FIVE OUT OF NINE CONFIRMED.

The Selection Made by Democratic Aldermen from Mayor Grace's Nominations.

The Democrats in the Board of Aldermen carried out yesterday the agreement made on Monday, and confirmed five of Mayor Grace's nominations for heads of city departments. The nominees confirmed were James Mathews for Police Commissioner, George Caulfield for Commissioner of Jurors, Henry D. Purroy for Fire Commissioner, John R. Voorhis for Dock Commissioner, and J. Nelson Tappan for City Chamberlain. The nominations of Henry H. H. Porter for Commissioner of Charities and Correction, Dr. Woolsey Johnson for Health Commissioner, Edward C. Donnelly for Tax Commissioner, and William M. Oliffe for Park Commissioner were not acted upon.

When the Board was called to order at noon the galleries and lobbies of the Common Council's chamber were thronged. Among the politicians were Police Justice Murray, ex-Senator Michael Norton, ex-Aldermen Simonson, Bryan Reilly, George Hall, and Edward Brucks, ex-Coroner Croker, Assemblyman Brodsky, ex-Justice Joseph Koch, James Oliver, Andrew J. White, and Mark Lanigan. After the routine business Alderman Murphy moved that the nomination of James Matthews for Police Commissioner be taken from the table. The motion was carried by 12 to 8, and then, on motion of Alderman Murphy, Mr. Matthews was confirmed by 14 to 6. President Keenan and Aldermen Antenrieth, Cavanagh, Bernard Kenney, McAvoy, Murphy, Power, Shells, Strack, Patrick Kenney, Kirk, and Sauer (Democrats), and Aldermen Seaman and Waite (Republicans) voted in the affirmative. The negative votes were given by Aldermen Finck, Hawes, Hilliard, McClave, Persley, and Wells (Republicans).

Alderman Strack moved that George Caulfield be confirmed for Commissioner of Jurors. Alderman McClave opposed the motion. He said that Mr. Caulfield was a brother-in-law of County Clerk Butler, and that two members of the same family should not be associated in the drawing of jurors.

A vote was taken, and Mr. Caulfield was confirmed by 14 to 4, the twelve Democrats and Aldermen Seaman and Waite voting in the affirmative, and Aldermen Finck, Hawes, McClave, and Wells (Republicans) in the negative. Aldermen Hilliard and Persley (Republicans) did not vote.

Alderman Sauer moved the confirmation of Henry D. Purroy for Fire Commissioner, and asked that the vote be unanimous because Mr. Purroy had been three years an Alderman, and one year President of the Board. Mr. Purroy was confirmed by 18 to 2, all the Aldermen present except Aldermen Hawes and Wells (Republicans) voting in the affirmative.

Alderman Cavanagh called up the nomination of John R. Voorhis for Dock Commissioner, and it was confirmed by 19 to 1, Aldermen Wells casting the negative vote. While the vote on Mr. Voorhis was being taken, Alderman McClave (Republican) gave notice that the Republican members of the Board intended to call up for action all of the Mayor's nominations. A motion to take up the nomination of Mr. Porter was afterward made by Alderman Waite, and, at Alderman Sauer's instance, was tabled by 11 to 9. Thereupon, Alderman Kirk moved the confirmation of J. Nelson Tappan for City Chamberlain. Mr. Tappan was confirmed by the unanimous vote of the Board.

The Board then adjourned.

WHY A FUNERAL WAS PUT OFF.

Five Days of Fruitless Search for the Body of a Riverside Hospital Patient.

