship in shooting gallery, after which the gallery was given up to the use of the Ladies' Schutzen Corps, whose skill in the use of the rifle would astonish those not familiar with the exhibition of Lola Cooper. A banquet, next followed and a "hoch" which was continued far into the "small hours," closed the festivities of the day. Among the prizes to be contested for to-day and to-morrow are a number of diamonds, gold and silver watches, silverware, clocks, pianos and a beautiful gold medal, the winning of which latter prize entitles the victor to the title of "King." The crowning of the victor will be participated in to-morrow by fifty young ladies, arrayed in white. The youngest of the company steps forward from the circle and places a wreath of flowers upon the victor's head, and proclaims him King. The rest of the programme for the remaining two days consists of trials of strength and agility—such as tossing the kater, leaping, sack racing, &c.

FATAL ACCIDENTS.—Mrs. Sarah Muir, while walking in Central Park with her daughter on Saturday afternoon, was knocked down and run over by a horse and wagon, driven by Herman Baetjer, a ship broker, living at 149 East 13th street. Mrs. Muir was removed to St. Luke's Hospital, where she subsequently died from the effects of her injuries. Yesterday Coroner Gamble held an inquest on the body. From the evidence adduced, five of the jurors thought the occurrence accidental; but two jurors dissented, and were of opinion that the evidence showed gross carelessness on the part of Mr. Baetjer. Under these circumstances, the Coroner required Mr. Baetjer to give $500 bail to answer any indictment the Grand Jury may find against him. Mrs. Muir lived in Brooklyn. She was 46 years of age, and a native of New York.

John Crowley was accidentally killed yesterday morning, while digging a cellar in 42th street, near 3d avenue, by an embankment falling upon and crushing him. The body was dug out and removed to the 19th Precinct Station House, where Coroner Gamble held an inquest. Deceased was a native of Ireland and 25 years of age.

Yesterday Coroner Naumann held an inquest on the body of John W. Morgan, a child 18 months old, whose death was caused by a bowl of boiling coffee having been upset upon him on Monday night at No. 398 Water street. A verdict of accidental death was rendered.

SUICIDE BY LEAPING FROM A WINDOW.—Yesterday Coroner Naumann held an inquest on the body of Frederick Johannes, a German, who committed suicide on Monday night by leaping from a second story window of the house No. 276 West Houston street, while laboring under delirium tremens. During the day he had been to a picnic at Hamilton Park, and returned home drunk and disorderly. As an officer was about to be called in, Johannes leaped through a window, breaking the glass and sash, and fell head first on the pavement. Death ensued in a few moments.

TEMPERANCE AND FENIANISM.—The following communication has been filed for publication several days, but was crowded out:

"A large meeting of temperance men was held last evening at 566 Broome street, to express sympathy with the Fenian cause and confidence in the leaders and to encourage enlistments. Mr. E. L. Carey made a stirring appeal to the audience to aid the cause by men and means."

NEW YORK, JUNE 15, 1866.

Editor New York Sun:—Sir.—Your attention is respectfully called to the above extract from the SUN local news column of Monday, the 11th inst. The meeting referred to was the regular weekly meeting of the Father Mathew U. B. T. A. B. Society, held wholly and solely for the purpose of obtaining signers to the pledge of total abstinence, and "open to the friends and advocates of teetotalism without exception to creed or country;" and the "stirring appeal" of Mr. E. L. Carey was neither more nor less than a gross violation of an express constitutional proviso, which absolutely prohibits the introduction of any subject of a political or religious nature. The Father Mathew societies are composed of men differing in politics, of diverse nationalities and of varied forms of religious belief. All persons of a suitable age, irrespective of party, clime or creed, are invited to become members, and therefore such a paragraph as the above, if not officially contradicted, might not only seriously endanger the harmony of the society, but would very considerably retard us in our endeavors to spread abroad the glorious principles of the Apostle of Temperance, the Rev. Theobald Mathew. I remain, yours, &c.,

JOHN BARRY,
President Father Mathew U.B.T.A.B. Society.

FIRE.—A fire which occurred last evening in the stables of Mr. O'Neil, at the rear of No. 348 West 37th street, destroyed the stable and two adjoining ones, owned by Frazer & Lecomon. Loss $500; no insurance.

