REGULAR DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY ELECTIONS.

CALL AND RESOLUTIONS OF THE DEMOCRATIC STATE COMMITTEE.

"The Democratic electors of the State of New York and all who will unite with them in rebuking the gross fraud and unparalleled corruption by which the Republican party has retained its hold on power in the last two Presidential contests, and all who believe that the Democratic State Administration of Gov. Cleveland justifies the expression of confidence which attended his election, are requested to send three delegates from each Assembly district to the Democratic State Convention to be held at Buffalo on the 27th day of September, at 1 P. M., to nominate candidates for the offices to be filled at the next election, and to transact such other business as may come before the Convention."

Resolved, That in pursuance of the resolution adopted by the last State Convention, providing that primaries for the election of delegates to the State Convention in the county of New York be held under the auspices and direction of the State Committee, until such time as the various factions in that county shall agree as to a mode of selecting their delegates and for the purpose of having a common place for the election of delegates in the county of New York and the other counties of the State, the following plan shall be observed in the county of New York for the ensuing Convention:

I. The delegates to Assembly District Convention to elect delegates to the State Convention shall be elected at election district primary meetings.

II. The call for said primaries shall be issued by the respective Chairmen of Assembly district committees of the organization recognized by the last State Convention as the regular Democratic organization of the city and county, who shall call, shall designate the time and place in each election district at which said primaries be held, the number of delegates to be elected in each election district, and the times and place at which the Convention for which the delegates are chosen shall meet, and it shall be published in The Sun, World, Star, and Daily News, not less than four days prior to holding such primaries.

III. Every Democratic elector who resides in an election district at the time the primary is held shall be entitled to vote thereat.

IV. The Chairman of the regular election district association shall call the primary to order in each election district, and preside until a Chairman is chosen by the meeting.

V. Before the polls shall be opened two tellers shall be chosen from persons present entitled to vote at the primary; each such person being entitled to vote for one teller only, and the two persons receiving the greatest number of votes to be thereby elected. The Chairman of the meeting and the two tellers so chosen shall be inspectors of election, and shall be sworn according to law.

VI. The election will be held by ballot and take place in open meeting.

VII. The polls shall be kept open for one half hour and until every person then present and entitled thereto has had an opportunity to vote.

VIII. The inspectors, before the adjournment of the meeting, shall canvass the votes and announce and certify the result of the election.

IX. The persons holding certificates of election duly authenticated shall constitute the Assembly District Convention.
