WINNING THE AUTUMN CUP.

ANOTHER EXCITING DAY'S SPORT AT SHEEPSHEAD BAY COURSE.

The Plunger Makes a Present—A Grand Three-Mile Race—The Fan Fan Colt Causes an Upset—A Series of Surprises.

"This is a great race day," said white-hatted Uncle Joe, as he peered through his field glasses at Sheepshead Bay yesterday. A surging crowd of thousands filled the capacious betting quarters. The crowd bubbled over into the paddocks. It swarmed on the quarter-stretch. It filled the grand stand and flowed into the field beyond. Just before each race it was impossible for many to get their money in the hands of chosen bookmakers, so dense was the press around the boxes. Some idea of the extent of the betting may be formed from the fact that the blackboard showed that 12,150 mutual tickets were sold, aggregating $60,750. The betting inside the ring was heavier.

The fields of horses were large, and the time made in the races was excellent, crowding the best records. Although the talent suffered heavily in several races, the Plunger came up smiling. After Little Higgs won the mile-heat race with Frankey B., the Plunger handed him $500, saying, "I give you this for being a good little boy, and I don't care who knows it."

When Frankey B. and Ada Glenn started for the final heat in this race the betting rates were $100 against $25 in favor of Ada. The Plunger won heavily on Frankey B., one bet of $500 bringing $1,700 to his net.

The event of the day was a race of three miles for the Autumn Cup, a handicap sweepstakes for all ages of $150 each, $50 forfeit, with $2,000 added, $500 and 20 per cent. of the stakes to second, and 10 per cent. of the stakes to third. There came to the post from a list of thirty-five nominations: G. L. Lorillard's bay filly Aella, carrying 83 pounds; W. Jennings's chestnut horse Glenmore, 114; J. W. Lodl's chestnut filly Lida Stanhope, 110; G. B. Bryson's bay horse Bushwhacker, 95; G. Beedle's bay filly Thora, 108; F. Gebhard's bay horse Eole, 120; Oden Bowie's bay horse Compensation, 92; and E. J. Baldwin's bay mare Clara D., 90. Betting—Thora, $200; Eole and Lida Stanhope, $150 each; field, $205.

A grand race came with a fair send off. Clara D., Eole, and Thora were leading at the turn all in a bunch. Clara ran a length in the lead along the backstretch, Aella taking second place around the lower turn. Passing the stand on the first mile, Aella raced in front, lapped half way by Clara D., Bushwhacker, Eole, and the others closely grouped. Lida Stanhope and Aella retained the lead to the straight on the second mile, when Bushwhacker came to the front, starting on the last mile a neck ahead of Aella, Thora and Eole lapping. Glenmore fifth, all in a dizzy race. Bushwhacker ran in his old form for another quarter of a mile, gaining a lead of two lengths. Thora then put in her claim for the race, making rapid ground on the backstretch and taking the lead. Barbee was at her neck in Eole before reaching the half-mile pole, and they raced together in the lead around the last turn, where Thora received the wing, and the race was over. Coming up the stretch straight, Barbee sent Eole ahead without trouble, landing him winner eight lengths ahead of Lida Stanhope, Thora third, Compensation fourth, and Bushwhacker fifth. Time, 5:26¾. Mutuals paid $44.25.

A race of mile heats for a handicap sweepstakes of $50 each, with $300 added, $75 to second, had these starters: Wyoming, 100 pounds; Laura Glass, 95; Mary Anderson, 92; Ada Glenn, 105; L. B. Sprague, 95; Aleck Ament, 94; Baby, 92; Sweet Home, 85; Frankey B., 95. Betting—Ada Glenn, $200; Wyoming, $180; Sweet Home and Frankey B., $55 each; Aleck Ament, $40; field, $85.

After a tedious delay the horses were sent away in the first heat with L. B. Sprague left at the post. Aleck Ament kept his shoulders clear of the bunch as the horses swooped around the turn and along the backstretch. Ada Glenn running second. On the upper turn Laura Glass gained the lead, while Little Higgs was seen pushing through the ruck on Frankey B. Laura Glass was headed on the straight, Frankey B. and Aleck Ament having it head and head at the finish, Frankey B. winning the heat by a nose; Sweet Home third. Time, 1:44. L. B. Sprague distanced.

