First Regiment is Soon to Leave

The following from The Greenville Piedmont will be read with interest:

The old First South Carolina infantry, known now as the 118th, at Camp Sevier, including the Butler Guards of Greenville, the Pelzer company, Laurens company, Anderson companies and other outfits of the upper section of the state, is making preparations, with the 117th and 119th infantries, to leave Camp Sevier in the wake of the 105th engineers, the first battalion of which was under orders to be in readiness to leave today for an unannounced destination.

Equipment is being issued to these outfits such as will be needed in a different climate such as that of northern France and as there is a shortage precaution has been taken to equip these three infantries first. They are destined to be the next to leave.

Pershing Wants Carolina Men.

The enlisted men at the camp have heard that General Pershing, with the "rainbow division" in France, has notified the department that he wants North and South Carolina men next, because of their splendid showing on the border last year.

Efforts to comply with this call is taking definite shape in the activities at the camp. Lumber has been placed on the ground for the construction of boxes in which the equipment is to be shipped and work in some quarters has started on these. Companies have been ordered to turn in all surplus clothing that will not be necessary. Much of the heavy clothing, it is understood, will be shipped direct to a point to be picked up by moving regiments upon their embarkation.

The consensus of opinion among the men is that practically the entire 30th division will have left Camp Sevier within the next six weeks, although such reports lack confirmation at headquarters. It was stated there that they knew nothing whatever of the existence of such orders, but orders for movement of troops have been issued in some instances as late as eight or ten hours before the appointed time to leave. "To be in readiness" is the preceding instructions.

It was stated that carload after carload of "stuff" arrives at the camp over night. In the afternoon it is said the tracks may be clear and the next morning will find perhaps 50 cars standing to be unloaded. This has been a daily occurrence for the past week.

There's an unprecedented rush. What does it mean? The enlisted men, con-coms and some of the commissioned officers have ventured their belief and they say past experiences do not count for naught.

More Arrive From Gordon.

Such gaps as are being made by the departure of men probably will be filled by drafted men from Camp Gordon and other cantonments. It was learned from an authentic source that a contingent of draft men from camp Gordon was due to arrive at Camp Sevier today. Only a few hundred, it is stated, were ordered here at this time.

Army Y. M. C. A. Work.

Appeal From John R. Mott, General Secretary—Great Need Now in All War Scattered Countries.

"There are more American soldiers in France today than you think. They have cut into their principal to go. You will have to cut into your principal to support them."

Thus speaks John R. Mott, general secretary of the International Committee of the Young Men's Christian Association, in a statement issued today at the outset of the great campaign which the Y. M. C. A. will wage during the week of November 11 to 19 for $25,000,000 in support of war work.

"Soon there will always be 10,000 American fighting men on leave in Paris. We have been asked to build an officers' hotel for them and meeting places for the men, Dr. Mott continues. "Already there are 1,500,000 Americans in the army here and overseas. By July there will be 2,500,000."

"Follow one of these soldiers, maybe he is your own son, your neighbor's son or your former business associate. Follow him to the port of embarkation, which he leaves when his family does not know, and where we are trying to do some of our best work. Follow him across on a transport with a Y. M. C. A. secretary all the way to the debarkation point. Here the harpies are ready—not kept away by a camp zone as in this country. In English of French village his only point of contact with America is the Y. M. C. A., but where he sees American newspapers. Follow him as he will drill this winter in snow and sleet, quartered in pig sties, cowsheds or in the open. Follow him out to 'No Man's Land,' where the only thing he finds to eat is a cake of chocolate the Y. M. C. A. worker has slipped into his pocket last thing.

"And you may follow him to those long dark trenches, where, allowing a foot to a man, they bury them head to foot, head to foot, head to foot—as far as you can see—and then cover them over. Or you may follow them as they come out of that other trench, nerve shattered and weak, to be met by the Y. M. C. A. cup of coffee or chocolate. Under fire in one place we gave 25,000 cups of hot coffee to these men. Nine per cent of our secretaries are killed in this work. And perhaps you may follow him home, permanently disabled on one of these transport ships for wounded, and here the Y. M. C. A. worker is also found.

"I never believed in Russia as I do now. There are four reasons why Russia is apparently so weak; participation in the war; political revolution; social revolution; religious revolution. The United States is finding her hands more than full with only the first of these. Then we should not criticize Russia who is struggling with all four, I admit their army and navy are demoralized, and this is why: They have buried 3,000,000 of their men and boys; they have had 2,000,000 mutilated; 25,000,000 are in prison camps; they have been betrayed by their rulers; and then there is the insidious German intrigue. What the Russian army needs is something like the Y. M. C. A.—call it anything you wish. The Russian soldiers must be kept in spirit at the front. It must be done at once. If we can hold the Russian army together this winter, even if it shouldn't fight a single battle, it means one million French, English, Italian and American lives will be saved.

