FAST TROTTING IN BUFFALO.

A RECORD OF 2:20 AND UNDER IN TEN OUT OF ELEVEN HEATS.

St. Julien Captures the Special Purse—Best Time 2:17 1-2—Westmont Heads the Pacers—Best Time 2:18 1-4—Phyllis's Mile

BUFFALO, Aug. 9.—The great special trot with St. Julien and Edwin Thorne among the starters, the fast field in the 2:20 class trotters, and the equally fleet horses in the 2:20 pacing race drew an immense throng to the Buffalo Driving Park to-day. The three spacious stands were filled, and black lines of people lined each side of the quarter stretch, while many hundreds viewed the contest from vehicles of all descriptions in the field. It was a genuine gala day. Never before were three consecutive turf events so closely contested, and never before in the history of trotting and pacing were ten heats out of eleven reeled off in 2:20 and under. Excitement ran high when the wide-awake veteran Orrin Hickok drove on the track behind St. Julien, John Splan following with Fanny Witherspoon, John Turner with Trinket, and James Pettit holding the lines behind Edwin Thorne for the great trot of the meeting, the special purse of $5,000. St. Julien was a warm favorite, selling at $100, to Edwin Thorne $15, and the field $15.

Edwin Thorne started for the first heat with a lead of a length at the pole, St. Julien second. Thorne trotted grandly, opening a gap of two lengths at the quarter pole. St. Julien shut out the daylight along the backstretch, taking Thorne by the neck at the half-mile pole. From this point the fight lay between these two, and a gallant one it was. Thorne trotted in St. Julien's old style, without a break, and St. Julien was trotted off his feet within twenty yards of the stand, losing the heat by a nose in 2:17¼. Trinket came in a fair third, with Fanny Witherspoon alongside.

Thorne started so fiercely for the second heat that he broke within fifty yards of the starting point. St. Julien whizzed past him like a skyrocket and took the pole on the turn. Thorne settled down to his work handily, but the best that he could do was to reach St. Julien's wheel along the backstretch. In the last half St. Julien pulled away two lengths, coming in an easy winner of the heat by that distance, without a break, in 2:18. Thorne was second, and Fanny third.

Hickok said that St. Julien got off in the first heat with his wrong foot first, and he couldn't square himself until the right foot forward at the start. In the third heat Thorne trotting alongside to the turn, and Trinket breaking and going to the rear. St. Julien opened daylight before reaching the quarter pole. Thorne closed the gap at the three-quarters, and the trotting was intensely exciting. Thorne made a stanch at the crisis, and, keeping up his driving wheel movement, came in two lengths ahead of Thorne in 2:17¾. Trinket having passed Fanny for third place.

Edwin Thorne sailed away with a lead of half a length in the fourth and final heat. St. Julien second, and Trinket third. St. Julien gained the lead around the pole, and in making the bend for the backstretch struck himself and wabbled for a moment, but settled down to his work without a break. The old favorite and Thorne had it side by side along the backstretch. Thorne leading by a head into the lower turn. St. Julien outfooted Thorne up the straight in grand style, winning the heat and trot by two lengths in 2:19¾; Thorne second, and Fanny Witherspoon third.

The $1,500 purse for 2:20 pacers, brought under the wire the Iowa flyer Westmont, the Texas horse Lone Jack, Buffalo's pacer Billy S., and the fast Eddie D., from Indiana. Westmont was a great favorite, selling at $100 against $34 for the field. The feature of the first heat was a very exciting brush in the last quarter between Lone Jack and Westmont, Lone Jack beating Westmont in by a head in 2:19, with Billy S. third.

As in the first heat, the fight was between Lone Jack and Westmont in the second. Lone Jack had a slight advantage at the start. On the backstretch the pacers resembled a four-in-hand team, with Lone Jack and Westmont as leaders. At the three-quarter pole the leaders were still head and head. Westmont went under the wire a length in front of Lone Jack, in 2:18¾, with Billy S. third.

Westmont and Billy S. made a beautiful race for nearly three-quarters of a mile in the third heat, with no daylight between them. In the last quarter Westmont held the pace while the others dropped back, with the exception of Eddy D., who passed Billy and Lone Jack on the stretch. Westmont took the heat in 2:22, with Eddy D. at his heel, Lone Jack third.

