ANOTHER DWYER WONDER.

HANOVER, SON OF HINDOO, CAPTURES THE HOPEFUL STAKES.

McLaughlin Rides Four Winners for the Brooklyn Stable—Miss Woodford Lands the Ocean Stakes—Millie Grasps the Welter Cup—Brambleton Beats a Dozen.

The attendance was large and the racing excellent at the opening of the summer meeting in famous old Monmouth Park yesterday. No mutual or auction pools were sold, but everybody that had money to invest found sixty commissioners ready to take their cash and pay holders of tickets on the winning horses at the quotations given in the details of the races.

The Dwyers carried off the honors and important stakes of the day. Their unbeaten colt Tremont was weighted with 127 pounds in the race for the Hopeful Stakes, but rather than put the son of Virgil to so severe a test, they gave their chestnut colt Hanover, son of Hindoo, a chance to begin a glorious career that they believed would rank with that of Tremont's. Hanover was in at 115 pounds, the same as five other fashionably bred juveniles. The six made an exciting and fast race, Hanover lying back until the run came up the homestretch, where he caught the leader, Mr. Withers's fleet-footed King Alfonso—Julietta colt, beating him in the fast time of 1:15¼. Hanover is a good-sized racing-built light chestnut, with white face and three white stockings. With this colt, Tremont, and the filly Agnes, daughter of Onondaga, it looks as though the Dwyers had all the two-year-old stakes, including those for fillies, at their mercy. They made a sweep yesterday of four out of the five races in which their horses ran.

Out of thirty-five horses nominated for the Ocean Stakes only three started, Miss Woodford, Pontiac, and the Locust Stable's (Mrs. George Lorillard's) Electric, the three-year-old son of Sensation and Idalia. The black English horse was sent out to beat Electric, but Electric passed him before the race was half over. Then Miss Woodford went for Electric, collaring him on the homestretch, and beating him home with ease.

McLaughlin introduced Millie, the three-year-old daughter of Billet and Distraction, with 120 pounds on her back, to the little squad that started in the mile race for the Welter Cup. Millie won with daylight to spare in 1:45¾.

Next Brambleton appeared in a field of twelve selling platers, carrying the top load in a scramble of three-quarters of a mile, and winning out in the light in the flying time of 1:15. After this came the hunt over the timber and walls and water, leaving nothing more for McLaughlin to do for the Brooklyn stable.

Following are the races in the order in which they were run:

THE OPENING DASH.

Purse of $750 for three-year-olds and upward; entrance, $25; penalties and allowances; one mile.
Jenkins Stable's b. m. Florence E., 4, by Reform—Emma Fuller, 98 (Gerhardt) 1
Binon & Co.'s ch. h. Little Minch, 6, by Glenelg—Goldstone, 105 (Higgins) 2
Locust Stable's b. h. Thackeray, 5, by Great Tom—Marina, 105 (Hughes) 3
Rocktone, Sussex, and Houstonic also ran.
Time, 1:42¾.
Betting—Against Little Minch, 7 to 5; Rocktone, 3 to 1; Florence E. and Houstonic, 6 to 1 each; Thackeray, 12 to 1; Sussex, 15 to 1.

The six started in compact shape, Little Minch setting the pace for a fast race before reaching the turn. Drawing out from the bunch, he opened a gap of three lengths along the backstretch, Florence E. heading this group in not pursuit. Gerhardy gradually closed up the gap on Florence E., and at the head of the homestretch was at his flanks. In the last furlong Florence E. gained the lead. Finishing like a race horse, she won by two lengths, in the fast time of 1:42¾. Little Minch was second and Thackeray third.

THE HOPEFUL STAKES.

For two-year-olds, at $100 each, half forfeit, with $1,500 added, of which $500 to the second horse; winning penalties; 106 nominations. Three-quarters of a mile.
Dwyer Bros.' ch. c. Hanover, by Hindoo—Bourbon Belle, 115 (McLaughlin) 1
D. D. Withers's King Ernest—Julietta colt, 115 (Barbee) 2
W. L. Scott's ch. c. Rol d'Or, by Rayon d'Or—Blue Cap, 115 (Blackburn) 3
Reversion and Raymond also ran. Onneco fell at the post.
Time, 1:15¼.
Betting—Two to 1 on Hanover; against the Julietta colt, 6 to 1; Rol d'Or and Onneco, 8 to 1 each; Raymond and Reversion, 12 to 1 each.

