FAST TIME ON A HOT DAY.

FIVE EXCITING RACES AT THE FALL MEETING IN JEROME PARK.

Harlequin Astonishes the Turfmen by Rounding to the Front—Loulanier, Jericho, Charley Gorham, and Surge Following Suit.

The fourth day of the Jerome Park races was hot and dusty. In the cloud of pulverized loam reaching from McComb's dam to the park the four-in-hands of Messrs. Hugo Fritsch, Leonard Jerome, and Col. Delancey Kane loomed up in the winding line. They were the only drags that appeared on the lawn under the club house. The general attendance, notably that of ladies, was smaller than on ordinary occasions. After the racing began, the sun poured into the front row of benches in the grand stand with scorching heat, forcing the spectators to take back seats. The reporters stuck to their seats like salamanders. The veteran Joseph Elliott stuck a page of a newspaper containing an account of the Arctic voyage of the Jeannette under his hat; the statistical "Erik" kept himself cool by informing green reporters how the horses came in; the sportive Salmon was completely broiled; Bowers kept shady; Robbins lashed himself behind a post, while Major Noah slid over the upper end of the stand into Kelly & Bliss's bookmaking box. The more than July fierceness of the sun's rays, however, warmed the betting men into great activity, and the horses into the best displays of speed seen at this meeting.

The first race was a mile and a furlong for a purse of $400 for maiden three-year-olds. The starters were F. Morris's Avenger, by Westminster, 118 lbs.; P. Lorillard's Pawnee, by Leamington, 115; W. Astor's Lulu, by Harry Bassett, 115; E. Sutliffe's Harlequin, by Glenelg, 110; A. Belmont's Fiddlestring, by Kingfisher, 110; C. Smith's Utilita, by Pimlico, 110; and W. R. Babcock's Pequot, by Lexington, 110. Lulu sold favorite at 2 to 1 against Pequot and Pawnee, 3 to 1; Harlequin and Utilita, 2 to 1; Fiddlestring, 7 to 1, and Avenger, 8 to 1.

This turned out a beautiful race, leaving the result in doubt until the last leap. The seven ran grouped after the flag fell until they had passed the stand at the furlong. Lulu, Pawnee, and Pequot pushing their heads in front as named, the others in the dust at their sides and hoofs. Lulu carried the Astor colors clear of the dust until within about a furlong of the finish, when Harlequin, who had worked through from the ruck, sprang for the lead, lapped by Pequot and Pawnee, who had also passed Lulu, Harlequin won by a head, Pequot second, and Pawnee third, a distance off. Time, 2:01¾.

This was followed by a race of one mile and three-quarters; handicap sweepstakes of $25 each, with $600 added, of which $100 to second. The contestants were L. Hart's Charley Howard, by Lexington, 113; W. Jennings's Glenmore, by Glen Athol, 110; G. L. Lorillard's Loulanier, by Lever, 106; Power & Son's Volturno, by Billett, 105; C. Reed's Bonnie Wood, by Bonnie Scotland, 102; D. D. Withers's Report, by King Ernest, 101; the same gentleman's Invermoor, by Lexington, 101; G. Bowie's Belle, by Dickens, 95; and Puryear & Co.'s Bulwark, by Bonnie Scotland, 94. Loulanier and Volturno sold favorites at even money, 5 to 1 against Bonnie Wood and Charley Howard, 6 to 1 against Belle and Bulwark, and 10 to 1 against Report and Invermoor.

