LOCKHART
Lockhart, Nov. 13.—The government ought to build a postoffice at Lockhart, the office is too small for the business carried on here.
Yesterday was an ideal church-going day and there were large congregations at the Baptist church; the Sunday school was large and very full of interest.
Mrs. Jo Sparks has been elected teacher of the class Mr. McCluney had.
Beautiful resolutions were adopted by the Baptist church yesterday in conference in reference to the death of Mr. McCluney.
Quite a number of soldier boys were in town yesterday visiting friends and home folk. We are always glad to see them and we take off our hat to the brave young fellows who are giving themselves to their country.
Mr. and Mrs. Luke Hollman, Sam Hughey, Frank Inman motored to Boiling Springs, N. C., yesterday.
C. T. Clary, Jo Sparks and two children motored to Gaffney yesterday for the day.
Mr. and Mrs. Sam McCulluen and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Carter visited friends in Buffalo yesterday afternoon.
Miss Marie Austin was the guest of friends in Union for the week-end.
Mrs. Jo Sparks had her mother and cousin from Gaffney visiting her this week.
Dr. Robert Hicks has a new Edison machine.
Rev. Mr. Porter, our Presbyterian pastor, filled his appointment here last night. He preached a good gospel sermon.
J. D. Smith of Carlisle was in the city today.
J. B. Tracy of Route 5 was a business visitor to Union today.
Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Royster announce the birth of a daughter, the young lady to be called Mary Abbott.