Little John Campbell, the driver of Westmont, showed what the pacer could do in the fourth and final heat. Forging ahead from the start in the backstretch he was half a dozen lengths in the lead, increasing the gap as the race proceeded. The sidewheelers came under the wire ten lengths apart, Westmont first in 2:18¼, Lone Jack second, and Eddie D. third.

A field of famous trotters appeared for the $2,000 purse in the 2:20 class. The lot comprised O. A. Hickok's ch. g. Overman, C. Wagner's br. m. Phyllis, J. A. Goldsmith's g. s. Romero, J. Knauber's l. g. Deckwright, G. W. Saunders's b. m. Clemmie G., and W. Spencer's Billy Button. Overman was a favorite in the betting at 2 to 1 over the field.

Phyllis was never headed in the first heat from the word "Go." Overman and Deckwright had the worst of the start. The favorite broke on the backstretch, losing more ground. An exciting finish took place between Phyllis and Billy Button, Phyllis going in the air within five lengths of the wire, but regaining her feet in a flash, and taking the heat by a head in 2:18¾, Deckwright third.

Phyllis trotted away in the lead for the second heat, with Overman near the tail of the bunch. Overman worked up fourth position on the lower turn, and tackled Phyllis on the quarter stretch. They came head and head near the finish, where Hickok loosened one hand to handle his whip, making Overman break. The mare also left her feet, and the two went under the wire dancing, with Overman's nostrils in front. The heat was awarded to him in 2:19¾, Billy Button came in third and Deckwright fourth.

In the third heat Overman worked up from fifth position on the backstretch and caught Phyllis in the straight. A tremendous brush near the wire sent Phyllis off her feet, while Overman wabbled at the pace. They passed under the wire head and head in 2:20, making a dead heat.

The Saratoga Races.

SARATOGA, Aug. 9.—There was an immense attendance at the races to-day, and the betting was very heavy. The first event, a mile dash, was won by Ascender, the favorite, by a length, after a lively finish with Bonnie Lizzie, who came in second. Owen Bowling third. Time, 1:42¾. French pools paid $9.90.

The Virginia Stakes, for two-year-olds, five furlongs, had eleven starters. Burton was the favorite in the pools. It took half an hour to get the youngsters off in a fair start. Burton was in the fifth position, clear on the outside. At the eighth post Burton began to show through the rack. He came in like a whirlwind, passing horse after horse, and won by an open length, Lloyd Daly second and Loftin third. Time, 1:03¾. French pools paid $9.40.

The selling race, three quarters of a mile, was won by Glengarine by a length, Dan K. second, and Bell Boy third. Time, 1:16¾. French pools paid $18.10. The winner was bought in, his stakes to go elsewhere.

The Trouble Stakes, a handicap steeplechase, about two and a quarter miles, had as starters Disturbance, Postguard, Hilarity, and Riedel. Postguard, the favorite, won in hand, by two lengths, with Disturbance second, and Riedel third. Time, 4:24½. French pools paid $10.20.

At the West Side Driving Park.

The summer meeting at the West Side Driving Park, Jersey City, ended yesterday. The sport opened with the 2:40 class, purse $200, mile heats, best three in five, in harness. There were ten starters. The favorite, Carrie, won the first and second heats in 2:36, 2:35¼. Lady G. won the third and fourth in 2:35¼, 2:35. The fifth was a dead heat between Lady G. and Ossian Pet in 2:38½. Peter Manee, the driver, was then put behind Ossian Pet, and he Pet won the sixth, seventh and eighth heats and the trot in 2:30¾, 2:30, 2:28¾. Carrie received second money.

The trot for the 2:27 class was won by Parole in three straight heats in 2:31, 2:31, 2:32½.

In the trot for the 2:45 class, a purse for double teams, members only, Lowland Mary and mate took the first heat in 2:43½. Harry Mills and Manhattan won the next three heats and trot in 2:44¾, 2:46¼, 2:39¾.

