OUR GREATEST RACE DAY.

OPENING OF THE AMERICAN JOCKEY CLUB'S MEETING FOR 1880.

The Resources of a Great Railroad Overtaxed—Immense Crowds on Dead-Head Hill and Inside the Park—Five Exciting Races and a Rather Tame Steeplechase.

Never, since the inauguration of Jerome Park as a racing ground, has so large a number of spectators flocked to it as journeyed thither yesterday by rail, coaches, carriages, and wagons, to see the opening races of 1880. People stood uncomplainingly on the platforms of cars brought into requisition from dusty side tracks. While rushing through smoky tunnels and under low bridges, men felt the cinders and dirt tickling down the backs of their necks without a murmur. A jam at the new siding which leads into the grounds, and crushes at the places where tickets for the races were sold, were endured with equal equanimity by the proverbial good-natured masses of New York.

Those who went by the roads through Central Park enjoyed as fine a ride as the season will afford. The refreshing rains of the previous two days had given to the trees and shrubbery the beautiful emerald tinge seen only in the early days of summer. The roads were not disagreeably dusty, and the procession from the city to the Park was one long to be remembered. In the line the merry horn was heard from the four-in-hands of Messrs. Belmont, Fritsch, Bronson, Boudowine, Lorillard, Schermerhorn, Jerome, Havemeyer, Neilson, and the Sturtevant Club. The display of drags was the largest ever seen at the races.

Before the bell called out the races, at 3¾, Deadhead Hill, the field, the grand stand, the quarter stretch, the betting enclosure, the club house veranda, the grassy knolls under the club house, and the green lane between the main race course and three-quarter-mile chute, where the stable boys and riders congregate to watch the races with the most eager eyes of all, were black with spectators.

The sport began with a mile dash for a purse of $500. The starters were A. V. Conover's Leamington chestnut gelding, 3 years, carrying 89 lbs.; Dwyer brothers' bay colt Quito, 3 years, 100 lbs.; J. J. Hyland's bay colt Clarendon, 3 years, 95 lbs.; T. Puryear's bay horse Bulwark, 4 years, 115 lbs.; and A. Taylor's chestnut filly Una, 4 years, 110 lbs. The bookmakers were taking 3 to 2 on Quito, 5 to 2 on Una, and 4 to 1 on Bulwark, Clarendon, and the Leamington colt.

The race was exciting from the start to the finish. Una cut out the work for the first quarter of a mile, with Quito crowding and the others in close company. Rounding the hill Quito's head showed in front for a short distance, but he shortly dropped back to third place, Una again taking the lead, with the Leamington colt working up to try conclusions. Before they had run three-quarters of a mile Clarendon and Bulwark were out of the race, and the three leaders flying in close order to the homestretch. Coming up, Una and the Leamington colt drew away from Quito. The race was so close between the two leaders that at the last half furlong the result was a little in doubt. But the game War Dance filly Una spurted under the whip and came in one length in front of the Leamington colt, Quito third, six lengths behind, with Clarendon fourth. Time, 1:48¾.

Next came a scramble of one mile and a half for the great Metropolitan stakes (handicap) of $100 each, with $1,000 added, the second horse to receive $200. The starters were G. L. Lorillard's Harold, 116 pounds; J. A. Grinstead's St. Martin, 113; Dwyer Brothers' Jericho, 113; G. L. Lorillard's Ferida, 112; D. D. Withers's Report, 109; E. N. Snedeker's Aureolus, 108; J. J. Bevins's Vagrant, 107; T. H. Ferris's Startle, 100; Jas. McCullough's Geo. McCullough, 100; and Dwyer Brothers' Peter Hynes, 102. Harold and Aureolus were the favorites in the betting at 3 to 1; Jericho, 4 to 1; Ferida and George McCullough, 5 to 1; Vagrant, 6 to 1; and Peter Hynes, Report, St. Martin, and Startle 8 to 1.