THE COURTS.

COURT CALENDARS THIS DAY.—Supreme Court—General Term—Non-enumerated motions and balance of preferred causes.—Enumerated Calendar—Nos. 30, 31, 32, 33, 35. Special Term—Calendar unchanged. Chambers—Nos. 8, 23, 37, 52, 61. Call No. 72.—Circuit—Part 1, Nos. 1115, 963, 1241, 819, 989, 1411, 1295, 1237, 1581, 1261, 571, 79, 725, 911, 563, 601, 35, 1625, 893, 1525. Part II., Nos. 17, 506, 1466, 1288, 1202, 832, 818, 1172, 1105, 1184, 314, 329, 968, 912, 1208, 1356, 1416, 1264, 174, 1348.

CHARGED WITH MUTINY.—In the United States Commissioners' Court, yesterday, Commissioner Betts presiding, application was made by the Hamburgh Consul for the arrest of two of the crew of the steamship Bousina, charged with mutinous and disorderly conduct. The accused were detained to await the requisition of the Consul.

THE TROUBLES OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH.—The case of Reynolds vs. Schultz, in which the former recently procured an injunction to restrain the Board of Health from interfering with his business of oyster shell burning, was to have been argued to-day, before Justice McCunn, in the Superior Court, but owing to the engagements of counsel the case was postponed until Tuesday, the 26th inst. The questions involved are the legitimacy of the practice of shell burning and the power of the Board of Health to remove nuisances.

COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS.—Daniel and Miles O'Keefe were arraigned yesterday on a charge of manslaughter, in having caused the death of James Donnelly. The case is still on.....Thomas McGlynn was sentenced to State Prison for two years and six months on a charge of burglary.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.—Ruffianly Assault in Landman's Park.—On Monday evening a gang of ruffians in Landman's Park followed Catharine Schumire and her husband, living at 114 Flushing avenue, Brooklyn, to a secluded spot, and a part of the gang attacked the husband, while the others attempted to outrage the person of Mrs. Schumire. Sergeant Burns, of the 4th Precinct, discovered the outrage, and on his approach the ruffians left the man and woman. By a free application of his locust, the sergeant succeeded in arresting one of the ruffians, who gave the name of James McJoseph, was arrested. Justice Kelly committed him for examination.

A Captain Violates the Health Law.—Herman Schwarzer, master of the bark Prof. Baum, lying at Pier 23, N. R., was arrested yesterday on a charge of having violated the health law, in having discharged a cargo of rags without permission. The prisoner was taken before Justice Dowling, and bailed for appearance of the law, when he was discharged on his parole, with the understanding that he should appear this morning and give bail.

Bold Shoplifters.—On Monday afternoon Charles Florence entered the store of Mr. Thomas D. Leah, No. 30 John street, on the pretence of wishing to buy some jewelry. While the owner's back was turned, Florence, as alleged, seized three valuable gold watches, with which he fled into the street, closely followed by Mr. Leah and a clerk. A sharp chase of several blocks resulted in the arrest of Florence, who was handed over to detective Harris, of the 18th Precinct. During the pursuit the fugitive dropped the watches, and they were recovered. Justice Ledwith yesterday committed the prisoner for trial.

Brooklyn.

SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.—The decease of the late Mr. Humphrey leaves a vacancy in the Second Congressional District, which will be filled at the election the coming fall. The prominent candidates on the Republican side are Mr. George B. Lincoln, the Postmaster, Mr. George H. Fisher, Alderman of the 19th Ward, and Mr. Demas Strong, late State Senator. The Democratic aspirants are numerous—the most prominent name mentioned being Mr. Isaac Van Anden, the proprietor of the EAGLE.

New Jersey.

HOBOKEN RACES—FIRST DAY.—The excellent race course at Secaucus, near Hoboken, established two years ago under a charter to the Hudson County Agricultural Society, increases yearly in popularity, with both turfmen and the public, under the admirable management of that veteran of the turf, Colonel David McDaniel. The attendance of sporting men yesterday was rather slim, but there was a good sprinkling of ladies present.

