

HOOD RIVER SUN.

HOOD RIVER, OR., FEB. 8, 1900.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Next Wednesday is Valentine day. Mrs. F. C. Sherrill is reported convalescent.

Miss Emma Bonney expects to visit The Dalles this evening.

W. B. McCarty was a business visitor at The Dalles last Saturday.

Clyde T. Bonney was a business visitor at Portland on Tuesday.

Mrs. I. C. Kemp is suffering with an attack of neuralgia of the heart.

O. M. Harris made a trip to Portland Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

F. E. Simpson was one of the Hood River visitors to The Dalles on Saturday.

Clyde T. Bonney has placed a fine new pair of computing scales in his store.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. will meet with Flagg at the residence of Mrs. Jackson on Feb. 15 at 2:30 P. M.

Messrs. M. P. Isenberg, H. D. Langille and J. B. Hunt attended the State Republican League meeting at Portland on Tuesday.

The social given last Saturday night for the benefit of Mill A. Sunday School was a splendid success, both socially and financially.

E. R. Bradley and wife were Portland visitors the first of the week, Mrs. Bradley remained over and will return the last of the week.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational Church will give a social on the 22nd instant, the evening of Washington's birthday. Refreshments will be served.

DIED.—Sunday evening, Feb. 4th, at 4 o'clock P. M., Jonas Kiser, aged 81 years. Mr. Kiser was a long member of the Lutheran Church and was a consistent christian.

The Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church will meet at the home of Mrs. Mercer on Friday of this week. A full attendance is desired as there will be election of officers.

The Ladies of the Degree of Honor will give a Valentine social, Wednesday evening, Feb. 14, at A. O. U. W. hall. A splendid program will be rendered. Ice cream and cake served. Admission 15 cents. The public cordially invited; come and meet your fate.

G. E. Williams and C. A. Bell were Portland visitors on Sunday. While near Cascade Locks on their way home Sunday night someone threw a stone through the car window and the missile struck Mr. Bell on the leg. Although not seriously injured, the interruption to a quiet snooze was both startling and unexpected.

DIED.—Emma Wilkins, aged 12 years, 11 months and 14 days, died at White Salmon Falls, Feb. 6th. This death is especially sad on account of the surrounding circumstances. The mother, who is an invalid, was at the time of the daughter's death, and for the last four months had been in the Portland Good Samaritan Hospital. It is not known at this time whether or not she was able to attend the funeral.

Lincoln Memorial services will be held at the Congregational Church on Monday, February 12, 1900, at 2:30 P. M., under the auspices of the G. A. R. and W. R. C. Rev. F. R. Spaulding will address the meeting and also Rev. J. L. Hershner and Rev. E. E. Fix. A number of pieces of appropriate music will be rendered by the band. A cordial invitation is extended the public to be present at these services.

We are indebted to C. D. Hendrick for a combined thermometer and barometer which he presented us with last Saturday, and with complements of the house he represents, the Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co., of Portland. Mr. Hendrick reports good business in his line and is now circulating among the progressive farmers of Hood River valley, and incidentally booking numerous orders for machinery and vehicles.

Mr. Charles Waters, of White Salmon, and a long-time republican, was a very pleasant caller at this office last Monday morning. Mr. Waters is the father of Mrs. A. H. Jewett, and makes his home with his daughter's family. Although in his eightieth year the old gentleman is quite spry, and as with most people of his age, has a fund of knowledge to draw from that makes interesting conversation to the younger generations and we always appreciate such a visit.

Last week will be remembered up here as a week of accidents. On Tuesday morning J. Wilson got his left leg caught between two cars while train was in motion, bruising it very badly. The unfortunate fellow was taken to the hospital Saturday. About two hours later A. C. Frick received a blow across the stomach from a falling tree which laid him up for the balance of the week. On Wednesday Mr. Bryant, while standing in front of the pony saw, got struck by a shank on the left arm making an ugly cut. Mr. B. went to Portland to have wound dressed. On Thursday Harry Dodson was struck on the head by a vine maple, laying the skull bare for an inch. His wound was dressed by "Doc" Ewing.

SHORT FELLOW. Mr. Bayard, of the O'Dell district, had one of his eyes very badly injured while piling brush last week.

Miss Ella Stanifer has been quite sick during the past week. We trust she will soon be out again.

Miss Minnie Pausch is gradually improving and hopes are now entertained for her entire recovery.

The social at the home of Henry Henigan last Wednesday evening was

J. L. Anderson, a deputy consul for the Modern Woodmen of America, has been in town the past week endeavoring to secure enough new members for organizing a lodge of the Order here. He informs us that he is meeting with good success and that he expects to organize sometime the last of the present month with a membership of twenty-five or more. The order is a good one and is growing at a rate of 10,000 new members each month, and though but sixteen years old now has a membership of almost a half million.

A Pleasant Gathering.

The gathering at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold, of the Pleasanton neighborhood on Saturday evening, Feb. 3rd, will long be remembered by those present as one of unalloyed pleasure. It was in honor of Mrs. Arnold's birthday and the gathering was a surprise to her. The evening was passed with games and music, one feature of the program being a "cake walk," and the participants being roundly applauded. Mr. Lou Isenberg and Miss Less Isenberg "walked off with the cake." The jolly party broke up at 12 o'clock after enjoying a bounteous supper served by the genial host and hostess.

