"AH, GEORGE, where are you going?"

"Over to York for a suit of clothes."

"Why, what a jackass! King of Tailors, 86 to 91 Sands st., can outsell and undersell any New York house you can go to. He sells overcoats and ulsters as low as $3 and $4, and for $10 he sells an article that can't be beaten for $20. If you want a suit, you have the range from $3 to $20, ready made, and his $45 suit to order for $12 is worth by the independently rich!"

All of which is true, and we will add that a coat can be had from $1 to $4, and pants at $1 to $3—all winter goods, latest styles, and well made.

We also sell for $3 and $4 boys' all-wool ulsters, ulsterettes, and overcoats, which defy the coldest weather, and handsome suits from $3 50 to $5.

Our ready-made stock is simply immense, and embraces every known material, imported and American.

For our to-order suits we have an endless number of samples, which it is our pleasure to have you examine.

Be wise, Brooklynites, and don't be like the man who travelled around the globe to find the mistletoe, and eventually discovered the parasite on his own apple tree.