In the running race, half-mile heats, Sailor Boy won the first and fourth heats and race in 56½ and 56 seconds, the third was a dead heat in 57 seconds. Dan Scott took the second in 56 seconds.

The last trot was a sweepstakes of $300. Etta R. to wagon won the second, third, and fourth heats and trot in 2:57, 2:54, 2:53. Amie to harness won the first in 2:52.

Racing in England.

LONDON, Aug. 9.—At Brighton to-day the race for the Mile Selling Plate was won by Mr. Leopold de Rothschild's five year old bay colt Fetterless, with Lord Calthorpe's three-year old chestnut filly Vandusara second, and Lord Rosslyn's five-year old bay selling Parasite third. There were five starters. Fetterless won by two lengths. There were six starters in the race for the second and third places. The betting at the start was 7 to 4 on Fetterless, 5 to 1 against Vandusara, and 10 to 1 against Parasite.

Tally-ho Between Saratoga and New York.

NIP AND TUCK ON THE HOMESTRETCH.

Racers at Monmouth Park Struggling Gallantly at the Finish.

Four of the races at Monmouth Park yesterday ended amid intense excitement—the excitement which always attends fine racing on the homestretch. No extraordinary time was made, but in four races a straggler bounded into first place when the race was nearly over and crossed the line a winner. In the third race Eolist, who was on the trail until the turn, dashed gallantly into second place. The favorites were successful in most of the contests. The attendance was much larger than on Tuesday.

The first race was a free handicap sweepstakes of $25 each, if not declared out, with $500 added, the second to receive $100 out of the stakes, seven furlongs. Starters, weights, and pools are as follows: Little Minch, 109 pounds, $166; Quebec, 83, $20; Strathspey, 118, $80; Bob Miles, 83, $25; Chickadee, 87, $20; Jacobus, 98, $50; Duplex, 116, $60; Aranza, 120, $80. The horses were a long time getting off, Aranza and Duplex holding back while Quebec shot ahead. At the start Quebec led and held the lead to the quarter pole, pressed by Chickadee and Jacobus. All went over the backstretch in a bunch, Jacobus passing Quebec and Chickadee and keeping ahead past the half post, with Strathspey second. These were their positions at the turn and the three-quarter post, when Duplex came forward with a rush, winning by two lengths, Jacobus second. Time, 1:29. French pools, $25.45.

The second race was the Optional Stakes for two-year-olds, $50 each, with $1,500 added, of which $500 to the second; three-quarters of a mile. Starters, weights, and pools: Woodlark, 95, $50; P. Lorillard's Leonard Blossom, 98 and 95, $300 on the pair; Thackeray, 117, $110; Laura Gould, 100, $60. Woodlark got away first, followed by Laura Gould. Woodlark kept first place down the backstretch, with Blossom and Leo second and third. In that order the Lorillard pair passed Woodlark and came around the turn, keeping their position for the rest of the race, Blossom winning in 1:15 by three lengths, French pools, $8.20.

The third race was the Passaic Stakes for three-year-olds and upward, $50 each, with $1,500 added, of which $500 to the second; three-quarters of a mile. Starters, weights, and pools: Carlyle, 101, $15; Breeze, 106, $180; Swift, 106, $100; Cheerful, 96, $40; Fatinitza, 113, $30; Eolist, 101, $15. Cheerful got off first, with Breeze second and Carlyle third. Breeze taking the lead early in the race and keeping it, won in 1:15¼. On the homestretch W. Donohue whipped up Eolist, who had been last on the backstretch, and bringing in Mr. Gebhard's colors second. French pools, $8.60.

The fourth race was a free handicap sweepstakes, $25 each, if not declared out, with $500 added, the second to receive $100; one mile and a quarter. Starters, weights, and pools: Girofla, 93 and 2½ lbs. over, $60; Mattie Rapiere, 94 and 2½ over, $200; Greenland, 112, $15; Brunswick, 100, $80; Red Fox, 95, $40; Topsy, 105, $200; Charley Marks, 95, $80; Amazon, 103, $85. This was won in fine style by Topsy. Girofla led at the start, with Greenland second and Charley Marks third. At the stand Charley Marks pressed forward and kept the lead till the last turn, when Girofla led him. All this while Topsy had been third and fourth, falling back even further on the backstretch; but on the homestretch she came forward with a rush, winning in 2:10, with Charley Marks second. French pools, $14.80.

