KINNEY BEATS IROQUOIS.

THE DWYERS' COLORS FIRST HOME IN THE MONMOUTH STAKES.

Pierre Lorillard Bets $5,000 that Iroquois can Beat Any Horse in Their Stable—Thackeray, Wandering, Louisette, King Fan, and Major Wheeler Also Winners.

There was probably no one in the great crowd at Monmouth Park yesterday who had not come there especially to welcome Pierre Lorillard's Iroquois back to America. Old racers thought that the great horse could hardly be in good condition to run for the Monmouth Stakes. It was only in June last that he had won a brilliant victory on English turf, and since then he had endured the hardships of a sea voyage, without the exercise necessary to keep him limber. The time since his arrival was not thought sufficient for a thorough seasoning. But the great public always has blessed faith in a great horse, and if Iroquois had arrived from England only just in time he would probably have been the favorite, as he was yesterday. In the pools he sold for $700, leading the Dwyer Brothers' pair, George Kinney and Miss Woodford, by $300. He disappointed his backers, however. George Kinney winning handsomely, with Eole second, and Iroquois third.

Foakes held Iroquois back till late in the race, letting George Kinney come forward, when Monitor began to fall back, probably in the expectation of bringing the Derby winner to the front on the homestretch. Mr. Lorillard, thinking that this policy may have lost the race, has offered to bet the Dwyers $5,000 that Iroquois can beat their stable, the winner to pay $2,500 to the association. In consequence the association has made up a race for Tuesday, for which Iroquois, George Kinney, Eole, and Monitor will probably enter.

George Kinney's victory seems to have brought back good luck to the Dwyer Bros' stable, which has been under a cloud since Drake Carter defeated Barnes at Saratoga. They won the next race yesterday with Wandering, Duplex, the second favorite, throwing his rider at the start and going around to the finish ahead of the bunch. They also got first money with King Fan in the $500 purse, and second money with Burton in the Select Stakes. Barnes was entered for the Monmouth Stakes, but did not start. The Dwyers were content with Miss Woodford and George Kinney in the race. The filly's mission may have been similar to Gonfalon's in the Omnibus, and if so she accomplished it more successfully. The steeplechase was a fizzle. All the horses but Major Wheeler either balted, threw the riders, or fell.

An unusually large number of people drove over from Seabright, Long Branch, and Elberon in their fine turnouts, and the grooms were actively employed attending to their mistresses' orders at the betting stands.

First Race—Handicap Sweepstakes, for two-year-olds, at $25 each, with $500 added; the second to receive $100 out of the stakes; three-quarters of a mile. Starters and weights: —Thackeray, 115 pounds; Bob Miles, 105½; Greenbush, 108; Phœnix, 97; Eclat, 90. Pools —Thackeray and Greenbush, $100 each; Bob Miles, $40; Eclat, $25; and Phœnix, $15. Betting—9 to 5 against Thackeray; 11 to 5 against Greenbush; 9 to 2 against Bob Miles; 8 to 1 against Eclat, and 15 to 1 against Phœnix.

A start was effected after very little maneuvering, with Thackeray and Eclat neck and neck, Greenbush and Bob Miles closely following. Down the backstretch Thackeray's head began to show in front of the filly, and Hayward's blue and orange were in the lead before the half was reached. Around the railroad turn Eclat closed up again, but Thackeray shook her off before the quarter pole and entered the stretch well ahead. At this point Hughes whipped up Bob Miles past Eclat, and made a close race with Thackeray, the latter winning in 1:16 by three-quarters of a length, Bob Miles second, French pools, $11.35.

Second Race—The Monmouth Stakes, for three-year-olds and upward at $500 each, with $5,000 added, the second to have $100 out of the stakes; mile and a half. Starters and weights—Iroquois, 127 pounds; Eole, 127; Monitor, 125; Pizarro, 112; George Kinney, 112; Miss Woodford, 107. Pools—Iroquois, $700; Dwyers' pair, George Kinney and Miss Woodford, $400; Monitor, $250; and Eole, $190. Betting—Even money against Iroquois, 3 to 1 against George Kinney, 7 to 2 against Monitor, 9 to 2 against Eole, and 8 to 7 against Miss Woodford.

