LIFE IN WASHINGTON.

The Amusements of Our Fraudulent Statesmen.

From the Cincinnati Commercial.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—I believe the members of the Cabinet are all in town. I called on Postmaster-General Key the other evening and found him engaged in a hot game of cards with four other players in the country. After operate another player in the Ebbitt House relaying the judge I met in the Ebbitt House relaying the judge I met in the Ebbitt House relaying the judge I met
