EASTER FLOWERS FOR GRANT'S TOMB.

Palms and Winter Plants Make Room for those of Richer Bloom.

Fall time and spring tide the Park Commissioners remember the grave of Gen. Grant. Last fall they filled the temporary tomb with thyrsus and aucubas and euonymuses, and placed pots of trailing English ivy upon the top of the steel coffin. During the very severe cold of February and March the ivy died. Fresh ivy was placed there when the weather moderated, and the winter plants received a little attention. Yesterday they were removed to make room for the gorgeous blossoming plants with which Easter is welcomed.

A wagon filled with many kinds of azaleas, rhododendrons, arbuteions, callas, several varieties of lilies, and the beautiful Japanese leaf plant—the aralia sieebuldio, which somewhat resembles a fig, only the leaves are more delicate and have a peculiar glistening appearance—was driven before the tomb at 10 o'clock. The space between the coffin and the wall of the tomb was filled with these plants, and in the centre in a conspicuous spot was placed a magnificent hydrangea, which Mrs. Grant sent down on the previous day. She also sent a bouquet of rare tea roses, but they were completely wilted by the heat of the night. Mrs. Grant visits the tomb very frequently, and no week ever passes without flowers being placed upon the coffin. Superintendent of Planting Woolson, who personally arranged the flowers in the tomb, reverently removed the roses, and they were divided among the visitors.

When the bloom has faded from these Easter flowers it is the intention of the Park Commissioners to fill the tomb with stove plants, rare ferns, and curious and ornamental palms, such as the sago and fanleaf.

HELP SENT TO GALWAY.

$100 to Aid the Evicted Families in Father Egan's Parish.

One hundred dollars was sent to THE SUN yesterday from the headquarters of the Galway Association, 61 Union place, with this letter:

TO THE EDITOR OF THE SUN—Sir: Enclosed you will please find $100 to be transmitted to the Rev. Father P. Egan of Woodford, county Galway, Ireland, for the relief of the tenantry and evicted families in his parish, from the Galway Association of the city and county of New York. The following is the appeal sent us some few weeks ago by the undersigned representative men of that county:

"To our Exiled Friends and Kindred:

"The landlords have chosen this holy season for setting the 'law' in motion to banish us from our hearths and homes. We are this year unable from various causes to pay the rents exacted from us in more prosperous times. Our staple means of support—the potato crop—has failed. Our mountain cattle, on which we chiefly relied to meet our shop bills and pay our rents, cannot be sold at any price. * * *

"We are determined to resist by every means in our power proceedings so harsh and tyrannical, and we have pledged ourselves never to part with our homesteads until forced to do so by a power with which we can no longer cope. We therefore appeal to our friends and kindred in every country and clime.

"We have started a defence fund, and our worthy and respected P. P. heads the list with a generous donation of £20 from the Christmas collection. Our cause has the sanction and support of Michael Davitt, that truest and stanchest opponent of landlord robbery and extermination. Any sums forwarded to him, or to the zealous and respected priests of this parish, the Rev. P. Coen, P.P., and the Rev. P. Egan, C.C., will be thankfully received and gratefully acknowledged. Our venerated Bishop, the Most Rev. Dr. Duggan, whose sympathy for the oppressed is so well known, also will receive and forward to our committee any donations sent to him.

"Signed on behalf of the parishioners of Woodford (Upper Ballinakill), in public meeting assembled, Sunday, March 3, 1886.

"JOHN ROCHE, P. L. G., Chairman.
"TIMOTHY CLARKE, P. L. G., Vice Chairman.
"PATRICK O'FARRELL, STANISLAUS BOURKE,
"JOHN REILLY, MICHAEL TUOHY,
"Secretaries."

Mr. Davitt has written a strong letter denouncing this new phase of landlord tyranny, and assuring the people of his sympathy and support.

The following are the members of the Galway Association of New York who planked the money down at last Sunday's meeting for the above purpose: P. B. Egan, $10; Michael Peter R. Tarpy (President), $10; Geo. Bingler & Co., $10; Shook & Everard, $10; Thomas Doyle (Bedleston & Woera), $5; Michael Whyte, $3; John Egan, $2.50; Michael Egan, $2.50; P. B. Burke, $2.50; Michael Maloney, $2.50; Frank S. Egan, $2.50; Patrick Behan, $2; Thomas Tarpy, $2; Francis Conroy, $2; Charles F. Blackton, $2; Daniel Burke, $2; D. B. Britton, $2; Charles Shaefle, $1; Mat Jennings, $1; John Maher, $1; Matthew G. Lyons, $1; Martin Malien, $1; J. B. Delaney, $1; Frank Hynes, $1; James Coen, $1; balance from Galway Association fund, $23.

Our thanks are tendered to these people for the firm and determined stand they have taken, and to endorse your actions and policy. In conclusion, allow us, in behalf of the organization, to sincerely thank THE SUN for its unswerving zeal, vigorous appeals, and faithful, ardent, patriotic work done in behalf of the Irish race on the American continent. Respectfully yours,

PETER R. TARPY,
P. B. EGAN,
M. WHYTE,
FRANCIS CONROY,
THOMAS TARPY.

The New York Dog Show.

Entries for the coming show, which closed on the 19th inst., foot up to 1,012. The classes best filled are English setters with 102, collies 100, pointers 97, St. Bernards 86, fox terriers 80, and spaniels with 78 entries. There are 67 Irish setters and 38 black-and-tan setters, 41 mastiffs, 24 greyhounds, and 15 deerhounds. Bulldogs show an increase over the number of last year, while pugs, King Charles, and Blenheim spaniels are rapidly increasing in popularity.

There will be a display of fox hounds from the Montreal, Meadow Brook, and Essex County Hunt Clubs, and a good exhibit of collies from the Hempstead Farm Company's and Messrs. Shotwell's and Lindsay's kennels. The famous field trial winning English setters Rodcrigo and Lilian are coming from Memphis, Tenn., to compete with the Eastern cracks, and it is said that every prominent kennel in the States and Canada will be represented.

MR. EDWARD HARRIGAN.
THE LEATHER PATCH.—The lines are bright and crisp.—New York Herald.
THE LEATHER PATCH is delightful. It is a breezy local comedy.—New York Sun.
THE LEATHER PATCH.—Harrigan and Braham deserve well of New Yorkers, for they have certainly bestowed upon their fellow citizens during this and many previous seasons hours of happiness and innocent mirth, which have helped to drive dull care far, far away.—Evening Telegram.
THE LEATHER PATCH.—Rollicking; chock full of fun.—New York World.
THE LEATHER PATCH is intensely local and very funny.—New York Times.
THE LEATHER PATCH.—It teems with wit and humor.—New York Daily News.
THE LEATHER PATCH.—It is replete with unctuous merriment from first to last.—Morning Journal.
THE LEATHER PATCH.—Nature to strike home to the audience, which roared at it for more than three hours.—New York Tribune.
THE LEATHER PATCH.—From the rise to the fall of the curtain the fun was intense and incessant.—The Daily Graphic.
THE LEATHER PATCH.—Another Harrigan success entered upon a long run.—The Star.
THE LEATHER PATCH.—Devoted to rollicking fun and realistic pictures of life and character.—The Evening Post.