The First Race was for the Jersey stakes, a sweepstakes selling premium of $300 for all ages; $50 entrance, par or pay for one half-mile dash. There were three entries for this race, namely: a chestnut mare and chestnut colt, both owned by Col. McDaniel, and a gray horse, Throgsneck, owned by Mr. Z. Morris. The two latter forfeited stakes by nonappearance, and the race was of course won easily by the chestnut mare. The winner was offered for sale at auction at the close of the race, but by the terms of sale $1,000 at least should have been realized, failing which the owner was allowed to bid for her, which he accordingly did.

Second Race.—Selling Premium of $300, for all ages, one and one half-mile dash. Horses entered to be sold for $1,500 (no entries will be received for a higher price), to carry their appropriate weights; those entered for $1,000 allowed 7 lbs.; those entered for $800 allowed 14 lbs. The winner to be sold at auction immediately after the race. All over the price named in the entry to go to the society. The owner to retain his horse should he bring less than the price named in the entry. Entrance to this race five per cent., and to go to second horse. Closed with the following entries:

1. Dr. J. W. Watson's b. c. Knighthood, by Knight of St. George, dam Glencoe. $1,500, 4 years. Red and maroon.
2. Mr. Jas. S. Watson's ch. c. Peacemaker, by Bourbon out of Milwood, by imp. Monarch, 4 years, $600. Orange and orange.
3. Messrs. Bowie & Hall's gr. c. Richmond, by Two Bits, dam Faith by Childe Harold, 4 years, $1,500. White and red.
3. Col. D. McDaniel's ch. c., by Mohican, dam by Boston, 4 years, $600. Red and blue.

On the start for this race, Knighthood led, followed by Peacemaker second, Richmond third, and the chestnut colt last. At the mile stake Knighthood and Richmond were neck and neck, but on the last stretch Knighthood won by two lengths, Richmond coming in second, Peacemaker third, and the chestnut colt last. Time, 2.42.

Third Race.—The Ferry Stake, a Post Stake of $5,000 for all ages, two mile heats; $500 entrance, play or pay, to carry 150 lbs., except in cases of three year olds, which will carry their appropriate weights. The second horse to save his entrance. Closed as follows:

1. Col. D. McDaniel's b. h. Oakland, by Revenge, dam by Imp. Margrave, 6 years. Red and blue.
2. Mr. M. H. Sanford's g. h. Loadstone, by Lexington, dam Blue Bonnet, 5 years. Blue and blue.
3. Col. P. C. Bush's g. h. Thunder, by Lexington, dam Blue Bonnet, by imp. Hedgford, aged. Blue and yellow.
4. Mr. Jas. S. Watson's ch. g. Aldebaran, by Commodore out of Nannie Lewis, by im. Glencoe, 6 yrs. Orange and orange.
5. Mr. Thos. Puryear's b. h. Climax, by Balrownie, dam Arab, aged. Maroon and buff.
6. Messrs. Bowie & Hall's (Dr. Wesloh's) b. h. Leatherlungs, by Lexington, dam by Glencoe, 6 yrs. Red and maroon.

The first heat of this race was won by Climax, with Loadstone a neck behind, Thunder 3d, Oakland 4th, Aldebaran 5th and Leatherlungs distanced. Climax led at the start and kept the lead about two lengths until the home stretch, when Loadstone came near running by him. The other horses were about six lengths behind and nearly all in a bunch. Time 3.42.

Second heat—Five horses started for this heat, the distanced one being debarred. Climax again led at the start, with Thunder 2d, Oakland 3d, Aldebaran 4th and Loadstone 5th. On the first mile Climax was two lengths ahead, with Loadstone 2d, Thunder 3d, Oakland 4th and Leatherlungs 5th. On the second mile, however, Thunder and Leatherlungs were both distanced. Climax again won the heat and the race by a neck, with Loadstone 2d, Oakland 3d and Aldebaran 4th. Time 2.41½.