When the flag fell the most even field of horses that has raised the dust at this meeting started away with a rush, in solid order. Volturno cut out the work down the shute and around the bluff. Loulanier, Glenmore, Charley Howard, and Report shutting out the daylight, with the others thundering at their hoofs. Coming up the stretch after rounding the lower turn, Charley Howard showed in front, passing the stand at the end of three-quarters of a mile one length in front of Volturno, Loulanier, Bulwark, Report, and the others so close and running so well that it was anybody's race. Around the upper turn they flew, Volturno having crept up and lapped Charley Howard to his neck, Loulanier pressing Volturno, and the others sung up, as before, all making a lovely brush. As they came out from behind the club house bluff the second time Volturno had again grasped the lead, Loulanier showed in second place, the others making various changes, with Howard dropping behind. Coming up the homestretch, George Lorillard's colors showed in front, and the cry arose, "Loulanier will win." Belle had now worked to the leading line, and was trying her speed at the close of the long brush with Loulanier. Invermoor also came in sight through the ruck. At the close of a desperate finish Loulanier's head crossed the line first, ahead of Belle, who was a length in front of Invermoor, third. Howard came in last. Time, 3:10.

A race of mile heats for a purse of $600 for all ages, $100 to second horse, came next on the card. The bell brought out J. N. Ackerman's Edwin A., by Revolver, 116 lbs.; W. Astor's Vagrant, by Virgil, 116; W. Mulkey's Chiquita, by Bonnie Scotland, 116; Dwyer Brothers' Jericho, by Revolver, 105; Barnes & Co.'s Gabriel, by Alarm, 105; and P. Lorillard's Boardman, by Bonnie Scotland, 90. Gabriel and Boardman were the favorites at even money, 2 to 1 against Jericho, 4 to 1 against Edwin A., 5 to 2 against Chiquita, and 6 to 1 against Vagrant.

Another exciting and very similar race followed in the first heat. Chiquita, Gabriel, Boardman, and Jericho, all running like first-class race horses, with Vagrant and Edwin A. in their shadows. They ran around the mile like a group of frightened mustangs, all in a bunch, and when they passed the line to the chorus of yells from the quarterstretch, field, and stand, Gabriel took the heat by a nose only from Jericho, who was lapped to the ears by Boardman third. Time, 1:47¼.

For the second heat the bookmakers laid 2 to 5 against Gabriel; Jericho, 2 to 1; Edwin A. and Boardman, 6 to 1; Chiquita, 7 to 1; and Vagrant, 15 to 1. This heat, like the first, was contested stubbornly from the start to the finish, the six running as close as a pack of wolves after a stray traveller. Jericho, Edwin A., and Gabriel, held the lead alternatively as they dashed around the mile. Jericho crossed the line first, lapped to the saddle by Vagrant, while Edwin A's head was on a line with Vagrant's neck, Gabriel fourth. Time, 1:47.

For the final heat Jericho sold at 4 to 5, with even money on Gabriel. The colts were off at the first attempt, Jericho leading by a length as they passed the stand on their mile journey. Jericho drew away gradually as they raced around the upper turn, bluff, and lower turn into the homestretch. Here the lash was freely applied to Gabriel, which was continued up the stretch, to no effect. Jericho, running like a racehorse, kept widening the breach without persuasion, until at the finish he had placed eight open lengths between himself and Gabriel, the latter coming in a very tired horse. Time, 1:47¾.

A spin of three-quarters of a mile for a purse of $300, for all ages, with selling allowances, came fourth on the card. There appeared at the post J. Bevan's Hattie F., by Leamington, 105 lbs.; Dwyer Brothers' Charley Gorham, by Blarnestone, 105; Ayres & Co.'s Allevuer, by Gilroy, 104; McCormick's Terror, by Alarm, 104; A. Taylor's Milan, by Melbourne, Jr., 104; W. H. Briggs's Sunlight, by Australian, 101; Nelson & Co.'s Private, by Kingfisher, 92; P. Lorillard's Variety, by Saxon, 87, and Daly Brothers' Jessie D., by Revolver, 77. Milan and Charley Gorham were the favorites, selling at 2 against 1; the others ranging from 6 to 1 to 12 to 1 against.

The field dashed away like a squadron of cavalry heading a charge, Allevuer, Milan, and Charley Gorham leading the chargers as named. The squad rushed at a hot pace around the bluff, lower turn, and up the stretch, making as fast time, possibly, as was ever seen on this course, Charley Gorham flying under the wire a winner in 1:17. Allevuer came in second, and Milan third.