The fifth race was for a purse of $500, one mile and a furlong. Starters, weights, and pools: Marshal, 102, $45; Clara A., 100, $30; Flower of Meath, 110, $50. Flower of Meath took the lead and kept it, though closely pressed by Marshal, winning in 1:59, with Marshal second. French pools, $11.30.

The sixth race was the Seud Stakes, a handicap sweepstakes of $25 each, with $300 added, the second to receive $75 out of the stakes; three-quarters of a mile; gentlemen allowed 7 pounds. Starters, weights, and pools: Wanda, 137, Quelece, 141; Fairwater, 140, $95; Antrim, 142, $90; Assurance, 137, $45; Athos, 155, $35; Volusia, 155, $100; Moor, 140; Clarence, 140; the field $75. Mr. Holmes rode Assurance, and Mr. Pelham Fairwater.

The orders at the start were gradually passed by Antrim, who rounded to the first stretch first; but here Costello whipped up Volusia, who bounded to the front, winning in 1:17¼. French pools, $17.15.

The seventh race was a handicap steeplechase over the short course for a purse of $500, of which $100 to the second. Starters, weights, and pools: Minzer, 155 lbs.; Charlemagne, 153, $35; Abraham, 125; Tom Navin, 125; Vanita, 135; Kate Cronin, 120; Lily Morgan, 140, $100; Kate Cronin and the field, $15. Charlemagne got away first, but was soon passed by Abraham, who kept the lead, with Charlemagne and Lily Morgan alternating second and third most of the way, and a straggling trail. On the back track Charlemagne closed up on Abraham. After a short, desperate contest, Charlemagne forged ahead, and kept his lead, winning in 3:14¾, Abraham second. Meanwhile, Kate Cronin and Vanita, who had dropped their jockeys at the fourth jump, had leaped the rail and galloped leisurely to the stable, the jockeys following more leisurely. French pools, $18.20.

Base Ball Yesterday.

The Metropolitans scored their fourth victory over the Athletics yesterday at the Polo grounds, not counting the forfeited game, which is yet to be decided by President McKnight. The Athletics put in Corey and Rowen as their battery, but the latter was injured in the game, and Blakeston had to catch in his place. The score was:

Cricket.

The in-club match between the English and American teams of the Staten Island Cricket Club, which began on Saturday last, was resumed yesterday at Camp Washington, Staten Island. The score of the English club's play stood: Americans, 127 first innings, with offer of the English eleven, who had three wickets to spare. The Englishmen yesterday only added four runs before the side was out for 131. The Americans began their second innings and made 72, of which Mr. Steane contributed 14 and W. M. Davidge 12. On Tuesday next the match will be concluded.

The Watkins Regatta.

WATKINS, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Hanlan, Hosmer, and Courtney have already arrived here, and are in daily practice for the coming regatta of Aug. 14 and 15. Wallace and Edward Ross, Jas. A. Teneyck, and others are expected here to-day. The amateur entries come in night and morning, and a fine time will be found the most prominent oarsmen in the amateur ranks.

Hanlan Willing to Row Courtney.

MONTREAL, Quebec, Aug. 9.—Hanlan has informed the Regatta Committee here that he is willing to row Courtney on the terms proposed to the latter. The answer has not yet been received.

The Chautauqua Meetings.

CHAUTAUQUA, N. Y., Aug. 9.—The many departments of the Chautauqua Assembly and summer universities are now being conducted from day to day with a great measure of success. The attendance is much larger than during the corresponding period last year. Interesting and spirited devotional meetings are held at 8 every morning in the amphitheatre by Dr. H. M. Scott and others. The attendance this morning was about 1,000 persons. Four thousand persons listened at 11 o'clock in the same place to Mr. Wallace. Bruce's lecture on "Shakspere and Modern Life," and at 3 P. M. Prof. J. Richards of Chicago gave a popular lecture on "Magnetism and its Marvellous Developments." At 4 P. M. an interesting women's temperance meeting was held under the charge of Mrs. Hoover. At the same hour a Young Men's Christian Association conference was held in the pavilion. The Rev. J. C. Freeman of Syracuse presiding. The Rev. Samuel Dodge's "Social Purity" series of addresses were held in the hall in the grove at 5 P. M., about twelve members of the Chautauqua Literary and Scientific Circle held a meeting at 6 P. M., Vincent presiding, and delivered a brief address. At 7 P. M. Dr. John H. Vincent, superintendent of the Assembly, held a question drawer exercise in the amphitheatre, about 2,000 sundays attended from different parts of the country taking part. At 8 o'clock Prof. Richards delivered a second popular scientific lecture on "Franklin's Kite, an Electrical story."

