PAROLE WINS A HEAT RACE.

SIX FIRST-CLASS CONTESTS IN JEROME PARK YESTERDAY.

Pierre Lorillard Captures Four Races with Three Horses—Spark's Double Victory—A Great Day for Favorite Racehorses.

An immense gathering—the largest of the season in Jerome Park—enjoyed the excellent programme of six races provided by the American Jockey Club for election day. The fickle goddess Fortune, after playing fast and loose with Pierre Lorillard during the year, fairly smothered him with favors yesterday. With only three racers in the field he won four races, his game two-year-old filly Spark, by Leamington, dam Mary Clark, winning two—a dash of three-quarters of a mile, followed by a run of one mile and one furlong. The track was heavy from the late rains. This, added to the formation of the course, rendered extra fast time impossible. Notwithstanding these drawbacks, the performances were first-class. The ease with which Parole drew away from good company in two consecutive heats of one mile and an eighth, carrying the top weight, convinced the old turfmen present that there was no use in sending anything but the very best of our stock to compete with English racehorses.

The sport opened with a dash of three-quarters of a mile for a purse of $400, the winner to be sold by auction, under the rules for selling allowances. The starters were C. Chase's chestnut colt King Nero, carrying 82 lbs.; P. Lorillard's gray filly Spark, 87 lbs.; Babcock & Co.'s chestnut gelding Sioux, 100 lbs.; and A. Taylor's bay filly Gossip, 79 lbs. Betting, 1¼ to 1 against Spark, 1¾ to 1 against Sioux, and 5 to 1 each against King Nero and Gossip.

Sioux was the first to pull out from the line after an even start, Spark lapping half way, Gossip third. It was anybody's race until the four struck the straight finish, when Spark, the son of Leamington, pulled ahead on the rather heavy track, landing a winner three lengths in front of King Nero, Sioux half a length behind Nero. Time, 1:20¼. Spark was held by her owner at $1,000, there being no bid over that amount.

Next came a race of one mile and three-quarters, for a free handicap sweepstakes of $25 each, with $600 added. There appeared at the post for this race P. Lorillard's b. c. Uncas, carrying 119 lbs.; P. H. Duffy's bay gelding Krupp Gun, 100 lbs.; and the Pelham stable's chestnut gelding Harlequin, 89 lbs. Betting—Uncas, 1 against 6; Krupp Gun, 6 to 1; Harlequin, 7 to 1.

Uncas made a fine race. Krupp Gun rushed away in the lead, but Harlequin passed him before reaching the hill. Snauer permitted Uncas to drop a length behind the leaders, so long as they kept well together. When the three passed the stand at three-quarters of a mile, Harlequin and Krupp Gun were lapped, with Uncas a length behind. Before they rounded the hill the second time, Uncas took second place, while Krupp Gun dropped back, a beaten horse. When Uncas and Harlequin struck the straight finish, they were close together, and the race proved exciting. Frank McLaughlin plied the whip on Harlequin, but it was of no use. Shauer sent the favorite in a safe winner three-quarters of a length in front of Harlequin, Krupp Gun more than 100 yards behind. Time, 3:16½.

Then followed a race of one mile and a quarter for a purse of $500, with weight allowances for maidens and non-winners. The bell brought out J. Hawley's bay gelding Ambush, carrying 111 lbs.; C. Littlefield's brown gelding Wave o' Light, 87 lbs.; and J. G. Nelson's bay filly Little Buttercup, 87 lbs. Betting—Two to 5 on Little Buttercup, 1¼ to 1 on Wave o' Light, and 7 to 1 against Ambush.

After an even start Ambush cut out the work for about half a mile, with Little Buttercup a close companion, and Wave o' Light a good third. When they disappeared behind the hill it was head and head between Wave and Little Buttercup. Sweeping around the lower turn Little Buttercup drew away from the other two, but after climbing the rise into the straight Wave o' Light came again, passing Little Buttercup near the finish, and winning by a length. Time, 2:22.

The fourth event was a race of one mile and a furlong, for a purse of $500, the winner to be sold by auction. The starters were New York Weekly, 104 lbs.; Maissine, 72 lbs.; Dan K., 104 lbs.; Sioux, 98 lbs.; Harlequin, 105 lbs.; Gossip, 67 lbs.; Spark, 77 lbs.; and Mabel, 77 lbs. Betting—Dan K. was a favorite at even money; Spark second choice, at 4 against 1; Gossip and Maissine next, at 5 against 1; 10 to 1 against the others.

The race was fast and uncertain until near the finish. Gossip, Mabel, and Maissine did the running after breaking away from the group on the even start until the last furlong, when Only sent Spark for her second victory of the day, which she won gamely, a length in front of Gossip, Harlequin third, followed by Dan K., Sioux, Mabel, Maissine, and New York Weekly, as named. Time, 2:03. There was no bid for Spark over the entered price, $1,500.

The event of the day came when Parole appeared for the heats race of one and one-eighth miles, for a free handicap sweepstakes of $25 each, with $750 added. Parole carried 121 lbs. His racing companions were Dan K., 104 lbs.; Bowstring, 92 lbs.; Rachel, 85 lbs., and Go Forth, 80 lbs. Parole was warmly applauded when he passed the start on his preliminary gallop, with Barrett on his back. Parole was a hot favorite in the betting, his backers having to put up $500 in order to win $100.

In the first heat Bowstring and Rachel cut out the work, with Parole a close third, until the last furlong was reached, when Barrett showed that Parole had only been playing with the other racers by sending him away in the lead, and winning the heat by two lengths from Rachel, Bowstring third, and Dan K. fourth. Time, 2:04.

There was no betting on Parole for the second heat. Rachel and Bowstring led around to the finishing straight, as in the first heat, Barrett riding a waiting race until the last furlong, when he sent Parole ahead, all the others whipping. Parole won the heat and race 1½ lengths from Rachel, Bowstring third, and Dan K. fourth. Time, 2.04.

The races ended with a handicap steeplechase over the full course, $500 to first and $50 to second horse. The bell brought out T. Harris's b. g. L. L., 127½ pounds; W. C. Daly's Lizzie D., 132 lbs.; M. J. Daly's Pomeroy, 155 lbs.; Cattanach & Sons' Bertha, 155 lbs., and E. V. Snediker's Celtic, 120 lbs. Lizzie D. was the favorite in the betting at even money, 2 to 1 against Pomeroy and Bertha, 15 to 1 against Celtic, and 20 to 1 against L. L.

After a rattling start L. L. bolted and refused to run in the north field. Pomeroy doing the same in the south field. The race was then between Bertha and Lizzie D. After a close run and a very exciting neck-and-neck brush up the homestretch, Bertha came in a length in front of Lizzie D., Celtic third, a dozen lengths away. Time, 4:34.
