The visit of Col. Cody (Buffalo Bill) the next attraction in Beaumont at the opera house will be Mahara's minstrels, on October 22. City Bill Poster Rollins decorated his bill boards yesterday with the paper that is sent ahead of that organization.

with his Wild West production is as new to the world today as it was when the great scout first began his professional career as a public entertainer and educator. This year Col. Cody and his partner, Mr. Salabury have imported a number of genuine Filipinos, Porto Ricans and Hawaiians from our own territorial possessions, which have been added to the older features of this, the grandest spectacular production of the century and they cannot fail to be both instructive and attractive to young and old. The battle of San Juan has everywhere been voted the greatest of all war pictures ever presented.
