

NEWS FROM ALL SECTIONS.

GENERAL LOCAL NEWS.

"I cannot tell how the truth may be, I tell the tale as 'twas told to me."

The Wenatchee merchants are paying 42 cents for wheat.

Snow came down slow but sure nearly all day Wednesday.

MONEY on hand for farm loans. C. H. Stewart, No. 58 Geddis Block.

Geo. W. Weaver called and enrolled on the DAWN list this week.

Don't fail to see the new goods At The Cyclone.

Wm VonNeida is acting as night policeman during the illness of Chas. Frazier.

Get a fine singing bird and cage at Willis' Bazaar. 14tf

W. E. Lothridge made us a call Tuesday and enrolled his name on DAWNS subscription list.

Morgan's Book Store has a very large stock of Holiday goods this year and will not be undersold.

Chas. Frazier, the night policeman, is laying very sick at his room in the Durgan house.

Get one of those Onix stand banquet lamps, at Willis' Bazaar.

Last call, fair warning, Xmas candies hard times prices, at The Oasis. Stone bank building.

Toys and dolls in great variety at Morgan's Book Store.

E. S. Forgarty opened his store on last Saturday and had a good run of business during the day.

Go to Willis' Bazaar and get a pair of steel runners for your baby carriage. 14tf

R. R. Pinnell made us a call on Saturday. Uncle Dick is one of the Pioneer Populists of the county.

Something sweet for Christmas, At The Cyclone.

A. M. Miller, of North Yakima, made us a call Tuesday. He will please accept our thanks for favors.

Emerald Soap 25 bars $1.00 The Cyclone

H. B. Crocket, of Seattle, formerly of this city, shot and killed a negro man named Geo. White, in a Yesler Avenue saloon.

Wheeler has a crowd of men and children standing in front of his store almost every day this week looking at the cars and wheel.

A shooting match for some fine turkeys is to come off at the Joyce place, 6 miles N. E. of town on the 22d—first house above John Oldings.

Chas Schroeder has opened up an auction room in the Davidson block, where he proposes to sell at public auction any and every article that can be bought in the market.

Query—Wonder if it is on account of the mistakes made in printing the brief of the plaintiff in the case of Loranee vs. the City of Ellensburg, that is causing the delay in the decision of that case?

Nice lot of ornaments in At The Cyclone.

Mrs. M. D. Wood was unable to get off to Centralia as announced two weeks ago, but left on Wednesday of this week. The old man will get awful lonesome but is so constituted as make himself at home even in the bachelors hall.

Big drive in toilet and laundry soap At The Cyclone.

The newspaper man's best friend is the man who gives him news. It may be necessary to roast a subscriber or even score an advertiser once in a while; but the man who will step out of his way to give an item to the newspapers is a patriot and friend above reproach.

Do you want to get the top price for your lard? If so, put it up in the stenciled bucket that Hornbeck & Emigh have for sale. 7tf

One of our business men makes a vigorous kick on the language used by John Smith in his article of two weeks ago. He says there too much indecent language used by the writer and that further, it was very insulting. It might be it was read with colored glasses.

Every cash purchase of One Dollar or more entitles the purchaser to ticket on that elegant Music Box, at C. E. Wheeler's Book Store.

Wash boiler and Over-shoes At The Cyclone.

C. H. Stewart now has money on hand to make farm loans.

WANTED:—Several trustworthy gentlemen or ladies to travel in Washington for established reliable house. Salary $780 and expenses. Steady position. Enclose reference and self addressed stamped envelope. The Dominion Company, Third Floor Omaha Bldg., Chicago, Ill. (13)

Farmer's, laboring men, merchants, doctors and lawyers, attention! Have you secured one of the National Accident Society's popular $12,000 combination accident policies, costing only $20 per year? If not, get one at once from O. M. Latimer, Agent, Room 55, Geddis Block. [7tf]

S. T. Cox made us a very pleasant call on last Saturday. He presented ye editor with two as fine apples as we have seen in the state. One was a King of Tompkins and weighed 12 ounces, the was a Gloria Mundi and weighed 14 ounces. The Mundi, the largest apple known, dark green, course, sub-acid, good for drying. King of Tompkins is very large, mostly covered and striped with crimson; flesh yellowish, juicy, tender, rich, aromatic and one of the best varieties. Mr. Cox knows how to please the palate of the printer and will please accept our thanks for same. Call again Mr. Cox.

HIGH PRICES SURRENDER TO THE BOOMING GUNS OF

FOGARTY!

It Does Not Take a Ladder to Reach Them.

18 Pounds Granulated Sugar	-----	$1.00
Table Peaches	-----	12 1-2 Cents per Can.
" Pears	-----	12 1-2 " " "
" Apricots	-----	12 1-2 " " "
" Plums	-----	12 1-2 " " "
" Grapes	-----	12 1-2 " " "
H. H. Savon Soap 55c. per Box

Rubber Goods, Gents Furnishings, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Crockery and Glassware, Etc.,

AT "SNAPPY" PRICES,

and all Guaranteed Strictly First Class!

SPECIAL PRICES IN QUANTITIES

TERMS STRICTLY CASH!

E. F. FOGARTY,

ELLENSBURG.

WASH