Francis J. Cassidy went on Aug. 29 to the hospital on Ward's Island, suffering from malaria fever. On the 31st, apparently because typhus fever was suspected, he was removed to Riverside Hospital, where he died on Sept. 2. His family have just concluded a fruitless search for his remains. Mr. Joseph Creamer, a relative, said to a SUN reporter:

"His friends claimed the body at the Riverside Hospital on Sept. 3 at 1 P. M. We were informed that the remains had been sent to Hart's Island for interment half an hour before. Next day we applied to the Board of Health, and were told that the body must still be at the Riverside Hospital, as no report had been received of its removal, no permit had been granted, and the steamer that carries bodies to Hart's Island to be buried had not left the city at all the day before. On Sept. 5 we went to the Board of Health again, and were told that Mr. Cassidy had died at the hospital, and that we could obtain the remains at the receiving house foot of East Sixteenth street by sending a coffin there on the 6th at 11 A. M. We sent the coffin and advertised the funeral for the 6th. Three sisters and a brother-in-law of Mr. Cassidy came from New Hampshire to attend the funeral. The relatives and friends assembled at the receiving house at the time appointed. The body was not there. No explanations were given, but a man who appeared to belong to the house said he would get the remains that evening for $40. But two or three of us overheard him say that any body would do, for we could not tell the difference. Then we went back to the Board of Health, and were told that the remains had been buried on Hart's Island, but that they would send him down up and have the body down next morning.

"Next morning, when we went back to the receiving house, we were simply told that it was too late, that the remains were decomposed, and that we could not remove them before October or November."

Aquatic Challenges.

TORONTO, Ont., Sept. 13.—Edward Trickett renews his offer to row Charles E. Courtney a three or four mile race, straight away, for $1,000 a side, and says he regrets that the Union Springs sculler thought fit to leave the city without noticing his original challenge.

Trickett and Gaudaur challenge Hamm and Conley to row a two-mile straightaway race in double sculls, in three weeks, for $500 a side.

Edward Hanlan publishes a card in which he offers to row Wallace Ross, or any man in the world, a three or four mile race, for from $2,500 to $5,000 a side, on a course to be mutually agreed upon, within six or eight weeks from date. He says this is the last offer he intends to make, and its fulfilment or nonfulfilment, if not accepted within ten days, will be taken as a professional caveat. He deposits $500 with the sporting editor of the Mail to make his offer good.

Gaudaur challenges Trickett to row at Hilton to row a two or three mile race, in three weeks, for $500 a side.

Trickett challenges Hamm of Halifax to row a three mile race, for $500 a side, at Barrie or Brockville, in three weeks from date.

H. M. Bricland offers to row either McKay of Halifax or McDonald of Oswego a three mile single scull race for $500 a side at Port Huron, Ontario, Va., in two weeks from the signing of the articles.

The Deadlock in the Maine Executive Council.

AUGUSTA, Sept. 13.—The meeting of the Executive Council yesterday was not fruitful in results that will tend to break the existing deadlock. Messrs Wilson, Barker, and Robie were the only members appearing in answer to Gov. Plaisted's order convening the body. Business could not be transacted without a quorum, consequently none was done. The amount of routine business is large, and of the many nominations waiting action the Council will not soon forget that of Mr. True, which caused the deadlock and the dissolution of the last meeting. It is rumored that the Supreme Court to which Councillors appealed at the time the deadlock commenced, is divided on the question presented to it, and that a majority will decide that the state Constitution does not empower the Governor, in case the Council will not confirm, to appoint a member, but that the supreme executive power shall be vested in the governor, but that the executive is a dual body, the Council being the executive's advisory part. Senators Virgin, Libby, and Simonton—it is said, are to submit a majority report sustaining the Governor. The presumption in some quarters is that the Executive will not respect an opinion of the Court on the subject.

Disasters on Lake Michigan.

CHICAGO, Sept. 13.—The gale on Lake Michigan on Saturday night was unusually severe, and several disasters are reported. The schooner Ontario, from Charlotte to Pictou with coal, sank yesterday morning fifteen miles west of Point Peter Light. The crew were saved. The schooner Regina, laden with salt from Goderich to Owego, capsized off the Island on Saturday night, and went down with all on board.

Four Murderers Lynched by a Mob.

LITTLE ROCK, Sept. 13.—On Saturday, at about midnight, armed men surprised the jail in Dardanelle, Ark., took out John Taylor and J. T. Bruce, charged with murder, dragged them through the streets and hanged them to the limb of a tree. The prisoners made a desperate struggle and died cursing the mob.
