$1000 REWARD

For any case of Blind, Bleeding, Itching, Ulcerated, or Protruding Piles, that DR. BINGS'S PILE REMEDY fails to cure.

Mrs. Ellen Johnson, 327 spruce st., Phila., wrote, April 10, 1879: "Dr. J. P. Miller—Dear Sir: Your Dr. Bing's Pile Remedy cured me in one week, after I had used all the medicines I could hear of, and was told by a prominent surgeon in this city that my only chance for a cure was an operation that he wanted to charge fifty dollars for."

J. P. Cooper, druggist, at Savannah, Mo., wrote, Sept. 11, 1878: "Dr. J. P. Miller—Dear Sir: I have been selling Dr. Bing's Pile Remedy for several years, always recommending it, and some times guaranteeing it to cure. So far I have not met with but one case that it did not cure."

W. B. Stewart, druggist, Canonsburg, Pa., wrote, May 4, 1878: "Dr. J. P. Miller—Dear Sir: I have your medicine, Dr. Bing's Pile Remedy, always in stock, and will become a friend for life in a case of 30 years' standing, and can honestly and do most sincerely recommend it."

G. B. Cole, M. D., of drug firm of Cole & Wick, at Ashland, O., wrote, April 22, 1878: "Dr. J. P. Miller—Dear Sir: We are having sales of your Dr. Bing's Pile Remedy, and we feel bound to recommend it. I have a prominent physician. I am confident the time will come when it will be popular, as it has the merits, and will recommend itself when other quacks."

For sale by all druggists. Price, $1 a box. Dr. J. P. Miller, S. W. cor. 10th and Arch sts., Phila., Pa. Sold in New York at Astor House drug store, and by other druggists.
