SATURDAY, May 7.

The stock market opened weak except for Erie preferred, Manhattan Elevated, Kansas and Texas, and C., C. and Indiana Central, and these improved but slightly, and business was generally moderate. At the first board Western Union, regular, declined, but ex-certificates advanced. The market was generally better, and a large business was done in Manhattan Elevated. Metropolitan and New York Elevated also advanced, but were not active. Between calls C., C., C. and Indianapolis, Ind., Bl. and Western, new, and the N. Y. Elevated roads were the leading securities. The second board was dull, except for C., C. and Indiana Central. In the latest dealings Pacific Mail was active and advancing, and Reading was dearer, but prices of nearly everything else fell off more or less. The more important changes for the day were as follows:—Gained—Lake Shore, ⅛; Erie, 1⅛; Manhattan Elevated, ¼; Reading, 1⅛; Erie preferred, ¼; Pacific Mail, 2⅛; C., C. and Ind., 1⅝; Ohio and Miss., ⅜; Metropolitan Elevated, 4½; Memphis and Charleston, 2⅜; N. Y. Elevated, ¾. Declined—Iron Mountain, 1; St. Paul common, ⅛; Western Union, 1⅛; Western Union ex-certificates, ⅛; Del., Lack. and Western, 1⅛; Illinois Central, 1; Han. and St. Jo. preferred, 1.

Governments were dull and scarcely so firm. State bonds were rather quiet. Railroad bonds were active but irregular and variable. Some of the recent speculative favorites closed easier, but there were fresh advances and lively transactions in C., C. and I. C. incomes, Peoria, D. and E. incomes, Boston, H. and E. 1sts, Rochester and Pittsburgh incomes. The issues of the Metropolitan and New York Elevated roads were decidedly better.

Money on call 3@4 ⅌ cent. Sterling exchange dull at $4.86½@$4.87 for sight drafts and $4.84½@$4.85 for 60-day bills.

The stockholders of the Long Island Railroad Company voted to-day to guarantee the principal and interest of $250,000 first mortgage bonds of the Brooklyn and Montauk Railroad Company. The proceeds of these bonds are to be used in building about 15 miles of road from Patchogue to Moriches in order to connect the Brooklyn and Montauk road with the Long Island Company's road to Sag Harbor. It was also voted to guarantee the interest on $750,000 bonds, the balance of the issue proposed by the Brooklyn and Montauk. These last are to be used to meet an equal amount of first mortgage bonds which mature in 1887.

The bill introduced at Albany by Assemblyman Moller providing for the organization in this State of corporations to construct and operate railroads, and steamboat and telegraph lines in foreign countries was passed by both Houses during the past week, and is now before the Governor.

A surprising amount of information was professed in the street to-day as to the nature of the decision that is forthcoming in the suit of Williams for a perpetual injunction against the telegraph consolidation. Several brokers claimed to have an abstract of the decision in their possession, and before the close of business it was confidently asserted that the decision would modify the original order only so far as to permit the Atlantic and Pacific and the American Union to become parties to the action, and that it would declare the Union Trust Company to be in contempt of court.

The British Board of Trade returns for April show a decrease of £5,379,703 in the value of imports as compared with the same month last year, and a decrease of £1,493,029 in the value of exports.

The Money on the Sidewalk.

Justice Pelouhet of Jersey City says that Henry W. Leonard, who came into his court on Friday in reference to a complaint of constructive larceny made against him, was not arrested or arraigned. The woman came into court and declared that she had lost some money, which Mr. Leonard had found and refused to give to her. She wanted an order for his arrest. Justice Pelouhet told her that he knew that Mr. Leonard would be at liberty if she would drop the matter, and he sent a note to Mr. Leonard, whom he knew, asking him to come to the court. The note was taken to Mr. Leonard by Detective Clos. Mr. Leonard came into court and explained that there was another claimant for the money, and that he could not surrender it unless indemnified against subsequent claims. On receiving satisfactory assurances from the woman claimant, Mr. Leonard laid down the money in the presence of the Justice.

A—'TM ENVIED BY ALL, big tailors and small, because I make a suit to order for $12 out of all-wool goods. I want every one to understand that my goods are not cotton, rags, or dyed calico, but the real genuine all-wool cassimeres. I don't make ventilating or Coney Island suits. I do not show you one kind of cloth and then make a suit out of another. My motto is honest dealing with every one. If, when I make a suit, the party is not satisfied with it, I will return the money. Can anything be fairer? CAMERON, Agt., 85 Sands st., Brooklyn, therefore, is the only man to come and deal with.