Our Progress.

As stages are quickly abandoned with the completion of railroads, so the huge, drastic, cathartic pills composed of crude and bulky medicines are quickly shaddoned with the introduction of Dr. Pierce's "Pleasant Purgative Pellets," which are sugar-coated and little larger than mustard seeds, but composed of highly concentrated vegetable extracts. CONSOLATION REGATTA AT NEWARK.

The Races Closed with an Exciting Contest Between Eight-oared Shells.

The racing at Newark concluded yesterday with the Consolation Regatta for prizes offered by the Passaic River Amateur Rowing Association, winners in the regatta of the National Association being debarred. The course was the usual one, a mile and a half straight away. Wind and tide were against the contestants in the first three races.

The sport began with the first heat of the junior single sculls. The starters were:

J. J. Coburn, Newark Institute; J. O. Davidson, Nyack; Thomas Wolters, Essex, Newark.

Davidson broke his foot strap at the three-quarters and quit. Wolters won in 12 minutes 7½ seconds, Coburn 12:12¾.

In the second heat, junior singles, were:

John E. O'Rourk, City Point, Boston; R. H. Bryan, Atlanta, and Gilbert Fitzgerald, Keystone, Philadelphia.

Fitzgerald soon stopped. Bryan finished at his ease in 11:25, O'Rourk, of course, saving himself for the final heat.

The crews in the pair-oared gig race were:

Ariel, Newark—T. F. Keer, bow; C. Oakley, stroke; G. Van Fleet, coxswain. Eureka, Newark—H. Max Jury, bow; Peter A. Saxton, stroke; D. McMillan, coxswain. Pioneer, Brooklyn—Theo. Richard, Jr., bow; W. H. Young, stroke; L. Thatcher, coxswain.

The Eurekas gained additional honors for their club colors passing the finish the winners in 12:31, four lengths ahead of the Ariels.

In the first heat of the senior singles were:

Ariel, Newark—T. F. Keer, Port Huron, Port Huron, Mich.; Jeremiah Donohue, Portland, Portland, Me.; John T. Buckley, Triton, Newark—Franklin Plodts.

Donohue took the lead, and it was soon evident that the race was between him and Buckley. The Portland man pushed the Michigander hard to the Eureka club house, where he came up abreast. From there Buckley gradually drew away, finishing in 9:58, three lengths ahead of Donohue.

The starters in the second heat, senior singles, were:

W. E. O'Connell, Portland; W. W. Stone, Wyandotte; Dennis J. Casey, Central, Boston.

At the half mile O'Connell was a length ahead of Casey, who was two lengths ahead of Stone. Then Stone put on steam, and passed Casey and toyed O'Connell a hot race to the finish, O'Connell winning by two lengths in 2:29½.

In the four-oared shell race the crews were:

Mutual, Albany—Robert Carson, bow; Louis Mitchell, Peter Snyder, Samuel Webster, stroke. Nonpareil, New York—Fred Snedker, bow; Herman Kreuger, J. Mass, Wm. Mulcare, stroke. Institute, Newark—Owen P. Mahon, bow; M. J. McGeary, N. K. Harris, Owen Conlon, stroke.

The Nonpareils took the lead, with the Mutuals and Institutes in the order named. The Institutes narrowly escaped a collision with the press boat by bad steering, and stopped. The Nonpareils and Mutuals had close work to the Eureka club house, and while the Nonpareils steered straight into the Mutuals, the Mutuals got clear first and finished four lengths ahead of the Nonpareils. There was considerable hissing on the grand stand when the referee gave the race to the Nonpareils. Time, 9:32.

