Men Return to Work in Copper Mines

Washington, Oct. 23.—President Wilson's special labor investigating commission reported today a settlement of the strike of more than 5,000 copper miners in the Globe-Miami district of Arizona on a basis which promises to set a precedent for composing disputes elsewhere.

By providing for resumption of work immediately the commission paves the way for arbitrating other Arizona copper mine strikes which have caused loss of many million pounds of war metal in the last four months and resulted in deportations of strikers and other disorders.

The commission is expected to press for settlement of many other industrial controversies during its Western tour, of which the Arizona agreement is the first fruit.

Acting on the principle that the prime necessity was to resume active production for war purposes, the commission induced managers of the Old Dominion, Miami, Inspiration and International smelter mines and union leaders to agree to formation of grievance committees of workers for each mine. Since union organizations are to be represented on these committees the agreement was interpreted here as virtually amounting to union recognition by the employers, one of the principal issues involved in the strike.

Another important principle put into effect is the cooperation of employers in distributing the insufficient labor supply to the mines most needing men.

"Employment is to be secured through a central employment bureau for the district," said Secretary Wilson's report to the president. "This provision is made because the labor shortage of the district as well as the growing labor shortage throughout the country requires the full utilization of all available power and the regulated employment of the men on strike."

Labor officials here said this arrangement was in line with the government's tentative plan to induce employers to form associations to deal collectively with labor questions.

Minor local wage questions for each mine will be settled independently under a sliding wage scale.

The commission plans to visit the copper district of Arizona next.

MONARCH

Mr. March Scott is taking in the Columbia Fair this week.

Former Baptist pastor, Rev. D. W. Garvin, was visiting old friends here yesterday.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Knox was buried at Bethlehem yesterday. Rev. J. H. Brown conducted the funeral services.

Monarch's greedy furnaces consume coal at the rate of about 25½ tons a day. This develops about 3300 horse power. That is some pull.

Mr. Oliver Austin, who has had a long struggle with typhoid fever, is now able to be up. Much praise is due to his sister, Katie, for faithful nursing. She was constantly at his bedside.

Messrs. G. P. Godshall, R. A. Godshall and R. J. Fowler motored to Columbia today for the fair.

The preaching of Rev. Mr. Bozeman in the Baptist meeting is attracting much attention. Most favorable comments are heard on all sides. Have you been to hear him? There are additions at nearly every service.

Attention, Masons.

Prudence Lodge, No. 139, A. F. M., will hold regular communication next Saturday night, the 27th. Members take notice that annual dues will be due 31st and govern yourselves accordingly. G. W. B. Smith, Secretary.

Germans Exult Over Seventh War Loan

Washington, Oct. 23.—Exultant over the success of its seventh war loan of three and a third billion dollars the German government through its official press agencies is sending out announcements on the subject to the few remaining neutral countries.

"This proof of economic and financial strength until now unheard of in war history," the statement says, "is the best answer the German people can give to Wilson's note and to the hope expressed by its adversaries and other people of an economic breakdown of Germany."

German People Have Abandoned Hope

Washington, Oct. 23.—An Italian workman interned in Germany since the beginning of the war has escaped through the Alps to his own country with a report that the German people want peace and expect it to come in November. Official dispatches received here today tell the man's story, according to which the Germans have abandoned hope of victory at arms. Laborers are threatening to leave the factories if the war continues another winter and the civil population generally is living under terrible conditions. He said 800 soldiers attending a circus at Essen were killed at one time by bombs of allied aviators.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT!
