

TALK OF THE TOWN

Mrs. E. A. Hudson entertained Mrs. Etter Boyd and little daughter, of Dallas, on Wednesday.

Homer Lilly has bought the interest of John Creshong in the Corvallis dray company and is now wrestling freight.

A. C. White read the Sunday

School paper last Sunday for the first time in many years and the following item made a lasting impression on his mind: "The Sunday school superintendent was reviewing the lesson. "Who led the children of Israel out of Egypt?" Pointing to a little boy at the end of the class, he demanded, a little crossly, "Little boy, who led the children of Israel out of Egypt?" The little boy was ready to cry as he piped out with a quivering voice, "It wasn't me. We just moved here last week. We're from Missouri."

Appeal to the Public.

I wish to respectfully notify the citizens of Corvallis that we have succeeded in securing 12 professional musicians for The Corvallis Marine Band. These men are coming here with the intention of locating permanently. Some will purchase property; some of them are single men, while others have families; some are mechanics; others are music teachers and professional men. We have made it a point while selecting musicians to secure people who will make desirable citizens and neighbors. One professor, C. W. McLyman, is a practical painter and decorator, and in behalf of the members of the Marine Band, I will appreciate it very much if you have any painting of any kind to give Mr. McLyman a chance to do it. You can call for the above named gentleman at 14th and Jackson streets or phone to the undersigned concerning any painting that you may have to do. I am pleased to state that I have secured a number of positions from our public spirited citizens for the majority of those who are now on their way to Corvallis. In less than two years we expect to have the largest and most perfectly organized and equipped band in the Pacific Northwest.

Respectfully,
J. J. HOWSER, Manager.
