FALLING FROM AN ELEVATED TRAIN.

Clinging to the Structure, and Resuming Work on the Next Trip.

Henry Wright is a fireman on motor 241 of the Sixth avenue elevated railroad. As the train came down yesterday morning and passed Forty-second street, at about 8 o'clock, Wright went out on the foot board to fill the steam valves. The train was running at the usual speed; when at Thirty-eighth street Wright slipped from the foot board and fell, striking upon his feet upon the crosshead, which was rapidly playing back and forth. The movement of the crosshead threw Wright entirely from the engine, and he must have fallen to the street, twenty feet below, but for the side rail, which is a feature peculiar to the Sixth avenue structure. Upon this Wright caught and saved himself.

As soon as he had an undisputed right of way he hurried back to Forty-second street and telegraphed to train despatcher Graham, "Fireman of 241 O. K. Harry Wright." Wright followed his despatch to the Rector street station, and reached there only two trains behind his own, and in time to fire his own engine on the up trip. He had a black and blue thigh where he had landed on the iron rail, but otherwise was undamaged.

De Lesseps's Canal Enterprise in a Bad Way.

PANAMA, June 7.—Since the departure of M. Gaston Blanchet for Paris, some six weeks ago, the affairs of the canal seem to have lost all intelligent and energetic direction. Dissatisfaction has crept in among the superior workmen of the company, some of whom have been discharged by the present manager. Stations have been abandoned, brigades disbanded, many engineers returned home, and workmen discharged. This state of things can hardly be accounted for by the severity of the wet season. Sickness has come upon many, and some deaths; very few, however, have occurred to deepen the dreary outlook before the men, poorly paid and but indifferently cared for, who have accepted the canal company's service on the Isthmus. In the mean time accounts from Paris represent everything as booming, and that adds to the disgust of people here.

Cowboys Making War Upon Mexico.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 16.—About three weeks ago four Americans were killed near Fintares, in Chihuahua, three of whom are supposed to have been cowboys. For the past week cowboys have been concentrating near Galeyville with the avowed purpose of avenging their comrades. They threatened to take Fintares. The Mexican Consul at Tucson sent warning to the people at Fintares, and also notified the Mexican Federal troops, of which there are 200 stationed on San Bernardino Ranch. On Tuesday morning the cowboys, seventy in number and well equipped, left Galeyville for the purpose of carrying out their threats, and it is believed there will be bloody work, as they were probably the most reckless gang of desperadoes ever banded together. The Mexicans will either have to leave the place or make a hard fight.

Long Island Strawberries.

RIVERHEAD, June 15.—The shipment of strawberries from this neighborhood to Boston has been begun, a special train running between Manor and Greenport, connecting at the latter place with the steamboat Manohasset, which carries the berries to Stonington. She had on the first trip on Thursday between 500 and 600 crates, 111 being from Riverhead. The shipments Friday and Saturday were small owing to the wet weather which has nearly ruined many patches. On Monday the shipment from this place was about 850 crates, with a corresponding increase throughout the fruit district.

Nineteen Days on a Water Diet.

CHICAGO, June 16.—At noon to-day John Griscom weighed 171¾ pounds, being a loss of three-quarters of a pound in the last twenty-four hours, during which he drank 32 ounces of water. His weight to-day shows a loss of only half a pound in the last forty-eight hours, making a total loss of 26 pounds in the nineteen days of his fast ended to-day. His appearance to-day was remarkably bright; the examination by the physicians disclosing no marked change in his condition. His pulse showed stronger at 68, his respiration was full, and deep at 18, and his temperature was 98 2-50.

The Flight of a Defaulter.

NAPANEE, Ont., June 14.—William Fry, a grain merchant of Mill Haven, who for the past eighteen years has had the confidence of farmers, bankers, and buyers, has absconded, leaving liabilities of a considerable amount among all these classes. Among his papers was found this note:

"Liabilities, $7,000; assets, nothing. Ruin! ruin!! ruin!!! But I'll go away into a wild and unknown country in my old age, where, by the grace of God, I will redeem my name. WM. FRY."

A Striking Printer Shot.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 16.—Martin Corcoran, a striking printer of the Dispatch, was fatally shot this morning about 2 o'clock by W. J. McCahill, one of the printers employed in the place of strikers. Corcoran assaulted McCahill as the latter was going home, striking him on the head with a handy billy. Thinking he was about to be mobbed, McCahill drew a revolver and fired twice, one ball taking effect in Corcoran's abdomen and the other lodging in the hand of a passer by.

Journalists Sentenced to Prison for Libel.

PROVIDENCE, June 16.—In the Court of Common Pleas to-day, in the cases of Alonzo T. Spear of Boston, publisher, and Frank E. Corbett, editor of the Providence Sunday Transcript, and Edwin A. Corbett, editor of the Providence Weekly Herald, convicted of libel on James O. Swan, a detective, Judge Stiness sentenced each of the parties to four months' imprisonment, and to pay costs.

An Expert Swimmer Drowned.

CARDONDALE, June 16.—Edward Gilroy, an expert swimmer, was drowned at Scull's Pond, yesterday, while bathing. He had completed his day's work, and with a friend went to the pond for a bath. In attempting to swim across the pond, a distance of half a mile, he was taken with a cramp, and before he could be reached he was dead.

Killed his Father-in-Law in a Duel.

BEDFORD, Ind., June 16.—Wm. Brannum got into a dispute with John Huff, his son-in-law. They agreed to go near the church and fight it out. They met alone, both armed. Huff fired first and killed Brannum. A man who heard the firing reached the place in time to see Huff running away.

Fined for Torturing his Child.

CINCINNATI, June 16.—John Cummings of Licking county was to-day fined $25 and costs for cruel punishment of his child by putting a spit stick, with a tack in it, on the child's tongue.