The last event was a scramble of three-quarters of a mile for a sweepstakes of $25 each, with $300 added; gentlemen riders. J. N. Ackerman's Surge, by Revolver, ridden by Mr. Purdy, 164 lbs.; Bennett & Co.'s Dandy, by Oysterman, Jr., ridden by Mr. Kane, 161; Bertha, by Glenelg, ridden by Mr. Griswold, 154; and W. Price's Pique, by Leamington, Mr. Iselin, rider, 154, started for the stakes. Bertha was looked as favorite at even money; 5 to 2 against Surge, and 3 to 1 against Pique and Dandy.

This race, like the preceding contests, was fought with determination from the dropping of the flag to the goal. Dandy, Pique, and Surge alternately took the lead, Surge finally rushing to the front under the shadow of the judges' stand, winning by half a length from Pique, who was lapped by Dandy third. Time, 1:21¼—very fast for gentlemen riders on the winding Jerome Park course.

Going to Blackwell's Island.

A clerical-looking young man, with a full brown beard and wearing neat black clothing, applied in August to Messrs. Daniell & Son, the Broadway dry goods dealers, for employment as a salesman. He said that he was Charles Pegler, a recent arrival from London. His appearance and manners were very satisfactory, and he was engaged. Goods disappeared from the shelves and counters, but Pegler, on account of his very proper deportment, was not suspected. Detective Hall, however, watched him, and found that Pegler frequently visited an east side pawnbroker's shop. He arrested Pegler, and found in his pockets pawn tickets for many articles that Messrs. Daniell & Son identified. In Pegler's room at 162 Fourth avenue, more articles belonging to the firm were found. Pegler, as sanctimonious in earb and manner as of old, pleaded guilty yesterday in the General Sessions, to three indictments. Judge Cowing sentenced him to the penitentiary for six months under each indictment.

A Hen's Liking for Puppies.

BELLEVILLE, Ont., Oct. 9.—Henry E. Fillitter of Thurlow says that one of his hounds gave birth recently to four puppies, which, when only a few days old, were taken in possession by a large Brahma hen, which drove the mother away after a desperate fight and actually mothered, to shelter them under her wings. One of the puppies died, and the others were then returned to the hound, but the hen had to be locked up to keep her from again breaking up the family circle.

Roasting a Steer.

Butcher Brühl drove to the Lion Brewery Park a fine fat steer at daybreak yesterday. The steer was led within the grounds, and then killed skinned dressed, and spitted, and by 6 o'clock was hanging over a low fire, and slowly revolving as two stout men turned the spit. Ten hours later the steer was done brown, and a great throng came from the steaming carcass and greeted the members of the Stephen N. Simonson Association, from the seventh Assembly District, as they gathered at the Park for the second annual barbecue. After the carving the Simonsonians ate heartily, and then aided digestion by dancing all the evening.

Ruined by Bad Associates.

George Kniefert of 107 Avenue A inherited a small fortune from his father several years ago. Being under 30 years of age and unmarried, he became the easy prey of abandoned persons. He ran through his money, and recently found himself in need. He expected another installment of his inheritance, and resorted to expedients for getting an easy living suggested by his depraved associates. Otto Thie's barroom, at 185 Eldridge street, was broken open and robbed, on the morning of the 23d of August last, and Kniefert was seen to walk away from the rear window, through which an entrance had been forced. He was convicted yesterday in the General Sessions, and Judge Cowing sentenced him to State prison for two years.

RUPTURE

ADDITIONAL PROOFS of the EFFICACY OF DR. J. A. SHERMAN'S METHOD for the RELIEF AND CURE OF RUPTURE.

