SANTA CLAUS'

LETTER TO THE PUBLIC.

Office of R. H. MACY & CO.,
Fourteenth st. and Sixth av., N. Y.,
December 27, 1874.

MY DEAR FRIENDS:

For the Seventeenth Season I have to thank you for the hearty support extended to my agents, the MESSRS.

R. H. MACY & CO.

So unparalleled has been their success in the sale of my goods, that I feel bound to MAKE their

Grand Central ESTABLISHMENT

My PERMANENT HEADQUARTERS for the future; therefore, you will always find what ever you may require in my line with them.

They have at present but a small balance of my imported Toys on hand, and to keep up in price what they lack in quantity, they have decided that in addition to their LARGE MARK DOWN, THEY will, for the week ending Jan. 2, 1875, make a Discount of 20 per cent.

on all bills of imported Toys which exceed one dollar.

THIS DISCOUNT is for one week only.

Wishing you the Merriest of Merry Christmases and the Happiest of Happy New Years, I remain as ever,

Your old friend,
ST. NICHOLAS.