All started in the snuggest of clusters except Oneco, he stumbled and fell, throwing Harward, and injuring his shoulder. Raymond, Rol d'Or and Hanover headed the bunch in the run along the backstretch and round the lower turn until they neared the head of the homestretch, where Hanover was in fourth place and the Julietta colt third. Barbee pushed through close to the rails on the inside, while McLaughlin sent the favorite, Hanover, on the outside of the bunch. The Julietta colt led up the straight to the last furlong, with Hanover crowding him. A driving finish tried the quality of the two colts, the Hindoo colt the second by a strain gamely, McLaughlin landing him winner, nearly a length in front of the Julietta colt, in the fast time of 1:15¼.

THE OCEAN STAKES.

For all ages, at $100 each, half forfeit, with $1,500 added, of which $300 to the second; thirty-five nominations. One mile and an eighth.
Dwyer Bros' br. m. Miss Woodford, 6, by Billet—Fancy Jane, 115 (McLaughlin) 1
Dwyer Bros.' blk. m. Pontiac, by Tero Gonarez—Azucena, 120 (Grimes) 2
Locust Stable's br. g. Electric, by Sensation—Idalia, 102 (Hughes) 3
Time, 1:57.
Betting—Eight to 10 for Miss Woodford, 4 to 1 against Pontiac, and 15 to 1 against Electric.

Pontiac was sent out to make the pace from an even send-off. At the second, a furlong from the start, he led Electric half a length under a pull, Miss Woodford galloping easily a length in the rear. Pontiac passed the quarter pole with his neck clear of Electric, Miss Woodford an open length behind. On the run along the backstretch to the half mile pole Electric headed Pontiac, seeing which, Miss Woodford let out a link, closing on the leaders in the lower turn. Electric's head was in front when the three struck their gait along the homestretch. Miss Woodford outfooted the two handily in the final furlong, winning by two lengths. Pontiac came second, two lengths ahead of Electric.

THE LONG BRANCH HANDICAP.

A sweepstakes for all ages at $50 each, half forfeit, with $1,250 added; the second to receive $300 out of the stakes; seventy-two nominations. One mile and a quarter.
Preakness Stable's b. g. Rupert, 4, by Falsetto—Marguerite, 98 (F. Littrell) 1
W. L. Scott's ch. c. Charity, 3, by Sensation—Emma, 98 (Williams) 2
Dwyer Bros.' b. c. Tom Martin, 4, by Longfellow—Alabama, 122 (W. Vaughan) 3
War Eagle, Tom Booker, Clay Pate, Heel and Toe, Favor, and Louisette also ran.
Time, 2:11¾.
Betting—Against Tom Martin, 3 to 1; Favor, Rupert, and Heel and Toe, 8 to 1 each; War Eagle, 7 to 1; Heel and Toe, 8 to 1; Louisette and Charity, 10 to 1 each; Clay Pate, 15 to 1.

Rupert, Heel and Toe, Charity, War Eagle, and Tom Martin were well abreast coming up toward the start from the starting post. Rupert and Heel and Toe ran neck and neck at the front, the others crowding in a good race, round the upper turn, along the backstretch, round the lower turn, and well into the homestretch, Rupert drawing ahead at the finish, and winning a length ahead of Charity, with Tom Martin a close third, in the fast time of 2:11¾.

THE WELTER CUP.

A free welter handicap sweepstakes of $25 each, with $500 added; the second to receive $100 out of the stakes; eighteen entries; one mile.
Dwyer Bros.'b. f. Millie, 3, by Billet—Distraction, 120 (McLaughlin) 1
N. W. Kittson's b. f. Elizabeth, 4, by Strachino—Kissing, 132 (Fitzpatrick) 2
G. H. Inches' br. c. Binnacle, 3, by Algerine—Nannie H., 122 (Simmons) 3
Rock and Rye, Attorney, and Banner Bearer also ran.
Time, 1:45¾.
Betting—Against Millie, 3 to 1; Elizabeth, 4 to 1; Rock and Rye and Attorney, 6 to 1 each; Banner Bearer, 7 to 1; Binnacle, 10 to 1.