The double sculllers were:

Metropolitan, New York—W. B. Kent, bow; J. Pilkington, stroke. Crescent, Boston—J. F. Fox, bow; D. J. Murphy, stroke. Wolvenhoek, Greenbush, N. Y.—R. I. Wilson, bow; Frank W. Tompkins, stroke.

They rowed very closely up the half mile, where they were a length apart, in the following order: Crescents, Wolvenhoeks, Metropolitans. Near the Tritons' house a gross foul was committed by the Wolvenhoeks with the Crescents. The Wolvenhoeks rowed on, but the other two crews stopped. The Wolvenhoeks were disqualified, and the Crescents and Metropolitans received a fresh start from the point where they stopped. The Metropolitans soon took the lead, and won by over four lengths in 9:53.

The Hillsdale four not rowed over on time, passing the buoy in 8:22½. They were unfortunate in fouling in the National regatta, and this is a good record to take back home.

In the six-oared gig race the crews were:

Union, New York—P. J. Engel, bow; Oscar Berger, 2; L. Stephens, 3; M. Bascom, 4; Jacob Ahrens, 5; August Schneider, stroke; W. F. Barbey, coxswain. Metropolitan, New York—W. E. Cody, bow; R. Schile, 2; R. A. Jackson, 3; Wilson, 4; E. Nagle, 5; J. Pilkington, stroke; T. M. Burke, coxswain. Hillsdale, Detroit—J. Ryan, 2; J. Baker, bow; Robert Carson, Louis Mitchell, Peter Snyder, Samuel Webster, W. S. Mosely, stroke; Charles Palpenbrink, coxswain.

It was nip and tuck between the Metropolitans and Unions up to the half mile. The Mutuals were nearly two lengths astern. Running up to the mile, the Mutuals forced the pace and had their bow tip abreast of the Metropolitans. Here the Mutuals stopped rowing suddenly, having, apparently, made the race for the second place. The Metropolitans finished several lengths ahead of the Mutuals in 8:16.

The final heat of the junior singles brought out the first two in each of the preceding heats, except Hoarek, who had got stuck in the mud. Coburn was disqualified for fouling Wolters, who received second place, Bryan winning in 9:42½.

In the final heat for senior singles only Buckley and Stone started. It was very close to the half. Nearing the mile mark Buckley spurted vigorously, were in the front, and won by over three lengths in 9:18¾.

The last event was the eight-oared shell race. It was the closest and most exciting of the three days' racing. The crews were:

Union, New York—P. J. Engel, bow; O. Berger, 2; Walters, 3; Wm. Schneider, 4; Jacob Ahrens, 5; August Wm. Lohr Jr., August Schneider, stroke; J. T. Harden, coxswain.

Columbia, Washington—W. A. Smith, bow; R. J. W. Brewer, 2; James Young, 3; C. Kooslup, 4; Marshall; Oscar Woodward, 5; H. Wade, 6; A. Nute, stroke; W. H. Gibson, coxswain.

The Columbias led up to the half mile. Then the Unions quickened their stroke, and at the Tipton house they had passed their antagonists. At the mile the Unions were a bare half length ahead. A hot fight ensued all the way down the last half mile, the Unions just keeping their bow tip ahead, but gaining nothing. Both crews made desperate rallies on the last 100 yards, but the Unions answered a final spurt of the Columbias by another as effective, and crossed the finish winners by scarcely a quarter of a length in 7 minutes 49 seconds.

FATAL FREAK OF A CAR HORSE.

Bleeding to Death After Running his Head Through a Shop Window.

The fancy goods store of Mrs. Mary Hayes, at 142 East Houston street, is just opposite the termination of Forsyth street. The Second avenue cars, on their way up town, swing from Forsyth street into Houston street. At noon yesterday as a car was turning the curve, one of the horses, instead of going to the left, kept straight ahead, broke his traces, and dashed into the show window of Mrs. Hayes's store. His chest and neck got wedged into the frame, and the broken glass cut a gash in his throat. Blood spouted from the wound and ran in a stream down the sidewalk. The driver and conductor dragged the horse from the frame and tried to pacify it. The animal seemed frenzied, and after prancing around the sidewalk dashed through Houston street, passed Second avenue, and up Second avenue to Second street, where it fell to the ground, and a few moments later died from loss of blood.