MRS. M. E. FAGAN'S LETTER CONCERNING HER HUSBAND'S PROGRESS:

Dr. J. A. SHERMAN.
Dear Sir: I have just received your letter to my husband inquiring after his health, and in his absence take the liberty to reply at once. He is at present at Fankner's Island. I am happy to say, as he would be, that he is, and has been, doing splendidly ever since you saw him in Boston, and commenced treating his case of rupture the 8th day of February last. He said just before he went away that he thought he was entirely cured, but of course would continue to use the appliance until he could see you, or indeed all his life, for all the trouble it was to him. He has never lost a day's work on account of his rupture since he took your treatment. He has been out of the Curative for some time, and if you think he needs more, please send by express. He has heartily recommended your treatment and would join with me in saying there is nothing equal to it for the relief of rupture. I thank you for the interest you have taken in his behalf. Will write him, and if possible he will call and see you on his return. Respectfully,
Mrs. M. E. FAGAN, 4 High st. ct.
Portland, Me., Aug. 7, 1879.

The following, from a well-known Bostonian, gives ample assurance of the efficacy of Dr. Sherman's treatment:

H. F. RICE TO DR. W. PRYOR.

W. PRYOR, M. D., 1,410 Olive st., St. Louis—Dear Sir: I am in receipt of your favor of the 28th ult., inquiring of me whether I was cured of rupture by the appliances of Dr. J. A. Sherman. My answer is that I was.

While residing in Boston, in 1859, and in the express business, under the name of Fisk & Rice, office Court square, I was ruptured on the right side. I purchased a truss of Dr. Phelps, on Tremont st., opposite the Tremont House, about 1863 or 1864, and since I resided here I became ruptured on the left side, too, and of course was obliged to wear a double truss, and from this time on I suffered great agony from all the trusses I could find. I was on a trip to Boston in the spring of 1871, and got a truss made by a brother of the Dr. Phelps who made my single one; but this, like all the double ones I had tried, soon gave me great pain. While subject to these torments I saw the advertisement of Dr. Sherman in the San Francisco papers, opened a correspondence with him, and then visited him, I think in April, 1873, and commenced his treatment. On the following March, about eleven months after, I abandoned the appliances which he had given me, and have never used or had occasion to use either since. I am perfectly and fully cured of a rupture of over twenty years' standing.

I cannot too strongly recommend to all afflicted in the same way the use of Dr. Sherman's appliances.

I have been a resident of this place for sixteen years, and there is not a State or United States official who does not know me. Very truly, H. F. RICE.
Carson City, Nev., March 8, 1876.

Dr. R. M. KURLEY, an eminent physician, writes to a Boston inquirer:

W. H. PRESCOTT, Esq., Boston, Mass.
Dear Sir: For the last year I have been living at Ferguson, Mo. Yours of the 7th instant to hand this A. M. inquiring about Dr. J. A. Sherman's treatment. If you have a hernia, or rupture, sometimes called, go, by all means, and consult Dr. Sherman. He has the most perfect cure for it I have ever met with. He made a perfect cure upon my wife. If you see Dr. Sherman, present my regards; tell him to write to me. Yours respectfully, R. M. KURLEY, M. D.
Ferguson, Mo., Feb. 11, 1879.

Mr. P. J. McCULLOUGH's communication to the Boston Daily Herald of his cure of double rupture:

To the Editor of the Herald: Seeing so much about Dr. J. A. Sherman, I will give my experience about his treatment:

I was ruptured on both sides for twelve years, and during that time I used different trusses, to no purpose save annoyance from pressure, excoriation, injury, and the mortification of seeing my rupture increasing. Finally I caught a report of Dr. J. A. Sherman's success in the cure of this ailment, and went to his office, 251 Broadway, New York, last October, and procured his treatment, which has been followed by the greatest satisfaction and comfort to me from the first day, enabling me to work and attend to my business, which is that of a stonecutter, with as much vigor and ambition as one should be desired. Besides the relief, the improvement has continued until I now feel myself entirely cured. Can exercise without appliance, without feeling any more symptoms of rupture. This test leads me to regard the treatment as invaluable to the ruptured, and prompts me to recommend it to their attention, with full confidence that it will relieve and cure them. My place of business is 82 Liberty street. P. J. McCULLOUGH.
Lynn, Mass., Aug. 12, 1879.