Another impromptu race was then arranged between a bay horse, belonging to Mr. Gallagher, of New York, and a gray mare, whose owner did not want to be known. The mare carried 140 lbs. weight. The stakes were $150; the heats best two in three. In the first heat, both horses came in together. Time, 2.15½. The real sports were so disgusted with this time that the course was nearly cleared before the second heat was run, and after that only those interested were found around the place. The day was very pleasant, but, if anything, rather inclined to be chilly. Betting on the results of the different races was not as exciting as it will be on the forthcoming races for the next three days. The races coming off to-day are much more interesting, and will bring out a larger crowd of spectators than were present yesterday.

To-day is the handicap race for a $450 purse, over eight hurdles in each of two miles, in which Zigzag, Nannie Craddock, Nightlock, Roscoe, Gen. Williams, and Mr. Reed's Yorkshire mare are entered; a selling purse of $300, over a dash of two miles and a quarter, follows; and the third race is the Hoboken stake of $400 for three-year olds, for which Mr. Sanderson's b. f. Dot, Mr. Reed's ch. f. Enchantress, and Mr. Morris' ch. f. by Prophet, dam Harbarity, are entered.

AMERICAN MOWER.—THE ONLY SELF-OILING MACHINE.

With the great perfection in construction to which Moving Machines have been brought, I call the attention of Farmers to a Machine embracing STILL GREATER IMPROVEMENTS than any before offered to the public.

Particular attention has been paid to the wants of the Farmer in the construction of the AMERICAN MOWER, to make it

THE VERY BEST MACHINE IN USE.

There are numbers of Machines that do their work comparatively faultless, and yet there are inconveniences that are greatly annoying to the operator, among them the frequent necessity of oiling the bearings, and more particularly the crank-pin, or pitman head, which, if neglected, (as it is very apt to be,) results in cutting the journals or boxes, and in permanent injury to any machine. The AMERICAN MOWER has the following features of excellence:

The BEARINGS OF THE AMERICAN MOWER, as well as the CRANK PIN, are all SELF-LUBRICATING, and WASTE NO OIL.

The outer end of the Finger Bar will drop lower and lift higher than that of any other Mower.

You can elevate the Finger Bar from a declining position without raising the inner shoe.

The Finger Bar can be raised higher, to pass over obstacles, by means of the hand lever, than that of any other jointed bar Machine.

The Frame between the Driving Wheels will pass over higher obstructions than the frame of any other Mower.

The operator has a greater control over the Finger and Knife Bars than he has of any other Machine.

The Finger Bar will come to a more nearly sure rest than that of ANY OTHER Machine, which is one of the most IMPORTANT features in a perfect Mower.

Either wheel operates the Cutter Bar, independently of the other, and in turning, either way, the knives are kept in rapid motion.

The Draft is from the front of the frame which gives it great advantages over those that draw from the pole.

IT HAS AN EASY SPRING SEAT FOR THE DRIVER.

It backs out of gear, and can be thrown in and on gear when in motion.

It has a loading Bar, and can be folded without disconnecting the Pitman.

It is of LIGHT DRAFT, and has no PERCEPTIBLE SIDE DRAFT.

It is more simple and perfect in its construction, and has more strength, with lightness combined, than any other Mower.

It cannot upset.

I defy contradiction to the above, and invite the scrutiny of ALL who are in any way interested in the Farming interest to examine this Mower, feeling confident of their approval.

Shafts or pills supplied with Machines for one horse.

THE PIRATE CAPTAIN.

To sum up our misfortunes, we were thrust shoved into an open boat let down from the vessel's side, without chart, compass or rudder to assist us, and with nothing to avert starvation, except a small bag of biscuits, a cask of water, and a bottle of rum: an old book was flung to Mrs. M——, who thus bore unlooked for misfortune with a spirit that did honor to her sex; her chief care being centred in her daughter, whose tender frame was less fitted to bear up against a trial so cruel and severe. Thus prepared to encounter the roughness of the sea, and the probable return of the tempest, we were barbarously pushed off from the ship's side, and cast upon the great Atlantic, without the most distant prospect of ever reaching land. The ship, after hoisting fresh sails, and displaying an American flag at her mast-head, stood away to the westward, and, favored with a fine breeze, cut swiftly through, and in a few hours appeared but as a speck on the distant horizon. The sensations of our little crew, as thus she gradually diminished, may be felt, but never can be described.

