Political.

TO THE DEMOCRACY OF THE CITY AND COUNTY OF NEW YORK. Fellow Democrats: The undersigned members of your political faith invite you to meet with them in mass meeting at the Cooper Institute at 8 o'clock on the evening of Monday, Sept. 24, 1883, there to give expression to what we believe to be the prevailing sentiment of the Democracy in favor of entire and complete harmony in its counsels. We must unite in order to be victorious, and to restore good government to our city and country. Our enemies came into power through Democratic dissensions; they have been continued in power largely through Democratic mistakes. There could be no more serious mistake in the present crisis of our country than the perpetuation of old feuds on the part of the people. Let us voice and give effect to the sentiments of the Democratic masses in favor of union and the leaders must obey. Duty to the country at this time admits of no alternative. Personal ambitions or factional dissensions in this city now are in disregard of, if not treasonable to, the interests of the country, and must be subordinated by all true Democrats to the great duty of rescuing the Government from sectional, partisan control, and restoring it to the purpose of its founders for maintaining and securing self-government by the people of the States in obedience to the Constitution, with the dignity, equality, and rights of the States unimpaired. Come one, come all, and show New York an old-fashioned Democratic rally. Yours, UNION. Orlando B. Potter, Samuel D. Babcock, David Dudley Field, Wm. Dorsheimer, Stephen A. Walker, Everett P. Wheeler, John J. Agnew, John M. Carnochan, John R. Voorhis, Thomas C. E. Ecclesine, S. L. M. Barlow, Willis Blackmore, Erastus Brooks, Moses Mehrbach, Aaron J. Vanderpoel, Thomas J. Creamer, James G.
