GREAT NATIONAL MEETING in behalf of the DISABLED SOLDIERS AND SAILORS of the AMERICAN UNION. The Citizens of New York and other States are respectfully invited to attend a meeting at the Cooper Institute, on Thursday Evening, November 8th, 1866, at 8 o'clock. Since the close of the war, Point Lookout, at the junction of the Potomac River with Chesapeake Bay, has been furnished with the view to convey the idea to the Southern mind that the American Union Congress appropriated the Government property thereon, as will be seen by the following section of the Charter of the National Asylum:

Section 12.—An Act to further amend. That all the property of the United States now at Point Lookout, St. Mary's County, Maryland, shall be and become the property of the United States, subject to the satisfaction of the Board of Managers shall be made to the Asylum of at least three hundred acres of the tract of land on which said property is situated, United States Asylum built and maintained and held.

In pursuance of the object, an effort is now being made to secure the sum necessary to complete the asylum. The undersigned, therefore, would give all who have the interest of our disabled defenders of the nation at heart to attend the meeting.