Mr. CHARLES G. SARGENT writes as follows:

Dr. J. A. SHERMAN.
Dear Sir: I received your treatment in Boston, 27th of last February. Case progressing finely. Please send me some more of the curative application by express. CHAS. G. SARGENT.
Springfield, Mass., May 25, 1879.

Mr. W. D. BRACKETT writes about Dr. J. A. SHERMAN'S treatment:

To the Editor of the Herald: For the benefit of the public I make the following statement: Last winter I called on Dr. J. A. Sherman, 43 Milk st., and was treated by him for a right side rupture, from which I had suffered a great deal. I have done well under his treatment, and believe I am now quite, if not entirely, cured. A short time after I received his treatment, I felt so well satisfied that I drove in my wagon twelve miles to see Mr. L——, of Salem, because of the fact that he was suffering from a bad rupture. He said he had tried so many things and received no benefit, that he was afraid it would do no use; "but," said he, "as you have felt so much interested in me as to come here on purpose to get me to go and see Dr. Sherman, I will do so." He came to Boston, saw the Doctor, took his treatment, has been greatly benefited, and often said to me, when we have been talking about Dr. Sherman, that he would not take $5,000 and be in the same condition he was when he went to Boston. In April last he recommended a friend of his—Mr. H. Sawlon—who was suffering from a bad rupture, to go to Dr. Sherman.

He went to Dr. Sherman's New York office; was treated by him with such success as to make him feel very proud. Mr. H. is a large man; his rupture had not been reduced for many years, and he was a great sufferer. I have heard from him frequently, and he is doing well.

As there is most an effort made by another party advertising himself Dr. Sherman, by which I was misled and discourteously treated when the party learned I was looking for Dr. J. A. Sherman, I feel that I am but doing my duty to the afflicted in reminding them to be sure and consult Dr. J. A. Sherman, 43 Milk st., feeling that they will receive the same benefit at his hands as I and my friends have received. W. D. BRACKETT.
Ipswich, Mass., Aug. 1, 1879.

Extract from Mr. WM. L. HAWKINS'S letter concerning his cure:

Dr. J. A. SHERMAN.
Dear Sir: It is now more than a year since I went under treatment by you. I am confident that I am cured. I shall have nothing further to report of my case, as I have considered myself cured for months.
Respectfully yours, WM. L. HAWKINS.
Thomas Run P. O., Harford County, Md., March 2, 1879.
On reference to my case book, I find that Mr. Hawkins was treated at my Baltimore office, Dec. 12, 1878. He is a farmer, 34 years of age, and had been ruptured from infancy, and suffered greatly from the use of trusses.

Another Boston patient writes:
Extract from Mr. JOHN TURNER'S letter relative to his progress:

Dr. J. A. SHERMAN, 43 Milk st., Boston.
Dear Sir: I write to inform you that I am getting along nicely. Your appliance is the best thing that I ever used. I don't feel the least bit of inconvenience, and should advise any one that is ruptured to call and see you and procure your treatment. Yours respectfully, JOHN TURNER, Jr.
Maynard, Mass., Aug. 6, 1879.

W. A. HOPKINS, Ninth National Bank, New York, writes a Boston inquirer as follows:

W. H. KIMBALL, Esq.—
Dear Sir: Your letter received and contents noted. I was fully cured of rupture by Dr. J. A. Sherman about ten years ago; have been a sound man ever since. You may rest assured there is no humbug about the Doctor; that I can vouch for myself. If you are ruptured I would advise you to place yourself under his treatment, as I know you will never have cause to regret it.
Respectfully yours, W. A. HOPKINS.
Ninth National Bank, New York, March 8, 1879.

Mr. HENRY PARKER, a Boston patient, writes:

Dr. J. A. SHERMAN, 43 Milk st., Boston.
Dear Sir: After suffering from hernia the past eighteen years, and using all the best trusses to be found in Boston, with no apparent good and continued suffering, in December last, by the recommendation of Mr. B. W. Felton, a merchant, 2,334 Washington st., Boston,