Frankey B. sold for $45 in the second heat; field, $100. Blaylock was first away with Ada Glenn in a poor start, Frankey B. trailing in the rear. Ada Glen was never headed in the mile, but was closely pressed by Sweet Home at the finish, Ada winning the heat with Sweet Home at her saddle; Baby third. Time, 1:45.

Ada Glenn brought $100 against $25 for Frankey B. for the final heat. This heat was a race from end to end. The pair made the best neck-and-neck. From three they raced side for stride like a team to within 200 yards of the finish, both getting the whip up the straight. Little Higgs drew ahead near the finish, sending Frankey B. in winner by a length and a half in 1:48¾. Mutuals paid $78.10 for the race, $16.80 for the second heat, and $18.65 for the third.

The mile dash for a purse of $500, the winner to be sold by auction, brought out this great field: Bancroft, carrying 108 pounds; Morgan Spy, 81; Marchioness, 94; Buccaneer, 94; Mack, 85; Little Butterfly, 81; Lady Bertha, 81; Bloomheim, 105; Hickory Jim, 95; Hostage, 91; Hospodar, 104; Ranger, 81; Goetia, 75; and Bellona, 105. Bancroft sold favorite at $175; Bloomheim, $90; Little Fred third choice at $45; field, $175.

Jockey J. Donohue cut loose from the squad at the start on Little Fred, Cross riding Hickory Jim a close second. The bunch lengthened out while rounding the turn, making a straggling race to the finish. Bancroft, the favorite, might as well have been in the Lake Shore for all the chance in the race. Little Fred and Hickory Jim were never approached in the mile, Little Fred winning two lengths ahead of Hickory Jim, in the last time of 1:43. Buccaneer came third, ten lengths away. Mutuals, $29. No bid for the winner.

A lively lot of two-year olds scampered three quarters of a mile for a purse of $500, the winner to be sold at auction. The field comprised the brown filly Felicia, by Billet, 87 pounds; chestnut gelding Wandering, by Wanderer, 107; chestnut colt, by King Ernest—Fan Fan, 90; chestnut colt Darling, by Warren, 90; chestnut gelding Baron Favorot, by Baron Wood, 92; chestnut colt Greimer, by Grinstead, 97; bay colt Lytton, by Saxon, 90; chestnut colt Gonfalon, by Glenloven, 100; and bay filly Palpitation, by Virgil, 92. Betting—Felicia, $100; Baron Favorot, $75; Wandering, $50; Gonfalon $40; field, $80.

A bad start found Lytton in the lead, Gonfalon passing him on the backstretch. At the half-mile post the Fan Fan colt made a splendid burst, taking the lead, and remaining there to the finish, winning by two lengths in front of Baron Favorot, Lytton third. Time, 1:17. Mutual fives on the Fan Fan colt paid $133.65, the largest dividend of the meeting so far.

A handicap steeplechase over the inside course, $400 to first, $100 to second, and $50 to third, closed the programme. Felix sold in the pools at $100; Buchram, $85; Annette, $75; Rose, $50, with Bernadine, Smoothwater, Berby, Harry Gow, and Forager in the field at $105.

Smoothwater led the field at the start, but soon came to grief over the rails, tossing her rider, Verplank, on the turf. Buckra and Annette then took a decided lead, making a very pretty race around the field and two over the water. Bernadine fell over a hurdle in the upper field, tossing M. Kenney on the grass. Annette struck into the track with a lead of two lengths. In the run home Harry Gow headed Buckra. Annette winning the race a length ahead of Harry Gow, Buckra third. Time, 5:47½. Mutuals paid $20.15.

Staten Island Wins at Cricket.

The Staten Island Cricket Club has of late been charged by their city rivals with winning a chance victory on the occasion of their recent defeat of the Western team. But yesterday the Islanders added another noteworthy success to their fall season's work by defeating the strong team of the Germantown Club of Philadelphia. The batting of the Germantown gentlemen yesterday was especially noteworthy. The contest began with the Germantown eleven at the bat, and they were in the field all day, their last man being left not out. Some of the best batting displayed in a game of cricket in New York was seen in the Staten Island batting. Rennard and Wright went in together at the end, and they ran the score up to 40 before they were parted, and afterward young Rennard added another 40 to the total before he was bowled. Two men were left to go in at the end of the innings, but no more runs were made. As Lane stood back to the pitch was left for him and he made a good one, scoring 18 through. He, with the Rennard brothers, Wright, and Wilson, made runs enough to put the game out of reach. The Germantown team were all out for 144, the last wicket being bowled for 5 runs. The Staten Island team then went in for the remaining time, and at the end of the innings had run up a total of 184 for the loss of 5 wickets, and for 5 bowling 140.

