REAL ESTATE MOVEMENTS.

A number of legal sales announced to take place yesterday at the Exchange Salesroom were either sold or withdrawn, and the day was an uneventful one in the city real estate market. Many contracts were talked over among the brokers, but none were consummated. In Brooklyn over 150 lots on New Lots avenue, Fenwick and Livonia streets were sold Rogers avenue, Lincoln and Dean streets, to Henry Bradford at $325 to $325 per lot. Mr. Cole sold a three story and lot on the northeast corner of Pacific street and Classon avenue, to Henry Bradford for $3,250. The brick house and lot, 101 Bergen street, was struck off to Francis Swift for $13,600. The same party took the house, lot, No. 129 Tiffany place, for $3,000. H. H. Thomas took Nos. 139 and 137 for $3,000. H. Wilson took No. 135 for $13,100, and Joseph Cook, No. 133 Tiffany place, for $3,000. Mr. Cole sold a brick market, and two lots adjoining, 2 and 4 Ralph place, for $34,000.

The sale of Sutherland Park, Melbick, Jr. & Brother's sale of Rutherford Park property on Wednesday was a decided success. By 6 o'clock in the evening over 200 lots had been disposed of, and the sale was adjourned. Among the purchasers were A. H. Allen, J. P. Page, T. L. Cooper, Peters were A. H. Allen, J. P. Page, T. L. Cooper, Peters were A. H. Allen, J. P. Page, T. L. Cooper, Peters