It was some twenty-five minutes before the time set for the race when Iroquois appeared on the track escorted by Gonfalon. The Derby winner started to go around the course at the turn. He took the track in a slow canter until at the three-quarter post, where Gonfalon set him a fast pace, and as he went past the stand he was greeted with rounds of applause. He was in high feather for a horse that had won an English race in June and stood a sea voyage since. Monitor was also cheered as he appeared, escorted by Tousin. Eole looked hasty enough as he trotted his pace, but the grandstand was silent as he passed, an indignity to which this fine horse is always subjected. It is said he is made thus to bear vicariously the popular disapproval of Mr. Frederick Gebhard.

They were off in a jiffy, Iroquois first by a half length, Eole second by a length, Monitor third by half a length, Miss Woodford fourth, and George Kinney last. Down the railroad turn every horse changed position. Miss Woodford shot forward to second place, and Iroquois fell back to fifth. Monitor took the lead, Eole was close to Miss Woodford, and George Kinney was fourth by half a length. Before they passed the three-quarter post Eole dropped back, giving George Kinney third place. Monitor still led, closely pressed by Miss Woodford, with Iroquois still last. The horses swept past the stand amid shouts of "Monitor," who had increased his lead to a good length. They kept the same positions around the turn, Miss Woodford beginning to close up again on the leader. At the quarter post she took the ground with all the speed left in her, and passed Monitor a little way down the backstretch. Before the half post was reached, having accomplished her mission, she fell back, giving way to her stable companion, George Kinney, who came forward in grand style, taking the lead by half a length, Monitor second, Miss Woodford third, but falling back further, Iroquois fourth, and Eole fifth. As George Kinney shot forward Eole's colors began to come up rapidly. Down the railroad turn they showed ahead successively of Miss Woodford, Iroquois, and Monitor, and at the three-quarter half a length in advance of George Kinney, with Iroquois third, Monitor fourth, and Miss Woodford fifth. Then came a splendid finish. Foakes was urging on the Derby winner for all he was worth, McLaughlin was pressing after Eole to regain first place, and Donohue was trying to show Mr. Gebhard's colors first across the line. But George Kinney was too much for him. Amid tremendous excitement he bounded to the front, winning, to a wildly shouting crowd of spectators, the great race of the Monmouth season in 2:36. Eole second, Iroquois third. Fractional time—26, 52, 1:19, 1:43¾, 2:10, 2:36. French pools, $19.85. Jockeys—J. McLaughlin on George Kinney, W. Donohue on Eole, Foakes on Iroquois, W. Hayward on Monitor, Hughes on Miss Woodford.

Third Race—Handicap sweepstakes at $25 each, with $500 added, the second to receive $100 out of the stakes; one mile. Starters and weights: Duplex, 118 allowance, Rice, 113; Carnation, 106; Wandering, 97; Charley Marks, 95; Emma Manly, 80. Pools—Rice, $210; Duplex, $200; Wandering, $120; and the Bryant pair, Charley Marks and Emma Manly, $120. Betting—2 to 1 against Rice, 7 to 5 against Duplex, 7 to 2 against Wandering, 4 to 1 against Charley Marks, 20 to 1 against Emma Manly. Duplex had a race without a rider. He threw his jockey at the start and went around the course, coming in ahead amid cheers and laughter. Of the horses in the race, Rice was off first, with Emma Manly second, Charley Marks third, Duplex fourth, and Wandering last. The latter took the lead down the back stretch and kept it until the three-quarter post, where Charley Marks managed to get a neck in front. But Wandering passed him again, winning in 1:43. Charley Marks lost heart and gave second place to Rice. French pools, $23.90.

Fourth Race—The Select Stakes for two-year-olds, at $200 each, with $1,000 added, the second to receive $250 out of the stakes; three-quarters of a mile. Starters and weights: Burton, 110; Duchess, 107; Louisette, 107; Nonage, 107; Issequena, 107. Pools: Louisette, $150; Nonage, $60; Burton, $40; Duchess, $80; and Issequena, $25. Betting: 5 to 3 on Louisette, 3 to 1 against Nonage, 5 to 1 against Burton, 6 to 1 against Duchess, 8 to 1 against Issequena.

Louisette sprang off first, with Nonage second, Issequena third, Duchess fourth, and Burton last. Down the back stretch Louisette led by half a length. At the half she increased her lead to one length, and down the railroad turn to a length and a half, with Issequena second, Nonage third, Duchess fourth, and Burton fifth. But before the three-quarter was reached Burton was rapidly coming to the front, and they entered the stretch with Burton second and gaining on Louisette. They were almost neck and neck half way down the stretch. But Billy Hayward knew his horse, and with all of McLaughlin's whipping he kept Louisette half a neck ahead of Burton, winning in 1:15½. French pools, $58.50.

