BASE BALL.

A Drawn Game on the Union Grounds—A Bone of Dissension in the League.

On the Union ball grounds yesterday was played the fourth game between the Metropolitan and Worcester teams. It was expected that Wand would pitch, Gross catch, and Joe Start play first base for the Metropolitans in this contest, but Ward was injured while practising, and Daly had to pitch in his place, and Start did not want to play against the Worcester team. So Farrell played at first base, and Schenck was the "sub" in the team. Start will, however, play in the nine on Monday against the Troys. On the Worcester side, Richmond pitched and Bushong caught, but the former, owing to a sore hand, could not get in his curves in pitching, and the result was that he was easily punished by the Metropolitan batsmen, they scoring no less than eight earned runs in the game off Richmond's delivery. On the Metropolitan side Daly pitched a fine game, only two earned runs being scored by the Worcesters. He was poorly supported behind the bat, however, Gross showing up in very poor form. But for the wretched play of the Metropolitans in the second innings, when they allowed the Worcesters to score four runs on a single-base hit, they would have won the game. The Worcesters, however, led by 12 to 10 in the seventh innings; but darkness stopped play before the close of the innings, and the contest was finally decided a drawn match by the figures of the even fifth innings played. To-day the two teams play their last match together this season, when Ward will pitch for the Metropolitans. The score is appended:

At Baltimore yesterday a six-innings game between the National and Cleveland nines resulted in a victory for the Nationals by the appended score:

Cleveland	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	—1
National	1	0	1	0	2	1	0	5	—5

Cleveland—Base hits, 5; errors, 10.
National—Base hits, 6; errors, 3.

The Boston Club team will visit New York on Monday to play a series of four games with the Worcester nine on the Union Grounds on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday. On three of these same days the Metropolitan nine, strengthened by the addition of Joe Start, will play the Troy nine on the polo grounds.

The League meeting at Rochester this week resulted in the quasi expulsion of the Cincinnati Club, and the adoption of the arbitrary law against players known as the "five-men rule" by a vote of six of the eight clubs voting, the Cincinnati and Buffalo clubs objecting. A meeting of players is to be held in Brooklyn this next week to take action upon the matter. If New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, and Washington have stock company nines next season, the players held under the five-men rule will decline to play in any League club which adopted the rule. Cincinnati and Buffalo repudiated it, and so did Boston, but the latter was brought over by the League's obliging Snyder to play with the Boston Club or none.

RACING IN MELROSE.

Contests on the Flat and Over Hurdles in the Driving Park.

The opening races at the Gentlemen's Driving Park were fairly attended yesterday. The time made was fast, the contests spirited, and the betting lively.

The first race was for a purse of $200, of which $50 to the second; a dash of three-quarters of a mile, for all ages. The starters were J. Moran & Co.'s Lucy T. (3), carrying 111 lbs.; C. Chase's King Nero (2), carrying 75 lbs.; M. J. Johnson's Charlie Ross (aged), carrying 118 lbs., and M. J. Daly's Mamie R. (3), carrying 92 lbs. King Nero was a warm favorite in the betting. He won the race fifty yards in front of Mamie R., Charlie Ross third at Mamie's neck. Time, 1:16¼.

The second race was for a purse of $250, of which $50 to the second: a dash of a mile and an eighth, for three-year olds. These started: W. C. Daly's Ingomar, E. A. Evans's Jerry, M. Mulkey's Belle of the West, and J. J. Bevins's Fanny F., all carrying 107 lbs. Ingomar was a favorite over the field. He won the race by three-quarters of a length from Belle of the West, after a neck-and-neck race all through. Jerry came in third. Time, 1:57¾.

The third event was a selling race; purse $200; dash of one mile. The starters were: Dwyer Brothers' Jericho (4), carrying 108 lbs.; J. Moran & Co.'s Lucy (5), 96 lbs.; W. C. Daly's Mamie R. (3), 82 lbs.; C. Chase's Bowstring (4), 103 lbs.; R. Mason's Pacific (4), 98 lbs., and Cathcart & Co.'s Juanita (4), 105 lbs.

The boys backed Jericho freely. Although not in the front rank at the start, he took the lead after topping the hill, winning the race two lengths in front of Juanita, Mamie R. third. Time, 1:45¼.

The programme closed with a handicap hurdle race, one mile and a quarter, over five hurdles; purse $250, of which $50 to second. The bell summoned for the brush W. C. Daly's Lizzie D. (5), carrying 127 lbs.; McKinzie & Co.'s Miss Mallor (5), 130 lbs.; R. Mason's Lizzie Ball (4), 122 lbs., and M. J. Daly's Skylark (4), 123 lbs. Miss Malloy sold highest in the betting, with Lizzie D. second choice. Lizzie D. and Miss Malloy had the race to themselves in a side-by-side struggle until near the finish, Lizzie D. winning by two lengths from Miss Malloy, Skylark third. Time, 2:22¼.

The races are to be continued on Monday and Wednesday.

Befriended by Her Employer.

Elizabeth L. Deery of 311 East Thirty-third street, a designer for Friendlander & Corwin, manufacturers of ladies' cloaks, of 41 White street, was arrested on the 30th ult. on a charge of stealing $800 worth of cloak materials from the firm. She was committed to the City Prison, and the Grand Jury indicted her for grand larceny and receiving stolen goods.

When she was arraigned, yesterday, in the General Sessions, Walter E. Corwin, one of her former employers, said to Judge Gildersleeve that he was confident that the prisoner had been influenced to take the firm's property without realizing that she was committing a crime. The firm, he added, still had implicit trust in her, and would be glad to restore her to her old position.

Judge Gildersleeve suspended sentence and discharged the prisoner.

Shooting Match Between a Justice and a Farmer.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 8.—On Wednesday last, at Concordia, Bolivar County, Miss., a difficulty occurred between B. T. Owen, a Justice of the Peace, and J. W. Glover, a farmer. Owen was holding his court and Glover made a disturbance, and was ordered under arrest by Owen. Pistols were at once drawn by both, and firing commenced. Owen was dead, and Glover ran about 300 yards and fell. He died after lingering eight hours. They were both young men of good standing in the community.
