LECTURE.

On Monday eve July 1st, at 8 p. m., Mrs. Lydia A. Irons, National Supt. of the Department of Mercy for the W. C. T. U. will deliver an address at the M. E. Church in Ellensburg. Subject: "The Four-fold Gospel of Mercy." A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present. Do not forget the date—July 1st, in the M. E. Church.

OUR STANDARD BEARERS.

The selection of standard bearers for our party is of most vital interest. Upon their ability, integrity and popularity largely depends the success of the party in the next state campaign. Hence they should be selected with great care. How shall it be done?

There exists a strong prejudice against what is known as the office seeker, and there is a foundation for this feeling. There are tricksters, and it is safe to say that there are unscrupulous seekers for preferment in the People's party, young as it is. Now how shall such people be kept down? By keeping perfectly silent as to possible nominees till the day of the convention?

Could there be a better plan to enable the slick politician to get in his work? We give time to investigate the merits of the respective nominees after the conventions of the various parties, and before they are voted for. Why not give the same opportunity to the members of a party before its candidates are selected, so that no mistake will be made in their selection. We don't believe in the party methods of permitting a few men to get together and select the candidates for the delegates of a convention to vote for. Then how should it be done?

Some method should be adopted. Some plan should be arranged so that there will be uniformity in the manner of selecting the candi-
