The following protest of Frederick Killian, candidate for member of Assembly Fifteenth Assembly District, was presented:

To the Honorable the Board of County Canvassers of the County of New York:

The undersigned respectfully represents that he was a candidate for member of Assembly in the Fifteenth Assembly District, in the city and county of New York, at the election held on the seventh day of November, 1871.

That Alexander Frear was also a candidate for member of Assembly in said district.

That in the First Election District of the Twentieth Ward, being a portion of said Assembly District, the whole number of votes registered in the poll book as voting therein for member of Assembly was three hundred and sixty-seven (367).

That at the close of the polls in said district on the said seventh of November, the poll clerks announced the total number of votes cast in the district on the Assembly ticket to be four hundred and eighty (480); and that the canvassers of count was announced to be four hundred and eighty (480); and that at the close of the canvass of the said Assembly ticket the canvassers announced the votes cast for the respective candidates on said Assembly ticket to be as follows: For Alexander Frear, one hundred and seventy-eight (178); for Frederick Killian, seventy-eight (78); for Seth M. Hartshe, fifty-seven (57), and for Patrick Logan, one hundred and sixty-seven (167).

That in the Third Election District of the said Twentieth Ward, being a portion of said Assembly District, a person who was neither an inspector nor a poll-clerk took part in canvassing the ballots cast for Member of Assembly, and was permitted so to do by the Inspectors of Election, contrary to sections 15 and 16 of chapter 138 of the act passed April 5, 1870, as amended by chapter 572 of the Laws of 1871, and contrary to the law in such case made and provided.

That in the Fifth Election District of said Twentieth Ward, being a part of said Assembly District, a person who was not an inspector of election received and deposited in the ballot-boxes ballots for Members of Assembly and other candidates, and that a person who was neither an inspector nor a poll-clerk took part in canvassing the ballots cast for Member of Assembly, and was permitted so to do by the Inspectors of Election, and that during a portion of the time of the receipt as well as of the canvass of said ballots for Member of Assembly, only one canvasser was present, contrary to sections 15 and 16 of chapter 138 of the act passed April 5, 1870, as amended by chapter 572 of the Laws of 1871, and contrary to the law in such case made and provided.

That in the Eighth Election District of said Twentieth Ward, being a portion of said Fifteenth Assembly District, a person who was neither an inspector nor a poll-clerk took part in canvassing the ballots cast for Member of Assembly, and was permitted so to do by the Inspectors of Election, contrary to sections 15 and 16 of chapter 138 of the Act passed April 5, 1870, as amended by chapter 572 of the Laws of 1871 and contrary to the law in such case made and provided, and that ballots were cast in said district for Member of Assembly which were not canvassed or estimated.

That in the Twenty-fifth Election District of said Twentieth Ward, being a portion of said Eleventh Assembly District, a person who was neither an inspector of election nor a poll-clerk took part in canvassing the ballots cast for Member of Assembly, and was permitted so to do by the Inspectors of Election, contrary to sections 15 and 16 of chapter 138 of the Act passed April 5, 1870, as amended by chapter 572 of the Laws of 1871, and contrary to the law in such case made and provided.

That in said district the Inspectors failed to perform the ministerial duty of so ruling that they did not fill in the estimate of the votes in each box in the proper place, and contrary to chapter 138 of the Laws of 1870, as amended by chapter 572 of the Laws of 1871, and failed to make the estimate of the count, or to complete the returns or certificate of the votes of the said box in the manner prescribed by said act before proceeding to the estimate and canvass of the box or boxes next preceding to be canvassed.

That on the final canvass of the canvass of each box at the Board of Inspectors of Election failed to make public oral proclamation of the whole number of votes in each box, or of the whole number given for each person, with the name of the office to which such person was named on the ballots, as required by section sixteen of said act, and the law in such case made and provided.

That the Board of Inspectors of Election in said district failed to publicly proceed to canvass and estimate the votes cast for Member of Assembly in said district, and did not canvass or estimate said votes.

That votes were cast in said district for the undersigned candidate for Member of Assembly to the number of one hundred and fifty or upward, none of which were counted, and a large number of which votes, for aught, ninety or upward, were not canvassed, estimated, certified, or returned for the undersigned as a candidate for Member of Assembly, but the same were wrongfully certified or returned in favor of some other person.

For the reasons aforesaid, the undersigned protests against the ballots purporting to be or to have been cast for one Alexander Frear as a candidate for Member of Assembly in the said several election districts herein above mentioned, or in any of said election districts being counted, and demands that they be withdrawn or rejected from the canvass.