Those present were as follows: Misses Bernice Foley, Ida Foss, Mary Foley, Cora Fields, Ella Isenberg, Bess Isenberg, Mary Gerkin, Nancy Gerkin, Marion Sabine; Messames L. S. Isenberg and S. W. Arnold; Messrs. Frasier, Sabine, Smith, Slingerland, Kelley, L. Isenberg, Barnes, Foley, Walter Isenberg, Will Isenberg, Fields, Ellis, Ingalls, Gerkins, Hall, Blue, F. H. Isenberg, S. W. Arnold, and Masters Floy and Clyde Arnold. B.

James McMennamy took the boat for Oregon City, Saturday.

Last week will be remembered up here as a week of accidents. On Tuesday morning J. Wilson got his left leg caught between two cars while train was in motion, bruising it very badly. The unfortunate fellow was taken to the hospital Saturday. About two hours later A. C. Frick received a blow across the stomach from a falling tree which laid him up for the balance of the week. SHORT FELLOW.

Mr. Bayard, of the O'Dell district, had one of his eyes very badly injured while piling brush last week.

Miss Ella Stanifer has been quite sick during the past week. We trust she will soon be out again.

Miss Minnie Pausch is gradually improving and hopes are now entertained for her entire recovery.

The social at the home of Henry Henigan last Wednesday evening was largely attended, and a most enjoyable evening spent by those present.

The heavy wind storm of Monday night was the most severe for many years. The uprooting of some of the very oldest residents is the only damage reported.

The foothills are now covered with a slight fall of congealed element, which leads one to the conclusion of the old-timer, who said he knew no more than an "Injun" about the weather, and then remarked that an Indian does not know anything at all about it.

The indications are favorable for a lively movement in this favored portion of the valley, as several parties are now thinking of buying homes here in the near future. Let them come; there is not a more favorable locality in Oregon. While farm houses are pretty numerous there is plenty of room for more, and land will never command less money than it does today.

Special School Taxes.

Twenty-two of the 65 school districts in the county have levied special taxes for the maintenance of schools and to pay for the new buildings. They are as follows:

Table with 2 columns: No. District, Mills. Rows include 4. Barrett, Hood River valley, 20; 54. Viento, 3; 5. East Hood River, 2 1/2; 50. Antelope, 15; 40. Tygh Valley, 2; 21. Boyd, 5; 13. Five Mile, 4 1/2; 52. Mosier, 4; 12. The Dalles, 7 1/2; 9. Three miles west of The Dalles, 2; 6. Mt. Hood, 12; 11. Mill Creek, 3; 2. Frankton, 6; 8. Mosier, 6; 7. East Hood River, 8; 33. Haynes, 8; 29. Dufur, 10; 15. Ten-Mile, 2 1/2; 43. South Hood River, 15; 14. Three-Mile, 3; 61. West Hood River, 2; 3. Hood River, 15; 62. Sixty-two districts have been reported to the school superintendent that three or more months school was taught during the past year.

High Water Advertising Mark.

The New York Herald of April 17 printed an editorial that the previous day (Sunday, April 16) its paid advertising reached the highest point in that journal's history. The Chicago Tribune, on that same day, last Sunday, April 16, printed not only more advertising than the New York Herald, but what is believed to be the greatest amount ever printed in a single issue of any regular main edition of a newspaper. Leaving out of account the two-weekly columns of regular advertising printed by the New York Herald on that day in the special section devoted to the interests of Brooklyn and New Jersey and appearing only in those sections, the New York Herald on that day still fell short of the Tribune in the amount of paid advertising. The actual amount of paid advertising in the New York Herald of April 16 printed in its main edition, exclusive of its Brooklyn and New Jersey supplements, including those supplements, it claims $8,450. The Chicago Tribune, it printed that day $8,450 in paid advertising. The comparison shows that the New York Herald on that day still fell short of the Tribune in the amount of paid advertising. Tribute to the South.

[From the New Orleans Times-Democrat.] Apropos of all this, and other, news from Paris we take this opportunity to express our admiration of the extremely able and interesting news service from Paris and from London which "The Chronicle" has been running daily in its columns for several months past. Several of the New York dailies have excellent cable letters from London and sometimes other European capitals in their Sunday issues, but they appear as a rule only once a week, the brief dispatches which they get on the other days of the week not amounting to much in the way of an intelligible and accurate presentation of European news.

"The Chicago Tribune's" foreign service, signed "Grace Corneau" from Paris and "H. J. Whigham" from London, taking it all the week around, is a long way ahead of the foreign news service of any of the New York papers.

One or two of the New York papers have had for years a deservedly high reputation for presenting their readers with news of interest from foreign parts, and the public will not forget its indebtedness to them on that account. But it is beyond dispute that the way of journalism is Western taking its way, and that the journalism of Chicago is beginning to be the metropolitan journalism of the present, and will certainly be, if things move as they are moving now, the metropolitan journalism of the future.

Generally, if at all, approve the politics of the Chicago Tribune, but, apart from that, we think it is, in our opinion, superior to any other New York paper in the way of presenting news service the best in the United States. It is a fact that the Tribune's news country with a fullness to which the New York papers are far inferior. The Tribune's edition last Sunday must have caused surprise to the journalists of New York. It was a journalistic effort to which tribute to some of the Gotham papers has been equal.