Mrs. Hayes was in her back parlor in the room back of the store when the horse broke the glass. They were not aware that their property had been injured until the man in charge of the car came in and said that the street was strewn with the goods which he had had on exhibition in the window lying on the sidewalk, and a crowd of street urchins making their selections from them. Her estimate of the damage done was thrown away and what was spoiled by blood at $100. He says that the Second Avenue Railroad Company has promised to make his loss good.

Meeting of Copeland & Co.'s Creditors.

BOSTON, Aug. 9.—A meeting of the creditors of the boot and shoe firm of Charles W. Copeland & Co. was held this forenoon, at which the following statement of the firm's affairs was made: Direct liabilities, $1,067,200; contingent liabilities, $624,000; total, $2,691,200. Assets in cash, machinery, stock, and real estate, $256,800; due from Fayette Shaw & Bros., $600,000; open accounts and notes receivable, $703,200; total, $1,560,000. A committee of five persons, including one from New York, were chosen to examine into the firm's affairs and ascertain the best method for reaching a settlement.

Wedding in Colored High Life.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Aug. 9.—A marriage in colored high life was solemnized in this city this evening, the contracting parties being Miss Rosa Wilder, a beautiful quadroon, the daughter of C. M. Wilder, Postmaster of Columbia, and Prof. Wm. Wright, superintendent of the public schools of colored schools of Washington, D. C. The presents were numerous and costly. The toilets of the brides and bridesmaids, the former by Worth, were elegant and the affair was a swell one in every respect.

Salvation Army Officers Arrested.

SYRACUSE, Aug. 9.—Capt. Evans, Mrs. Lieut. Evans, his wife and six other members of the Salvation Army were arrested this evening while parading the streets in violation of a resolution recently adopted by the Common Council. On their way to the police station they defiantly sang, "We will land in the heavenly harbor." They were each bailed for the appearance of Recorder Burnett, and were warned that they would be arrested whenever they sing in the streets.

Battle of Wilson's Creek Reunion.

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., Aug. 9.—The reunion of the survivors of the battle of Wilson's Creek, at which Gen. Nathaniel Lyon was killed, was begun here to-day. Several thousand persons are present, including veterans from Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, Arkansas, Missouri, Arkansas, Iowa, Kansas, and Louisiana. All are having a splendid time, and the most cordial feeling prevails. To-morrow will be the chief day of the reunion.

A Premium on Fast Passages.

Postmaster Pearson has determined, on the authorization of Postmaster-general Gresham, to send the mails for Great Britain and Ireland and the closed mails for the Continent of Europe which are forwarded via England and Belgium by the steamers which, according to the record of previous voyages, will get them across at the earliest date. The practice heretofore has been to send those mails by the steamers which sailed first from New York. The consequence often arrive at their destination one or two days after faster steamers which left New York after them. The new arrangement will go into effect on Sept. 1.

The steamship City of Rome arrived yesterday, 6 days, 22 hours and 10 minutes from Queenstown.

CHARGES SENT TO THE GOVERNOR.

L. W. Sloat's Case Against District Attorney McKeon for Unlawful Imprisonment.

L. W. Sloat, who is suing District Attorney McKeon, Charity Commissioner Brennan, and Warden Dunphy of the branch workhouse on Hart's Island, accusing them of conspiracy to imprison him without process of law for four years, has presented charges against the District Attorney to Gov. Cleveland, setting forth that Mr. McKeon, after becoming District Attorney in 1882, consented to the unlawful imprisonment. Sloat's sister is Mr. McKeon's wife, and was a coheir with Sloat of their father, Admiral John D. Sloat's, estate. L. W. Sloat says that he was the sole surviving trustee of the estate when, on July 16, 1879, Mr. McKeon, by the instrumentality of James F. Roberts, his clerk, had Sloat kidnapped in New York and taken to Hart's Island, afterward rewarding Warden Dunphy for keeping him there by appointing Dunphy's son to a clerkship in the District Attorney's office. These letters are annexed to the charges:

206 BROADWAY, July 21.

MY DEAR SIR: I have just received the threatening as well as witness letters from Warrington, in which, of course, your action is denounced and my services requested to release him. If you call in I will show you the letters. I intend to wash my hands of the whole affair. I am tired and sick of it and shall not answer. I think you should be prepared if W. appeals to the public. His family relations, age, appearance, and apparent rationality will raise a storm if he should die, of course, will ingeniously, and with some show of reason, claim that he was kidnapped, and will doubtless find friends, real or pseudo, who will testify that he has a of his senses. My judgment is, after all, that you should proceed regularly, and have his insanity declared by a commission, if it exists. Truly yours, Jasper Beck.

DEAR SIR: I take the liberty of asking you that an examination may be made by the medical gentlemen in charge of Hart's Island in the case of L. W. Sloat now at that establishment. He is the son of the late Admiral Sloat. He has for years been addicted to habits of gross intoxication. He is now over 64 years of age. For several years past he has been losing his memory. He seems to be aware of this, as he has made it a practice to make memoranda on small pieces of paper and carry them in his pocketbook. Whenever asked questions as to his residence or where his clothing is he refers to these slips of paper. I doubt if he could tell where anything is to be found if these memoranda were kept from him for forty-eight hours. We are now searching for a value which he had contained clothing, but nothing of the kind can be found at the places he names. He has fits of violence when he gets spirituous liquors, as I am informed by persons who have seen him in that condition. He has an idea that he is being robbed of his property and friends of his are in a hostile conspiracy against him. On the first day of May last some money belonging to his father's estate reached him, and, instead of paying debts, he spent this money, and has been in a debauched condition ever since. He has not had the handling of money for years until this last payment. He says he was robbed of a great part of it, but he gives such different statements as to the amount, and changes so frequently his story when questioned, that his statement, and again will not stand by his charge. There is but little confidence to be placed in his story. He has lately wandered about the city and he was found sleeping in station houses. To a person who knows little about him he may appear sound, but if a watch be put upon him and examinations made from time to time his want of mental capacity will become apparent, and with the opinion of these experts if legal proceedings should become necessary in his case. With sincere regards, yours truly, JOHN MCKEON.

THOS. S. BRENNAN, Esq.

Endorsement—Personal.—Will Mr. Dunphy please call my attention to this when I reach the Island.

THOS. S. BRENNAN.

HART'S ISLAND HOSPITAL, Aug. 8, 1879.

L. Dunphy, Esq., Warden, &c.

DEAR SIR: In reference to Lewis W. Sloat, an inmate of your institution, and to whom I was requested to examine as to his mental condition, I have to report that I have had two prolonged interviews with said L. W. Sloat, and I am of the opinion that, though he may have a crypt erical passion and defective memory, he is not insane. Very respectfully,

JAMES R. HEALY, Resident Physician.

BRANCH WORKHOUSE, B. I., July 12, 1880.

The Hon. John McKeon.

DEAR SIR: I have been directed by Commissioner Brennan to notify you that L. W. Sloat, admitted to this institution on July 16, 1879, has demanded his release from here, and that the Commissioners must accede to his request. Mr. Sloat informs me that he will take his departure from here on the 19th inst. I have intercepted the enclosed letter to Mr. Sage. Yours truly,

L. DUNPHY, Warden.

He needs a pair of eyeglasses.

HART'S ISLAND, July 15, 1880.

FRIEND ROGERS: After consulting with my friends I find more time to look into the matter about my commitment, and by a further examination of the books and minutes of letters written by me from here, I find I am perfectly correct, and that I came to this place on July 16, 1879, and that my year is up on the 16th of this month which is on Friday to-morrow, and I will be there at 10 o'clock to-morrow morning, and I will be there on the 19th of July. Now, I know that McKeon or his wife or both, have money which they have collected from the estate, part of which belongs to me, and which should in honesty be paid over to me, and it, or some of it, must be at once. It is a very bad piece of business on their part to try and keep me up there past the time of the sentence passed against me, without my knowledge and without my having a hearing or the privilege of a reference even