Fifth Race—Purse $300, for three-year-olds and upward; seven furlongs. Starters and weights: Antrim, 121 lbs.; Charley Kempland, 111; King Fan, 109. Pools: King Fan, $200; C. Kempland, $120; Antrim, $100. Betting—5 to 4 on King Fan, 5 to 5 against C. Kempland and 3 to 1 against Antrim.

Antrim took the lead at the start, with King Fan second and C. Kempland third. They rounded the turn and entered the backstretch in this order, Antrim leading by a length. He kept this lead at the half and increased it around the railroad turn to a length and a half on King Fan, who had come up to second place. But near the three-quarter post McLaughlin brought King Fan handsomely forward, entered the stretch neck and neck with Antrim, drew slightly ahead, and won an exciting finish by a neck in 1:29¾. French pools, $9.75.

Sixth Race—Purse $500, of which $100 to the second; a handicap steeplechase over the short course. Starters and weights: Chipola, 140; Major Wheeler, 135; Clicquot, 120; Captain York, 128. Pools: Captain York, $200; Chipola, $185; Major Wheeler, $105; Clicquot, $70. Betting even money against Captain York, 9 to 5 against Major Wheeler, 11 to 5 against Chipola, and 6 to 1 against Clicquot.

Major Wheeler took the lead, followed by Clicquot, Chipola, and Captain York. Captain York reached the jump first, but threw his rider. Clicquot then took the lead, with Chipola second and Major Wheeler third. This order continued until the jump before the water jump, where Chipola bolted and Clicquot fell, leaving a walk-over for Major Wheeler. Mutuals, $9.75.

THE SARATOGA RACES.

Force, Empress, Blazes, and Freeland the Winners—Three Favorites Beaten.

SARATOGA, Aug. 25.—The racing to-day was of a very exciting nature, particularly the third event, a dash of a mile and 500 yards, which was hotly contested from start to finish. The track was fast and dusty, and the betting very heavy, particularly in the books.

In the first race for three-year-olds and upward, allowances for beaten horses, three-quarters of a mile, Force, the favorite, after a rattling finish, won by a neck, Gleaner second, two lengths in front of Brad, third, Navarro a poor fourth, Lady Lyon last, pulled up. Time, 1:14. Mutuals paid $11.20.

The second race, the Relief Stakes, for three-year-olds, one mile and five furlongs, was won easily by Empress by two lengths; Jacobus, the favorite, finished second, McGinty third, Rhody Pringle fourth, Baccarat fifth, and Baron Favorite last. Time, 2:36. Mutuals paid $19.90.

The third race, free handicap sweepstakes, one mile and 500 yards, was won by Blazes by a neck and shoulders, Bessie second, Fellowplay third, followed by Owen Bowling, the favorite, Blue Grass Belle, All Hands Around, Captas, Hartford, and Rena B., in the order named. Time, 2:14¾. Mutuals paid $89.90.

The fourth race, selling allowances, one mile, was won by Freeland in a gallop by two open lengths, Glengarine finished second, two lengths in front of Dan K., the favorite, Alta B. fourth, and George L. last. Time, 1:44¾. Mutuals paid $37.40. The winner was bought in for $2,140.

LAWN TENNIS AT NEWPORT.

A Brilliant Series of Games Between Sears and Pettit.

NEWPORT, Aug. 25.—While one-half of the fashionable world heard Mgr. Capel, the other half, just outside the theatre where he spoke, witnessed by far the most extraordinary lawn tennis contest ever seen in this country. Mr. R. D. Sears, the champion amateur in singles, whose brilliant victory over Dwight yesterday will long be remembered, was asked to meet Thomas Pettit, the court tennis marker, at the Casino, and consented to do so. There was a very large amount of betting, Pettit being slightly the favorite at about 5 to 4. Some enthusiasts backed him at 2 to 1. Both men had admirers, but the sympathy of the crowd was with Pettit. Sears played a careful, painstaking game, in fact, a better one than yesterday, and in the matter of points the pair were very nearly even. Pettit, however, derived a great advantage from his superior playing on the side lines, although Sears tossed better than he. There were some very long rallies of several volleys, some of the difficult cuts of both players eliciting rounds of applause. It was the prevailing opinion that Sears took the service better than Pettit. There were some very close decisions, but they probably averaged about right. In the vantage sets the play was extremely brilliant, first one and then the other, deuce to vantage and vantage to deuce, until a setting and an outside hit by Pettit gave Sears the coveted two successive points, there having been six teen games, of which Sears got nine. The score was 6—4, 7—9.