And the undersigned claims that he received a majority of the votes legally polled for Member of Assembly in the said Fifteenth Assembly District at the election aforesaid, and that he is entitled to a certificate of election as Member of Assembly from said district.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

WM. McMAHON.

Dated New York, Nov. 15, 1871.

A. R. LAWRENCE, Jr.,
Attorney for Protestant, 25 Nassau st.

City and County of New York, ss.:

William McMahon, of No. 154½ Madison street in said city, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

That at the recent election for Members of Assembly, held in this city on the seventh day of November, 1871, he was a candidate for the office of Assemblyman for the Fourth Assembly District, which is located in the Seventh Ward of said city; and that John J. Blair and Henry Hecker were also candidates for the office of Assemblyman in said Assembly District.

Deponent, by a certificate in writing signed by him, designated for the Election District in said Ward, Theodore Reeb to be present at the canvass of the ballots containing the names of the persons designated for the office of Assemblyman in said Assembly District. John Reilly and James Bailey officiated as inspectors and canvassers on said day at said Election District, at 227 Cherry street in said city. During the progress of the canvass of ballots for Assemblyman of said Assembly District, a false return was made, informed by said Betts that he had been turned out, and the inspectors had refused to permit him to watch the ballots for Assemblyman of said District. Afterwards said Betts returned. The said inspectors and canvassers, deponent being present, refused to permit said Betts to come near enough to see the counting of the said ballots. The said inspectors and canvassers were behind a counter, and the ballots were poured out upon a table which was considerably lower than the counter. Said inspectors, and each and every one of them, stayed behind said counter, with their backs toward the counter, so that the candidate and witnesses could not see said canvass or count. The said inspectors did not, nor did any of said inspectors, count the ballots for Assemblyman at all. They were engaged but a few minutes in the pretended operation of counting before they announced the result. One of said inspectors said, "Give McMahon [deponent] 17; that is enough." One of said canvassers, whom deponent thinks was Patrick Reilly, a brother-in-law of the candidate Blair, said, "Give him [deponent] 20; that will make it right."

Deponent charges that the said John Reilly, James Bailey, and Michael Purcell have, and each of them has, been guilty of criminal offences in violating the election law of this State, in the manner herein set forth; and deponent prays that they, and each and every of them, may be arrested and dealt with according to law.

WM. McMAHON.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this fifteenth day of November, eighteen hundred and seventy-one.

ELLIOT SANFORD,
Notary Public, New York County.

City and County of New York, ss.:

William McMahon, of No. 154½ Madison street, in said city, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

That at the recent election for members of Assembly, held in this city on the seventh day of November, 1871, he was a candidate for the office of Assemblyman for the Fourth Assembly District, which is located in the Seventh Ward of said city; and that John J. Blair and Henry Hecker were also candidates for the office of Assemblyman in said district. Deponent, by a certificate in writing signed by him, designated for the Eighth Election District in said ward, Edmund Clark, to be present at the canvass of the ballots containing the names of the persons designated for the office of Assemblyman in said Assembly District. Christopher Barry, John Whalen, and William O. Davis officiated as inspectors and canvassers of said election district, at 106 Monroe street, in said city. The said canvassers, after the closing of the polls, pretended to canvass the ballots for Assemblyman in said district. While deponent was present, as was also his said watcher, said canvassers, in counting deponent's votes, did corruptly, fraudulently, and wilfully call out "Ten," when there were thirteen, and in some instances fifteen, of ballots cast for deponent, for the office of Assemblyman, as they well knew; and for said number of thirteen and fifteen votes for deponent, they fraudulently, and with intent to defraud deponent out of the number of ballots actually cast for him, only allowed deponent ten. This was done by them at said time and place repeatedly. When said canvassers did this, deponent said unto them to cease, over again the bunch of votes which they claimed to be ten. They fraudulently and corruptly refused, saying that they were "doing it," and not deponent. One of the said canvassers (Whalen) said to deponent that if deponent did not keep still, he (Whalen) would not go on canvassing.

Deponent charges that the said Christopher Barry, John Whalen, and William O. Davis have, and each and every of them, has been guilty of criminal offences in the county of New York, in violating the election law of this State, applicable to the city and county of New York, in the manner herein set forth; and deponent prays that they, and each and every of them, may be arrested and dealt with according to law.
