

We entirely neglected to write a Salutatory for our little BULLETIN with the first number, but do not overlook the importance of a Valedictory announcing that this issue is its last appearance for the season. We hope that it has served the purpose designed and has given satisfaction to the many who have received it. Perhaps we may do so again, don't know now. With many thanks to those who liberally gave us their cards, and to others for their kind words, we shuffle off the daily harness and fall back on the weekly HERALD, to which we kindly invite attention.

The Thespians

Gave a very pleasant entertainment in their Hall Wednesday evening. The bad weather prevented a large attendance. Slasher and Crasher and Fish Out of Water, two excellent comedies, were played by members of the Club.

Last night the weather was good, and the actors were greeted with a full house. The performance of Wednesday evening was repeated in first class style, the frequent applause by the audience showing their warm appreciation and enjoyment.

The fellows who run the "high die," "chuck-a-luck," "wheel of fortune," and such games, are reaping a rich harvest. People who risk their money at such things are impervious to good advice, and we do not propose to waste any on them: it would be "casting pearls before swine." They belong to that numerous class who only learn in the school of experience.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Holmes, L. H. Watts, Master of Laurens County, Mr. J. A. Watts, Col. R. C. Watts, Mr. Irby and others from Laurens Court House are attending the Fair—a fine looking delegation.

Mr. Geo. Marshall, of Ninety-Six, is in town, with a splendid team of chestnut sorrels.

Col. Wm. Wallace, of Columbia, is in town.

Those having articles on exhibition here wishing to exhibit the same at the State Fair can make their entries with Col. Holloway, the Secretary, before the Fair closes, and send articles down Saturday before the Fair opens. This is a great convenience.

We are pleased to learn that Mrs. Langford returned from Maryland last Friday, bringing with her Miss Henrietta, of whose serious illness mention has been made, and that she is somewhat improved.

Annie, a bright, pretty little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Y. Leavell, died Thursday morning, of pneumonia, aged three years. She had been sick only a few days.

The BULLETIN will, during the Fair, contain column after column of advertisements, each advertiser claiming to have the best and the cheapest. I am not a magician, and in spite of modern improvements, have no private method of importing goods from the moon or from any other planet, nor have I discovered the secret of making money by selling all goods at less than cost.

And yet the comparison of my prices with those of other houses, as well as the unbiased remarks of customers, firmly convince me that for GENERAL SHOPPING, my establishment is superior to any in Newberry. The Departments are all full. My Mammoth Stock comprises DRY GOODS, BOOTS and SHOES, CLOTHING, HATS, CROCKERY, TRUNKS, SADDLES, HARNESS, &c. FANCY GOODS and NOTIONS a specialty.