Elizabeth dashed out with a lead of two lengths when the flag fell. Baylock set said on Rock and Rye for the leader, collaring her on the upper turn and leading her along the backstretch, where it came together in a beautiful race, McLaughlin taking back in fourth place on Millie, the favorite. Rock and Rye swerved badly at the head of the homestretch and lost his chance in the race. Elizabeth came again, collared by Millie, McLaughlin sending Millie ahead of the others in the final furlong, winning the race handily by a length and a half. Elizabeth second and Binnacle a close third.

THE SELLING RACE.

Purse $500, for three-year-olds and upward; selling allowances. Three-quarters of a mile.
Dwyer Bros.'c. c. Brambleton, 3, by Bramble—Valerian, 108 (McLaughlin) 1
Bishop & Co.'s ch. g. Aladdin, 4, by Mortemer—Alice Ward, 4, 103 (Hughes) 2
G. W. Foster's b. g. McGowing, aged, by Tom Bowling—Lorena, 97 (Godfrey) 3
Revelier, Edgefield, Belle Pare, Hohenimile, Cakera, Witch, Letretia, and Adolphi also ran.
Time, 1:15.
Betting—Against Crickland Brambleton, 4 to 1 each; Edgefield, Cakera, Revelier, and Adolphi, 8 to 1 each; McGowing, Hohenimile, and Letretia, 8 to 1 each; Witch, 12 to 1.

Ad burst away in close order, Caldwell being the first to set the pace with the gray mare Cricket. McLaughlin followed Cricket on the bay colt Brambleton, which carried the top weight. Cricket kept up her leading pace along the backstretch, round the far turn, and into the homestretch. Where Brambleton proved too much for the selling platers. Cutting loose near the finish, he won two lengths in front of Aladdin, McGowing a poor third, in the fast time of 1:15. No bids for the winner. He was entered at $3,000.

THE STEEPLECHASE.

A handicap steeplechase over the short course; $300 to first and $100 to second.
F. Gerhardt's ch. m. Pelasga, aged, by Lever—Florence Wallace, 148 (Little) 1
Loughran & Newmans' ch. g. Abraham, aged, by McCann—Electra, 148 (Doyle) 2
N. L. Dutcher's b. g. Tom Brown, aged, by Gleneig—Fanny Brown, 153 (W. Lynch) 3
Rotorfance, Pat Dean, Joe Shelby, Cal Watson, and Stonington also ran. Capt. York, Damgerfield, and Puritan fell.
Time, 3:15.

Puritan started in the lead of a breakneck chase, Captain York being the first to go down in the upper field, stunning Jockey W. Meany so that he laid insensible for a long time. Damgerfield fell in the lower field, Green, his rider, receiving a severe slanting up. In the turn for the track Puritan spilled Jockey Kelly, injuring him badly. Stonington bolted and was of no account in the hunt. Palanca took a strong lead before reaching the water and was never headed afterward, coming in winner by three open lengths, Abraham second, lapped by Tom Brown.

Seven races are on the programme for Monday, including the Independence Stakes for two-year-olds, the Fourth of July Handicap, the rich Lorillard Stakes for three-year-olds, and a steeplechase over the full course.

BOWDOIN BEATS PENNSYLVANIA.

Her Crew Leads All the Way—Harvard's Captain Next Year.

LAKE GEORGE, July 3.—The Bowdoin College defeated the University of Pennsylvania in the one mile and a half rowing match over the lake here this morning.

The race was won by a length and a half in 8 minutes 6 seconds. Bowdoin took the lead at the start and was never headed. The water was smooth and in excellent condition. A light breeze prevailed.

NEW LONDON, July 3.—It is said that instead of going to bed at 10 o'clock, according to their training rules, some of the Harvard crew frequently sat up until 2 o'clock in the morning playing cards, and also, that claret punch was not an unknown drink to some of them, and that a much larger quantity of Hass's ale than was good for them was drunk by the crew.

