BROOKLYN JUDICIARY CONVENTION.

The Nomination of Edgar M. Cullen for Justice of the Supreme Court.

The Democratic Convention to nominate a Justice of the Supreme Court for the Second Judicial District met at the Kings County Court House, in Brooklyn, yesterday, at noon. The district comprises the counties of Kings, Queens, Suffolk, Richmond, Rockland, Orange, Westchester, Putnam, and Dutchess. Mr. N. H. Clement of Kings was chosen Chairman of the Convention, and Mr. A. S. Cassidy of Orange was elected Secretary. Upon a resolution to proceed to nominations,

Mr. Willard Bartlett said: "Mr. Chairman and gentlemen of the Convention, I nominate as the candidate of the Democracy for Justice of the Supreme Court in the Second Judicial District Edgar M. Cullen of the Kings County bar. He is well known throughout the district to courts and to counsel. In the desultory discussion of the merits of candidates which always precedes the day of nomination, I have observed a disposition on all sides to recognize his fitness for the office. But now, in presenting his name for the favorable consideration of this convention, it is proper that I should state more formally some of the high qualifications which he is confidently believed to possess.

"Prominent among these is that fairness in the consideration of legal questions which is an essential attribute of the good Judge. Mr. Cullen is distinguished among his fellow members of the bar for this quality. They habitually speak of him as having preëminently a judicial mind. The prevalence of this impression of his character has naturally suggested his promotion to the bench, and for several years past it has seemed evident to his friends that he would eventually be placed there. I trust their judgment in this respect may now be approved, and be affirmed in November by a large majority of the electors in the Second Judicial District.

"Mr. Cullen is a young man, but his Republican opponents cannot complain of that, since their candidate for President has said, 'It is a great privilege to be a young man.' He is old enough, however, to have joined the Union army nearly twenty years ago, when, just after leaving college to enter upon his professional studies, he was appointed by Abraham Lincoln a Lieutenant in the regular army of the United States. He is old enough to have fought for his country from the days of Island No. 10, when he first saw active service as a subaltern, to the terrible battle of Coal Harbor, when he was a Colonel in command of his regiment. He is old enough to have practised law nearly fifteen years in his native city of Brooklyn and throughout the judicial district in which it is situated, with a well-founded reputation for scrupulous integrity and exceptional legal ability. And I may add that in his professional experience he has been called upon to deal with public questions of so much importance and business interests of such magnitude as to render him familiar with the higher, broader, and more ennobling aspects of the administration of the law.

"I utter these words of commendation with a profound sense of the duty imposed upon us here. No other convention can be more important than this to the inhabitants of the counties which you represent. After all, in this country, the constitutional guarantee of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness must ultimately depend for its enforcement upon the honesty and intelligence of our judiciary; and I have come here to-day with pleasure to do what I can to maintain the wisdom and purity of the bench by nominating a man who possesses those qualities in a marked degree. Such a man, I think, is Edgar M. Cullen."

Mr. Nelson of Westchester seconded the nomination of Mr. Cullen, on behalf of the united delegation from Westchester.

Mr. James W. Covert of Queens thought the nomination ought to go to his county, and proposed Benjamin W. Downing of Flushing, who was seconded by Mr. A. S. Weller.

Mr. Thos. S. Mount of Suffolk nominated J. Lawrence Smith of Smithtown. Not seconded.

Mr. A. S. Cassidy of Orange nominated County Judge Charles F. Brown of his county, and urged that the candidate should be chosen from the west side of the Hudson River. He was followed by Mr. Fallon of Rockland and Mr. Lyon of Orange to the same effect, but both speakers conceded the fitness of Mr. Cullen.

Upon an informal ballot it appeared that Mr. Cullen had 15 out of 25 votes. A formal ballot was then taken, which resulted as follows: Edgar M. Cullen, 17; Chas. F. Brown, 5; Benjamin W. Downing, 2; J. L. Smith, 1.

On motion of Mr. Covert, the nomination of Edgar M. Cullen was then made unanimous.