Probably the most perfect game of ball which has ever been played took place at Indianapolis on Thursday between Dan O'Leary's Indianapolis Club and the Springfield, Ill., team of the Northwestern League. Eleven innings were played, not a run was made on either side, and there were only three errors. The Springfield men lost the game by refusing to play any longer, and the umpire declared the game against them by 9 to 0.

The Detroit-Cleveland game on Friday furnished the first instance this season where League clubs have played a tie game.

The Hartford Base Ball Association has arranged to make a circuit of Connecticut cities with its new club as soon as it is turned over to them by Manager Mutrie.

On the Manhattan grounds yesterday the Delaware Club beat the Columbias, 14 to 5.

President Sterne of the Cincinnati Club has offered Weihe $1,100 to play in his nine next season, and Weihe has refused it.

The Elizabeth Athletic Club beat the Greenville Athletics at Elizabeth yesterday, 11 to 4.

At Trenton—Trenton, 11; Harrisburg, 12 (14 innings).

The Hornet Just Saves the Mug.

The Larchmont Club yachtsmen have lately become interested in the comparative merits of the Hornet and the Zoe, two jib and mainsail one boats owned by members of the club. These yachts raced yesterday over a course of 21 miles from the Horseshoe three times around the Gangway buoy, for a $50 cup. The Hornet, length 22 feet 10 inches, was sailed for her owner, F. M. Scott, by Frank E. Towle, and the Zoe, length 22 feet 8 inches, was handled by her owner, H. A. Sanderson. The wind was light and variable, and the race was a poor test of the yachts' merits. The Zoe led at the start, but was became after the second turn around the Gangway buoy and dropped out. The Hornet won the cup by crossing the line within but half an hour of the eight-hour limit.

Fast Time by the City of Rome.

The Anchor line steamer City of Rome, Capt. Munro, which left New York on Aug. 18 for Queenstown and Liverpool, arrived off Brow Head at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. The time of passage was 6 days 20 hours and 33 minutes. On her last trip to New York the steamer beat this time by three minutes. These are the fastest respective trips the City of Rome has made. The quickest trips on record were made by the Williams & Guion line steamer Alaska, which went from New York to Queenstown in 6 days 18 hours and 37 minutes, and back in 6 days 23 hours and 48 minutes. Queenstown is 70 miles farther than Brow Head.

Sailing for the Diamond Medal.

Four members of the New York Athletic Club competed in a single scull race yesterday afternoon on the Harlem River for the Osborne diamond medal. The course was from McComb's Dam bridge to the Columbia boat house, distance one mile. J. A. R. Dunning and Henry Werlemann were scratch men, and Victor Pelin and C. Weidenfeld had fifteen seconds start. Werlemann won by a length, Dunning second, Pelin third, and Weidenfeld fourth. The rollers from a steamboat nearly swamped the boats on the last half mile.

Fiddler Neary Damaged Impromptu.

Policeman Laughlin arraigned at Jefferson Market yesterday Fiddler Neary, the boxer, and George Buland of 201 Sullivan street, whom he accused of fighting in the street. The Fiddler's head was badly damaged. Buland also showed marks of punishment. The Fiddler said he had been impromptu. Justice Duffy thought that the prisoners were sufficiently punished and discharged them.

Rockafeller's Team Trotting in 2:16 1-2.

HARTFORD, Aug. 25.—Mr. William Rockafeller's double team, Cleora and Independence, trotted at Charter Oak Park to-day for a record, making a mile in 2:16½. Their previous record of 2:18¾ was made at Fleetwood Park.

VICTORIOUS BLOOD MONEY.

The Free Shipping Bureau Closed After a Month of Life.

The Free Shipping Bureau for Seamen, which was opened a little more than a month ago at the southeast corner of Coenties slip and Front street under promising conditions, has collapsed, and the large room was yesterday vacated. The bureau was started on July 23, under the conduct of the Seamen's Boarding House Keepers' Benevolent Association. The front of the building was placarded with posters headed "Seamen Arouse!" "Down with Blood Money!" &c.