Bob Cook said last night: "You may depend upon this, that Yale will beat Harvard next year if I have the handling of the crew. The fact is proved that the Yale crew has the better stroke. I have shown them the stroke is a better one than that taught by a professional oarsman. We can row two less strokes to the minute throughout the race and get more speed. Harvard did better than in the race with Columbia, and its sport while on the flats above the navy yard was as pretty a piece of work as I ever saw done in a boat, but Harvard was working against principle, not against muscle, for it had as much muscle as Yale."

Before coming down the river yesterday the Harvard crew held a meeting to elect a Captain for the coming year. Mansford declined to serve longer, as he will graduate next summer. H. W. Keyes, who sat the starboard stroke this year, was elected to succeed him. Penrose, Conroy, and Yocum will not row against Yale again. The oarsmen left for Boston at 3 o'clock this morning. At the station they said they had tried hard to win and had been squarely defeated.

Bowdoin's four won in 8 minutes and 16 seconds. There was no comparison between the rowing of the two crews. The Pennsylvania crew have been very fine trained, and row in beautiful form. They move as one man, and no more beautiful picture could be found of a four-oared crew than the boys in blue and red made as they pulled for all they were worth. Had Mr. Gummey, their stroke, not been disabled yesterday time might have been different, but they could not get up enough muscle for a spurt. Bowdoin's crew splash a good deal at times, recover irregularly, and do not catch the water together.

RARE SPORT AT CEDARHURST.

A Treat for Lovers of Steeplechasing, Feasting, Fireworks, and Music.

A really enjoyable day's sport has been arranged for Monday at Cedarhurst, the opening day of the July steeplechase meeting. The fun will begin at 11 A. M. with athletic games, including polo. The races will commence at 2 P. M., with seven events on the programme, including the Great Fourth of July Stakes, an open handicap steeplechase of about three and a half miles; the Mortemer Cup, a steeplechase for hunters or hacks, about three miles; the Morgan Cup, a steeplechase for half-bred hunters or hacks, about two and a half miles; an open handicap hurdle race of about one and a half miles; a handicap sweepstakes for hunters or hacks, about three-quarters of a mile on the flat; an open handicap sweepstakes, about six furlongs on the flat, and a quarter-mile for polo ponies for a cup presented by Mr. Thomas Hitchcock, Jr.

The numerous entries insure exciting sport and close finishes. In the open events, Duke of Westmoreland, Informer, Cyclone, Zanglaw, Emulation, Fawnee, Rochester, Fairuse, Woodcraft, Bravura, Soprano, and many other fast strikers and nice pers are named to start.

The course at Cedarhurst is a charming spot at this time of the year. From the club house and stands the horses are in plain view from the start, in the direction of Long Island, over the salt lagoon, along the west to the stone wall, over the earth bank just beyond the judges' stand, the in-and-out at the turn for the drop, and the run past the windmill; while nothing in cross-country pictures can be finer than the out lines of the horses and riders when skirting the ridge along the back stretch, and the rise after taking the dip at the upper turn before straightening out for the final brush on the home run.

There is certain to be a great turnout of residents of the neighborhood. All the country house owners thereabouts will meet on the porch of the club house to partake of a Brunswick table d'hote. A grand military band and choice wines will add inspiration to the exhilarating sport. The festivities will end in the evening with a magnificent display of fireworks furnished by the Rockaway Hunting Club for the farmers and property owners of Queens county.

Grand stand tickets will be good for morning, afternoon, and evening, while the field will be free to all. As the Long Island Railroad Company has reduced the fare, the club expects to greet an immense throng of lovers of healthy outdoor pastimes.

Tourists on Wheels.

Fifty bicyclists started for Europe yesterday on the liners steamship City of Berlin. After arriving in Queenstown, they will mount their steel steeds and make a tour of Ireland. Thence they will go to Scotland, and see all there is to be seen there. From Edinburgh both they will ride to London. Paris probably will be their next place. They will start for home on July 31 on the steamship City of Chicago. The cost of the trip will be about $500 for each man. Mr. P. Harvard Sally has charge of the party.