A great deal of money was placed on this race, and there was a feverish excitement among the spectators on the quarter stretch and in the stand as the squad came rushing up from the trees which blind the half-mile start so close together that it was difficult to pick the leaders. Before reaching the furlong pole George Lorillard's bright blue and orange colors on Ferida were seen in the van, with George McCullough on nearly even terms. Report and Aureolus at their flanks, and the rest close in the press. Report was pushed by the post at the first half Ferida still held the post of honor, McCullough alongside, with Aureolus coming fast. Round the upper turn and hill they flew like a squad of wild horses, with Aureolus apparently weakening. As he rushed around the hill the change of leaning from the left to right gave him renewed vigor, and he began to creep up again, Ferida in the mean time having relinquished first place to McCullough. Coming up the stretch the second time to the finish Aureolus proved himself a racer-horse. He had beaten Ferida, Harold, Jericho, and was placing plenty of daylight between himself and McCullough. He passed the post a winner by three lengths from McCullough, with Report third, Ferida fourth, and the others strung out. Time, 2:45.

The third event was a free handicap for all ages, for a $600 purse; distance, one mile and three furlongs. The starters were Dwyer Brothers' bay gelding Warfield, 4 years, 102 lbs.; J. J. Hyland's brown colt Lancewood, 4 years, 100; and D. D. Withers's bay filly Nancy, 3 years, 85. Warfield was the favorite at 2 to 3, with Lancewood and Nancy selling 3 to 2 each.

The flag dropped on a very pretty start, Warfield making the running from the first. They came up the stretch with Lancewood and Nancy about a length behind Warfield. As the three neared the judges' stand Nancy shot ahead of Lancewood and closed on Warfield. Away they flew side by side around the upper turn and hill, Nancy showing in front before going out of sight. Warfield had the advantage of the last turn around the bluff, gaining on the filly, and showing half a length in front on the lower turn. The colt now proved stronger than the filly, and after they struck into the stretch he drew away gradually, winning by six lengths from Nancy, with Lancewood the same distance in the rear. Time, 2:32¾.

Next came a spin of three-quarters of a mile for a $400 purse, the winner to be sold at auction under the rules. Mr. A. Belmont's Electrician, 3 years, 97 pounds; Dwyer Brothers' Charles Gorham, 6 years, 106; Strauss & Co.'s Wamba, 4 years, 95; A. Taylor's Milan, 5 years, 112; and C. W. Evans's Buntor, 3 years, 100, started for the purse. Money rolled into the bookmakers' hands on this race like letters into the Post Office on steamer day. Gorham sold at 4 to 5; Milan, 5 to 4; Electrician, 8 to 1; and Buntor and Wamba, 10 to 1 on each. Donohue, on Milan, watched keenly for a flying start. When the flag fell he dug the steel into Milan's sides, the horse darting away in the lead with the speed of an arrow. He was never headed in the three-quarters of a mile, winning by six lengths from Gorham, when the whip had failed to send to the front. Electrician came in third, six lengths behind Gorham. Time, 1:18½—fast for the track. Milan, who was entered to be sold at $750, was bid in by his owner at $1,050.

Then came a scramble of three-quarters of a mile for the Welter Cup, a handicap sweepstakes of $20 each and $200 added; the second to save his stake; gentlemen riders. Mr. Norcross rode Alleveur, carrying 160 lbs.; Mr. St. James rode Odd Fellow, 157; Mr. Purdy rode Bombast, 195 lbs., and Mr. Prior rode Tramp, 135. Alleveur was the favorite at 4 to 5; Bombast, 1 to 1; Odd Fellow, 3 to 1; and Tramp, 5 to 1.

This race, from the start to the finish, was very exciting. The four riders started on a line, keeping well together as they ran down the chute and around the bluff. As they came in sight around the lower turn a great shout arose, for the horses were still in line across the track. Coming up the stretch on the last furlong it was anybody's race. Odd Fellow and Bombast were nearly head and head, lapped by Alleveur and Tramp. When they neared the stand St. James called on Odd Fellow, who lengthened out just before reaching the post, winning by a short length, with Bombast second, one-half a length off, and Alleveur third. Time, 1:24¼.