Base Ball Yesterday.

The match between the Philadelphias and the Metropolitans at the Polo grounds yesterday resulted in a victory for the latter. There was some fine fielding, and the large concourse of spectators applauded frequently.

Philadelphia	2	0	0	2	1	0	1	0	0	6
Metropolitan	0	1	0	0	0	2	1	0	0	4

The last grand match of the Long Island Amateur series was played on the Prospect Park grounds yesterday by the Nameless Club of Brooklyn and the Peerless of East New York. Lack had worked up a good nine during the season's campaign, and on Friday's contest was the playing of match of the season. Not less than 5,000 people surrounded the field. Fine weather was the success of the Namelessness.

Nameless	1	0	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	3

The game at Baltimore between the Alleghenys and Baltimores was called in a draw at the end of nothing, each scoring seven runs.

Trotting at Prospect Park.

The first trot at the Prospect Park Fair grounds yesterday for a purse of $100 for three-minute horses, mile heats, best three in five, in harness, had four starters, Hiram W. Howe's b. g. Derby, H. Smith's b. g. Wreck, and H. Gaffney's b. m. Grace. Derby won at odds of $20 for the field. In the first heat Derby led Wreck by a neck, Grace 10 lengths in the rear. In the next two heats and trot, with Wreck at his wheel, in 2:40, 2:41, Grace third.

The second event was a match race between John Driscoll's blk. m. Nellie and William Hanna's b. m. Addie. The latter was the favorite. In the first heat Addie broke on the homestretch, and Nellie won by a neck. In the second heat Nellie left her foot just before reaching the quarter pole and Addie rushed to the front at a rattling pace and was never headed, winning in 2:39½. Addie also captured the third and fourth heats and the trot in 2:41½, 2:47.

Sharp Driving by a Four-year-old Girl.

In the Gentlemen's Driving Park, on Tuesday last, John Murphy's 4-year old daughter drove Rowdy Boy, the famous pacer (record 2:13) a mile in 2:23½. Mr. Murphy sat in the sulky and held the little girl between his knees, but did not touch the reins. The spectators cheered loudly.

The Gentlemen's Driving Park Association offer a purse of $3,000, open to all horses, and a purse of $2,000 for 2:10 class, to close Sept. 15, and to be trotted for Sept. 22.

A Horse Dropping Dead on the Track.

JOHNSTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Mr. B. H. Demarest's Gray Chief, record 2:25, dropped dead at the finish of the fourth heat in the free-for-all race here to-day.

SATURDAY, Sept. 9.

The stock market opened with a somewhat uncertain tone and irregularity in the course of prices, but more uniform strength was soon developed. There was great activity in Northern Pacific common and preferred at advancing prices, with liberal dealings in Erie common, Lake Shore, St. Paul common, and Oregon and Transcontinental. The coal shares and telegraphs were neglected. The flurry in St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba continued, the stock advancing 2 to 166. The newly listed Lehigh Valley Central had a fair sale, and advanced 1¾. Between 12 M. and 2 P. M. Alleghany Central further advanced, and Lake Shore was buoyant, but the market was generally variable and unsettled with a weaker tone especially for the shares of the Union Pacific group. In the last hour the market was dull and weak. The more important changes for the day were as follows: Advanced—Lake Shore, ¾; Michigan Central, ¾; Missouri Pacific, ¾; Northern Pacific common, 1; New York Central, ⅛; St. Paul common, 1¼; Alleghany Central, ⅝; Illinois Central, 1; St. Paul, Minneapolis and Manitoba, 6; Minneapolis and St. Louis preferred, 2¾. Declined—Denver and Rio Grande, ⅝.

Governments were firmer, the 4's cent. coupons selling ⅛c. higher. State bonds were quiet. Railroad bonds met with a fair general demand for investment; Erie 2d 6s were active and advanced ¾; Rich. and Danville debentures declined 1½; Mutual Union Telegraph 6s were more active.

Money on call 1@3 ⅌ cent. Sterling exchange dull; sight drafts, $4.88@$4.88¼; 60-day bills, $4.84@$4.84¼.