For my own part, overcome as I nearly was, by melancholy reflections, and feeling, as I did, that we were given up to destruction, the presence of the excellent and amiable Mrs. M——, and her pale and suffering daughter, called up every manly feeling in my breast, and endued me with a fortitude, which under different circumstances, I might not have felt. I even assumed a cheerfulness that was foreign to my heart, and held out a hope of being speedily released from our sufferings, as there was, I said, every chance of our meeting, before evening, with some vessel that would take us on board. The missionary offered us a still better consolation; for he spoke of that blessed heaven, to which, if our earthly comforts failed, our faith in God would be sure to lead us. Mr. Adams, at first, was low and depponding, which I, in a great measure, attributed to his loss of blood from a cut which he received on his head, in our brief struggle with the pirates. The two seamen who joined us in the fray, and who were now obliged to share our condition, conducted themselves with courage; and, in short, considering our condition, and the probable fate that awaited us, we bore our misfortune with tolerable composure. There were no useless lamentations, no despairing ravings; for, after the first shock was over, we used every effort to appear like men, in the presence of the female mother and her suffering child, and the religious consolation bestowed by the good missionary, afforded solace and assistance to us all. The morning, by the blessing of Providence, was uncommonly fine, and although the sea was still agitated from the violence of the recent storm, our little boat bounded lightly over the waves, assisted by the remnant of an old sail, fastened to an oar. Our store of provisions we husbanded with the utmost care, and being resolved that no effort of our own should be wanting to secure the mercy of Providence, if such mercy should extend to us, we entered into a solemn compact to be content with whatever portion of provisions should fall to our lot, and to bear, without murmuring, whatever privations we might afterward be confined to endure. Having settled these points, our eyes were directed over the boundless ocean, the trembling hope of discovering a sail; but hour after hour passed away, and no prospect of discovering a ship appeared between the heaving waters and the distant sky. A cloud on the horizon's brink arose at times, to mock us with the hope of a succor; and, as it melted into air, after attracting our painful, anxious gaze, we felt more desolate than ever.

I shall forbear to repeat the details of our miseries and sufferings for the three days and the three nights which we passed in an open and defenceless boat, on the treacherous bosom of the ocean. Scenes of this description have been sufficiently described, and the sad reality of the misery we endured on this occasion, is too painfully pictured in my mind to bear a repetition.

Suffice it to say, that having endured the extremes of heat, cold, thirst and hunger; having witnessed the last gasp of the lamented and unfortunate Miss M——, who died on the night of our second day of hopeless misery, in the arms of her fond and anxious mother, who vainly called on heaven to spare her darling child; having looked around us on the desolate ocean for relief, till our aching eyeballs sunk hopeless in their sockets; having wished for death myself, nay, prayed to God for my sudden dissolution, and having at length sunk in a stupor allied to death itself, I was roused on the fourth morning of our misery, by the sudden cry of "a ship! a ship!" and looking in the direction to which the sailor pointed, I discovered a large vessel bearing down upon us. To describe my sensations at the moment, would be utterly impossible.

We were picked up by his Majesty's frigate Thetis, of sixty-four guns, and every care and kindness bestowed on our wretched situation. Under this treatment the good missionary, Lieutenant Adams, the two sailors, and myself, were soon recovered, but every attempt proved fatal to restore the amiable woman who shared our misfortunes; her daughter's death, more than the miseries she had herself endured, preyed deeply upon her spirits, and she died calling on her name.

The Thetis being homeward bound, arrived in the Downs in two weeks from the happy morning when she took us on board. My first care, on my unexpected return to land, was to forward to my employers in Liverpool a detailed account of the loss of the ship and cargo, which being verified by the affidavits of my comrades in misfortune, was immediately transmitted to the Admiralty, and we were instantly dispatched to the Admiral in command on the West India station, to seize the captain and crew of the Fanny, of Liverpool, for murder and piracy on the high seas, and bring their bodies forthwith to England. All my exertion, however, was made to act on orders, the pirates evaded all pursuit, and nowhere to be seen or heard of.

Some years after these occurrences, I commenced business in London, on my own account as a general merchant; and one day, behind the Wine Barrel, I observed a vast concourse