"France has cabled for 500 Y. M. C. A. workers. Italy has asked the Y. M. C. A. to take care of its army of 3,000,000 men. And then there are the fragment armies of Belgium, Mesopotamia and Egypt—made fragments for our sake. And the prisoners of war. Sometimes I wonder if I am awake when I realize what they have turned to my country for—what my country can give."

Furman Boys Will Wear Soldiers' Uniforms

Greenville, Nov. 12.—The students of Furman University will shortly appear on the streets of Greenville in olive-drab military uniforms, measurements for the cadets now being taken on the campus. Each student who drills with the two military companies of the institution will be required to wear the soldiers' uniform. The uniform is to be a neat one and the young men will, no doubt, present a genteel appearance when the khaki is donned.

The Furman boys are becoming efficient daily in military tactics. Drill is held regularly five times a week under Major Harry R. Wilkins. The two companies are working hard for the honors and prizes to be awarded to the one adjudged the best drilled.

Time has not dulled the enthusiasm of the Furman students and they participate willingly in the drill, which is held at 8 o'clock each morning, five days weekly. The faculty of the university has decided to give each man credit for the drill on his certificate received at the end of the year.

The ministry of munitions of Great Britain has arranged to give free instruction to women in general machine work, core making, electrical work, aeroplane woodwork, draftsmanship and optical instrument work.

Three Arizona women have received the official thanks of the United States forestry service for assistance rendered in fighting forest fires.

It is said that one of the military millionaires in Spartanburg went into a gilded cafe there the other day and ordered lobster a la Newburg. "Huh," said the cafe proprietor, "if I had that, I'd eat it myself."—Greenville News.

LOCKHART

Lockhart, Nov. 14.—Claude Inman of Lancaster is visiting homefolk this week.

When you smile the world smiles with you, but when you pout you pout alone.

Jesse Debrew has three nice hogs to kill this fall; the world owes every man a living who works.

Frank Lockman, Luke Hallman and John Mathis went rabbit hunting Saturday afternoon and bagged 12 cotton tails.

John Hoglen and W. P. Rochester, who are ministerial students in Spartan Academy spent several days the past week at their home in Buffalo, called there by business affairs.

Charlie Thornton was in Atlanta, Ga., last week. He heard Billy Sunday preach and says the sermon was just a simple gospel message. There were about 18,000 people present the night Mr. Thornton heard him. The sermon made a profound impression on the great congregation.

KELTON

Kelton, Nov. 13.—There was a sudden change in the weather today. We have been having such pretty and warm weather but now it is vice versa.

The fair was quite a success, all of the exhibits were real good; they showed that there had been a great deal of interest manifested, and also they showed that Union county is in a most prosperous condition. There were many attractions on the grounds and no one could help but enjoy them. Nice, dainty lunches were served by the "Red Cross" ladies, and also the ladies of the Grace Methodist and Episcopal churches. We must commend the fair association for its strenuous efforts in trying to make the fair a success.

Miss Mozelle Truluck spent last week-end with Miss Marie Truluck of Adamsburg.

Mr. Henry Taves and Mr. and Mrs. Giles Sanders motored to Blacksburg and Gaffney Sunday.

Mrs. Eva Garner has accepted a position as clerk with the J. J. Littlejohn & Co., of Jonesville.

The third attraction of the lyceum will be Thursday night, Nov. 15, at the Kelly school house. All be sure and come for if you don't you surely will miss a treat.

Mr. Jack Holcombe is going to give the young people a peanut picking Friday night. This will be quite a treat, for I am sure every one enjoys picking peanuts and think of the fun afterwards.

Messrs. Billy Spears and L. J. Wood have gone to accept a position with the power line.

Forrest Wood left yesterday to attend Wofford Fitting School in Spartanburg.

Prof. J. R. Langford has been on the sick list for the past few days.

Frondrea Little, who is working with the power line, spent a day or two last week with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Little.

Miss Truluck has organized a knitting club among her girls at school. Just watch these girls knit. They are very enthusiastic over the work. They have for their motto, "Encourage the soldier boys." Wild Rose.

Tribute of Respect.

Whereas, Brother Ira McCluney was a charter member of our church, and served this church so faithfully as a deacon, also was an earnest teacher of the Sunday school, Be it resolved that by the Lockhart Baptist church in conference:

1st. That we hold, in loving memory, his life, his splendid character and his earnest labor among us.

2nd. That his influence for good was felt not only in his home, in his church, but by the whole town.

3rd. That his death was beautiful, just the crossing of the river to enter the mansion that God has prepared for those who love him.

4th. That we bow in submission to God's holy will, and that we will each strive to so live that we will meet him some sweet day, bye and bye.

5th. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes and a copy be sent to the bereaved family, The Union Times and Baptist Courier.
