THE DAWN.

Whoever controls the volume of money in any country is absolute master of industry and commerce.—Jas. A. Garfield.

VOL. 2.

ELLENSBURG, WASH., SATURDAY, NOV. 9, 1895.

NO. 13.

MORE MONEY CAN'T SAVE.

NO SOLUTION OF THE MONEY QUESTION WILL AVAIL UNLESS INTEREST IS DESTROYED.

It takes twenty pounds of cotton to get a dollar, isn't there something the matter with the dollar?

If you have to work ten hours to get a dollar, when you used to get two for ten hours, what's the matter? Isn't the matter in the dollar?

If it takes two bushels of wheat to get a dollar, isn't there something wrong with the dollar, when you used to get a dollar for one bushel?

If you have to sell twice as many goods to get dollars enough to pay store rent as you once did, is the trouble in your goods or the dollars?

If the trouble is not in the dollar where is it? Wouldn't it be a good thing to locate the trouble, wherever it is, and then cure it? Or, do you think "good times" will cure it? If you do, what do you say to this fact: With the same kind of "good times" as we have had in the past, and the same concentration of wealth in the hands of the people who don't create it, all the wealth in fourteen years will be owned by a few monopolists. Who will own you then? Who will own your children? Can you think?

Don't flatter yourself that more money will settle the labor problem. It will bring relief, but this is an age of machinery and the machines that make shoes, clothing, coats, hats, wagons, plows, that bale hay, harvest, plant and stack wheat, set type, cut and fold newspapers, pull stumps, plow corn and work roads and in fact do all kinds of labor so much better, cheaper and quicker than you can, will find employment while you are idle, no matter how plentiful money may be. Nine million producers now supply the wants of our sixty or seventy millions of people. A few more inventions equal to the type setting machines, hay balers and stump pullers and that number will be reduced one half. You see the laboring man will soon be largely like a worn out suit of clothes.—Coming Nation.

—According to the news sent out from New York 5,000 bankers are preparing to enter into a formidable organization for the protection of banking interests in this country. The machinery has already been set in motion for the perfection of the organization prior to the meeting of the next session of congress. The combine propose to more perfectly control the volume of currency than they now do.

A man who had been a sufferer from rheumatic trouble for 7 or 8 years, until he made the discovery which cured him in twenty-four hours, will assist others similarly affected free of price.

ANOTHER WAY OF PUTTING THE QUESTION.

The Iowa Tribune publishes the following novel advertisement of a new brand of democracy prevalent in that State—the man, Richmond, doing his own billing:

POLITICAL SPEAKING.

In the Peoples' Court of the United States, in and for Monroe county.

Gold, Plaintiff, } Motion to vs. } Vacate
Silver, Defendant, } Judgment.

The above entitled coause will come on for hearing at _____ township, Monroe county, Iowa, _____ evening, October _____, at 7:30 p. m., L. T. Richmond, of Albia, Iowa, appearing for the defendant, and Cleveland Democracy and John Sherman Republicanism appearing for the plaintiff.

The cause will be will be tried to a jury of voters, verdict to be rendered Nov. 5, 1895. Trial will be open to the public and the friends of the Plaintiff are especially invited to attend.
By Order Committee.

Farmer's, laboring men, merchants, doctors and lawyers, attention! Have you secured one of the National Accident Society's popular $12,000 combination accident policies, costing only $20 per year? If you get one at once from O. M. Lattimer, Agent, Room 55, Geddis Block. [77.]

Direct Legislation Issue:

The Tacoma Sun will soon issue a special number devoted exclusively to the subject of Direct Legislation and Proportional Representation. These questions are but little understood, and yet they are most important in the reform curriculum. Populist speakers can make more votes by an intelligent and earnest discussion of the Initiative and Referendum than in any other way. Post yourself on these issues by ordering this number of the Pacific Coast Populist paper. Single copy 5c., per hundred $2. Orders must be received at once. Address: THE SUN, Tacoma, Wash.

“Cold Facts” is one of the best little pamphlets on the market.—Chicago Sentinel.

Our people are continually fighting orchard pests and yet they persist in buying trees from eastern nurseries that are said to be infected and diseased generally. Every tree in the White Salmon nursery is guaranteed to be absolutely free from disease and pest of all kinds. If you want to buy fruit trees and desire to know more of this nursery call on S. W. Maxey, the fruit tree inspector of this district, and get his opinion of the stock of the trees from this nursery.

Those Bonds.

Kittitas county, with a bonded debt of $70,000, has just taken another load in the modest sum $119,000, making a total of $194,000.

At 6 per cent interest, the taxpayers of Kittitas county will be required to pay an annual interest debt of $11,640, or nearly $1,000 per month! How is that for high? The population of Kittitas county is estimated at only 8,000, and Ellensburg is the county seat and principal town, with about 2,500 population. With wheat at 35 cents a bushel, oats at 15 cents, silver demonetized, the greenbacks to be retired, and the single gold standard firmly fastened upon the people, how many thousand years will it require to get Kittitas county out of debt.—Vancouver, Wash., Register.

No man is so possessed of such a superfluity of wisdom that he can rise above his party and demand its humble adoration, and whether it be the president of the United States or a county commissioner who attempts it, sooner or later he will be called down with a thud, and spend the rest of his days wondering where he is at.—Ex
