EDWARD HOGAN'S RECORD.—TO THE CITIZENS OF THE 5TH SENATORIAL DISTRICT: Edward Hogan was elected by you two years ago to represent you in the Senate of this State.

How has he discharged that trust? What has he done to justify the confidence you then reposed in him? Nothing! Less than nothing!! Let his recorded votes speak the Senator answer.

Who voted to reduce the pay of policemen and firemen? Edward Hogan. He then betrayed your trust!

Who voted for reducing school teachers' salaries? Edward Hogan. He again betrayed your trust.

Who voted against reducing the fare on 34th Street Ferry between the hours of 5 and 8? Edward Hogan. This ferry is crossed at those hours by hundreds of workingmen and working girls who have to pay four cents to go three-quarters of a mile, yet this man Hogan, elected by workingmen to represent their interests, again betrays the trust reposed in him, and votes to make them pay this exorbitant fare!

Edward Hogan again betrayed your trust when he voted against the bill to make New York city the terminus of all great railroads, thus depriving hundreds of workingmen of a chance of obtaining steady employment. This Senator has been employed by the Erie Railway Company for the last three years, at a salary of $250 a month. What service does he render for this money? The foregoing vote is the answer. And this again he betrays your trust. He protects capital against labor! For this vote he was publicly denounced by the Chamber of Commerce!

Edward Hogan eternally disgraced himself, and again betrayed your trust, when he voted with the Republicans for the acquittal of the infamous Superintendent of Insurance Smyth, against the protest of the Democratic Governor of the State. Lucius Robinson—voted to keep in office a man who had been proved guilty of the meanest of all crimes—defrauding the widow and the orphan!

Edward Hogan, by his silence, tacitly agrees that the elevated railroad company have the right to occupy the Battery Park, and encumber in every way most offensive to the citizens the principal thoroughfare in the Fifth District, thus, to say the least, neglecting your interests.

Notwithstanding all this, which he cannot deny, is but strictly the truth, without embellishment, this man impudently steps forward again and insults your intelligence by asking you to send him back to the Senate, not indeed as a Democrat, for he has left the party to which he owes everything, but presents himself before you as the candidate of the Roders and the Republicans.

Surely there is some man among you capable and willing to represent you fairly. Seek him out and send him to the Senate, to show the people of the city and State that you are their equals in intelligence. Send no hireling of rich corporations to represent workingmen. Send no tender to Republican politicians to represent Democrats. Send no traitor to represent you.