The unlawful exaction of blood money has so grown that to-day it compels the payment by seamen of 25 per cent. of their advance wages to so-called shipping agents or middlemen for obtaining employment. Owing to this abuse the wages and advances of seamen have been higher in New York than in any of the other Atlantic ports. As 30,000 seamen is the average annually shipped at this port on foreign vessels alone, fully $2,500,000 is unlawfully exacted. It was declared to be the object of the Free Bureau to end this system. All facilities were offered to Captains and owners of vessels for selecting their crews free of charge to either vessel or seamen. Circulars were sent to owners, and Captains calling attention to this fact. The seamen as well as the public were aroused by mass meetings to take action against the blood-money exactions, and circulars were distributed offering $50 reward for the conviction of any shipping agent or others charging blood money for chances in any ship leaving the port of New York. It is the expressed intention to have all such put into prison. But the good intentions of the Free Shipping Bureau for Seamen are now a dead letter, and "To Rent" was posted on the front of the building yesterday.

J. J. Ferris, one of the associate members of the bureau, when asked yesterday as to the cause of the failure of the enterprise, said: "It was no use in continuing it. We had shipped from 300 to 500 men while the bureau was running, and not one penny of blood money was paid directly or indirectly to the bureau. The trouble is, so many Captains have enjoyed so long sharing blood money with the shipping agent that we could not get them to support an innovation that would not only put a stop to these illegal exactions, even though it would also secure them better crews, and put the man on board when sober. Commissioner Duncan says he has tried and tried to break up the system of blood money, but has found it impossible to ship crews without its exaction, and this has been our experience. The bureau has closed, and there is no more of it."

THE CANOEISTS RETURNING HOME.

Winners of First Prices at the Stony Lake Meeting—Election of Officers.

STONY LAKE, Ont., Aug. 25.—The two weeks' camp of the American Canoe Association at this point was broken up to-day, and the members have started for their homes. Three days of this week were devoted to a regatta, in which many of the races were hotly contested by Americans and Canadians, between whom there is much rivalry on the subject of models, rigs, and paddles. In these contests the Americans proved themselves the better sailors, and the Canadians the better paddlers, for at except one of the first sailing prizes were won by the former, and all except one of the first prizes for paddling by the latter. The winners of first sailing prizes are R. W. Gibson, canoe Snake, Mohican Club of Albany; H. L. Willoughby, canoe Windward of Saratoga; C. K. Munroe, canoe Ripple, New York city; Fred. Nickerson, canoe Giroffa, Springfield Club; Hugh Nelson, canoe Boreas, Toronto Club; Dr. Chas. Neide, canoe Aurora, Lake George Club, and West, canoe Hawkeye, Lake George Club. Wm. Whitlock, canoe Dot, New York Club, won the first prize in an upset race. First paddling prizes were won by Johnston of the Toronto Club, West of the Lake George, and Blade, Strickland, Fitzgerald, Adams, and Weiter of the Peterboro Club, which last is the home club of this region.

At the convention of the association the officers elected for the ensuing year are: Commodore, F. A. Nickerson of the Springfield (Mass.) Canoe Club; Vice-Commodore, C. K. Munroe of the New York Canoe Club; Rear Commodore, Col. Rogers of the Peterboro (Ont.) Club; Secretary and Treasurer, Dr. Charles Neide of the Lake George Club; and Executive Committee, Messrs. Wilkin, Knickerbocker Club of New York; Wackerhagen, Mohican Club of Albany; and Nelson of the Toronto Club. Next year's meeting of the association will probably be either among the Thousand Islands or at Lake Memphremagog, but a choice of locality has not yet been made.

SATURDAY, Aug. 25.

The stock market opened weak, and the coal shares declined rapidly, followed by Denver and Rio Grande, and Louisville and Nashville. Memphis and Charleston fluctuated between 42½ and 47, but finally lost most of yesterday's advance. The Northern Pacific gave way on the later dealings, and there was apparently no strength to the market anywhere; but New York Central was among the least depressed. Attempts at reaction had but little influence, and the latest were among the lowest figures, except that Michigan Central recovered 1 and Denver and Rio Grande ⅛. The final close was quiet.