The excitement wound up with a handicap steeplechase; purse $800, of which $200 to second horse. The rules gave owners the right to start any number of horses, but three different owners would have to enter horses in order to make a race. Only two owners brought out their horses. Rather than disappoint the great crowd, the judges waived the rule and allowed C. Reed's Disturbance, carrying 150 pounds, the same gentleman's Faustina, 145, and Cattnach & Bond's Bertha, 150 pounds, to start in the chase. There was little or no betting on the result. Meany, on Disturbance, being looked upon as a certain winner.

The three started over the usual course, Meany showing the way round the upper field, over the hurdles and walls; Faustina close up, and Bertha a few lengths in the rear. On reaching the double-hurdle jump under the club house, the leaders went over in one, two order, but Bertha refused at first, and when finally forced over was out of the race. Disturbance and Faustina kept on over the remainder of the course nearly together, Meany finally landing Disturbance a winner, a short distance from Faustina, in 4:51. There was no excitement over the race.

Why Latchkey Did Not Finish.

LONDON, May 31.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says that Mr J. G. Bennett's Latchkey is taken into the river in the great national steeplechase at Auteuil, yesterday, because of exhaustion.

PROSPECT PARK TROTTING.

The Opening of the Spring Meeting—Three Interesting Trots.

The spring trotting meeting was opened in the Prospect Park Fair Grounds yesterday afternoon. The first trot was for a purse of $400, for 2:34 class, mile heats, best three in five in harness. The following-named horses started: W. E. Weeks's b. g. Frank, W. McMahon's br. g. Phil Dwyer, and J. Murphy's b. m. Music. In the pool selling Frank brought $100, Phil Dwyer, $25, and Music, $20. The first heat was captured by Frank, by two lengths, in 2:24¾. The next two heats were won easily by Frank in 2:25¾ and 2:27¾. Phil Dwyer took second money, and Music third.

Next was a trot for a special purse and stake of $1,000, for stallions, mile heats, best three in five, in harness. The starters were W. H. Doble's br. s. Hambletonian, J. W. Pettit's ch. s. Hannis, and W. H. Crawford's b. s. Voltaire. Hannis was a warm favorite in the pools, at $100 to $40 over the field. Hannis won the trot in three straight heats; Hambletonian Mambrino was awarded second money, and Voltaire third. Time, 2:21¾, 2:21¼, 2:23.

The third trot was for a purse of $500, for 2:24 class, mile heats, best three in five, in harness. The contesting horses were W. H. Doble's b. g. Nigger Baby, J. Trout's b. m. Wild Lily, J. Murphy's g. g. Steve Maxwell, A. J. Russell's b. m. Nellie Irwin, M. Goodwin's gr. m. Irene, W. E. Weeks's b. g. Whiz, and J. L. Russell's w. m. Mary Russell. In the pool selling Whiz was the first choice at $25, and Irene at $20, and the field at $12. The first heat Irene won by a nose from Steve Maxwell, in 2:20¼. The second heat was won by Irene by a neck from Whiz, in 2:21¾. The third heat was won by Irene by a quarter of a length from Whiz, in 2:20¼. Second money was awarded to Whiz, and third to Steve Maxwell.

The Consequences of a Misplaced Switch.

SIMCOE, Ont., May 31.—Owing to a misplaced switch, freight train No. 31 on the Great Eastern Railroad ran off the track a short distance west of this station yesterday. The engine and twelve cars, rolling down a twenty-foot embankment and catching fire, were soon reduced to ashes. The engineer, Frederick Ashlcott, was killed and his body afterward burned almost to a cinder. The fireman, William Ashmore, managed to escape with a few bruises and burns. Alexander Thompson, a brakeman, had a leg broken near the knee.