Messrs. Bartlett, Weller, and Cassidy were appointed a committee to notify Mr. Cullen of his nomination.

After a short recess, the committee, through Mr. Bartlett, reported that Mr. Cullen requested them to express to the Convention his heartfelt gratification at their action, and to say that he would do all in his power to merit the confidence expressed in him. Mr. Cullen desired, however, to follow the example of the present Justices of the Supreme Court, and express his thanks through the committee instead of appearing before the Convention in person.

The Convention then adjourned sine die.

A BURGLAR MISSES $18,000.

But Secures $2,000 Worth of Diamonds and Jewelry in a Bridgeport Hotel.

BRIDGEPORT, Oct. 5.—Burglars entered the room occupied by Edward C. Bassick at the Atlantic Hotel, last night, and stole diamonds and jewelry to the value of over $2,000. Mr. Bassick is from Belfast, Me. He arrived here from New York yesterday, and took a room at the above named hotel. He recently purchased a place in this city, and yesterday drew from the bank $11,000. In addition to this amount, he had a little over $7,000 in cash, all of which was in his vest pocket, and with his watch and chain was under his pillow, but was not touched by the burglars. They entered his room by turning the key with false pickers.

It is now stated that Mr. Bassick was followed from New York yesterday by a burglar. A stranger registered at the hotel last night as J. M. Cronin, from New York, who occupied a room next to Bassick. This morning he could not be found. It is supposed that he took the early train for New York.

Mr. Moneypenny's Daughter's Will.

James Dinsmore, once a Presbyterian minister in Massachusetts, and afterward a collector for A. T. Stewart & Co. in this city, married many years ago Barbara J. Moneypenny, daughter of Mr. Moneypenny, the once celebrated dyer in Canal street. Mr. Dinsmore and his wife carried on the dyeing business after Mr. Moneypenny's death. Mrs. Dinsmore died about a year ago. By her will she gave $100 to her daughter, Mrs. Jane M. Stuart, and the rest of her property to her husband. Mrs. Stuart contested the will, alleging that her mother was grossly intemperate, and was unduly influenced by her husband to make the will in his favor. The testimony in the trial of the contest showed that both Mr. Dinsmore and his wife were intelligent, and admirable specimens of frugal economy. Surrogate Calvin yesterday admitted the will to probate. He did not deem the evidence given of the intemperance of Mrs. Dinsmore, or of the undue influence of her husband, sufficient to warrant him in breaking the will, which was properly executed.

Work on the North Header of the Sutro Tunnel Abandoned.

VIRGINIA CITY, Nev., Oct. 5.—The north header of the Sutro Tunnel was abandoned last night at 11 o'clock, and the whole force there discharged. The cause is alleged to be a difficulty with the Bonanza firm, who have complained that the work in the north lateral is not done as it should be. The tunnel company is hauling its drill carriages from that branch, and it looks like a bad state of affairs there. The Bonanza firm allege that the work in the north lateral is stopped, first, by a drain up to the face; second, that the timbers have now all the connection with the tunnel needed for present economical work, and third, that the work is not done according to contract. The header is 300 feet north of the south line of the Mexican and North End mines, and Bonanza claim connections has the full benefit of the tunnel for drainage. In the present state of affairs the mines do not care to pay $75 per foot to run the lateral further.

A Mexican Revolutionist Shot.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—A private letter from Mazatlan contains the intelligence that ex-Gov. Rubi, who was captured at the battle of San Vicente, has been shot by order of the military authorities. It is also stated in the same letter that Col. Ramirez, the chief of the Sinaloa revolution, had entered Mazatlan in disguise, with the evident intention of taking the first steamer bound for San Francisco. His guide betrayed him, but he managed to escape to the woods, about five miles from Mazatlan, where at last accounts he was surrounded by soldiers to prevent his escape. His capture was expected at every moment, and when caught he will be shot.

From the Arctic Regions.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—The whaling bark Bidalgo arrived from the Arctic last night. She brings no news of the Jeannette or the missing whalers. The cutter Corwin was seen on Aug. 29 off Point Belcher, steering southwest.
