OUTLAWS IN THE WEST.

Another Sheriff Killed by the Williams Brothers.

CLARKSVILLE, Mo., Sept. 26.—A shooting affray occurred near Hamburg Bay in Calhoun County, Ill., yesterday, in which Sheriff John Lammie was killed by Ed. and Lou. Maxwell, better known as the Williams brothers, who made a reputation in Wisconsin some time ago, and John H. Churchman and Frank McNaff of the Sheriff's posse were slightly wounded. G. W. Roberts, Deputy Sheriff of Pike County, Ill., with James Hays and Mr. Chinnenning, started for the desperadoes, but were kept back by steady firing. A deputy of Pike County came here and started to Troy to give warning to the Sheriff of that place to keep a guard on the river near Cap au Gris and Falmouth.

The Hanlan-Ross Rowing Match.

TORONTO, Sept. 26.—The sporting editor of the Mail has received a draft for $500 from Wallace Ross to cover Hanlan's deposit of an equal amount. Articles of agreement accompanied the draft. Hanlan has taken them under advisement. Ross proposes that the race shall be for $1,000 a side, while Hanlan's offer was for a race for from $2,000 to $5,000 a side. Hanlan, who is much disappointed that his offer has not been accepted intact, goes to Collingwood today to act as referee at a regatta there. He will return to-morrow, and will attend a meeting of his friends in the evening to consider what course to pursue.