AMUSEMENT NEWS.

Fourth of July matinees will be given at most of the theatres that are still open.

Daniel Sully continues to depict the joys and sorrows of "Daddy Nolan" at Tony Pastor's.

The Pat Rooney variety company perform to-morrow at the Grand Opera House, which will thereafter be closed for the summer.

That irrepressible managerial speculator, J. H. Haverly, has lately varied his amusement venture by opening an office in Denver, Col., for selling puts and calls on stocks, grain, and oil. Haverly is happiest when gambling.

The Monitor-Merrimac fight continues to rage without interference at the Madison avenue Museum, and would seem to provide a peculiarly seasonable place of amusement for patriotically disposed persons to-day and to-morrow.

The music gardens have come into sudden popularity with the hot weather. Neuendorff's orchestra, at the Central Park, has a fresh programme for to-day. The Casino's roof garden is open after the opera. Koster & Bial's variety show has several new and many old favorites in their line.

It was a mistake in this column last Sunday, so declares Miss Minna Reilaire, to make her the wife of Tony Reiff the composer of her songs. Where can the Reiff she is not married, and has never been engaged. Mr. Reiff's wife is not an actress.

The battles of Vicksburg will be fought anew today and to-morrow at the Seventh avenue panorama building. It is calculated by the management that the exhibition will be accepted by the populace as an Independence Day celebration. A corps of authority and commendation to be grant is made for this show.

William H. Gillette, of "Private Secretary" repute, takes the Madison square on August 15 for a war drama from his own pen, called "Held for the Enemy." Only little fried the piece in Brooklyn some months ago, and it went well there. His engagement at the Madison Square will be a special one, and he will provide his own company. Manager Palmer's regular season, it is thought, will open with "Love's Martyr," Chatterton's new adaptation from the French. The Chicago trial of that play has impressed Mr. Palmer with its value as an unusual attraction for the winter season here.

Francis R. Wilson states with precision his plans as to his projected theatre management here. He says: "I remember the Casino until the expiration of my contract in 1888, and then I shall go to Europe. When I get through there I intend to have a theatre here. Sydney Rosenfeld will be interested with me." All this will come to pass provided men who have decided their willingness to give Wilson a share of the spending do not let their courage come out at their fingers' ends when the time comes to talk to the point. It will be an ambitious undertaking, but Wilson will probably see it through in good shape.

After the holiday matinees to-morrow the dullest part of the summer theatrical season will set in. The theatres with open doors will be the Union Square, Standard, Park, Grand, Third Avenue, Union Square, Mt. Morris, Harlem Comique, Fifth Avenue Comedy, and Four-fourth Street. Next week Niblo's and the People's will be added to the number, leaving four-and-twenty houses. Fewer trials of new plays have been made in the city this season than usual. Last year's experiments were mainly so disastrous to the managers that they have grown more careful and more frequently for the testing of dramatic and musical novelties.

Realism on the stage is satirized in this little story of Mary Anderson's first appearance in Philadelphia in the leading role of "Ingomar." While she was rehearsing Dahlgren, an intimate friend, was present. The performance dragged long and toward the close of the play, which is a romantic one, she noticed a touched expression on her friend's face. She said: "Dahlgren, what is the matter? My dear young lady," he said, "you are wrong in one of your effects. Don't you know that a corpse doesn't sit in the air as if it were alive?" "Why, what do you mean, Doctor," responded our Mary, slowly, and speaking in deep rich tones with a true Kentucky twang, "do you think I'm going to let a corpse keep my audience waiting for six hours when I'm dead?"

Manager Rudolph Aronson of the Casino lets his singers take more of a fourth of July vacation than will be granted the actors at other theatres. He does not give a holiday matinee. "Pinafore" continues to fill the Casino nightly, though it is now in its ninth week. It is doubtful if a change will be necessary for many weeks. A Mr. Gilbert, representing himself as the author of the after-piece for an injunction to prevent a production of "Engaged" at the new Chicago Casino. The Chicago lawyer said that he had brought the case out for America, and that he was protected by copyright, but the music and words had been on public sale, and the judge decided against the Chicago claimant, which is backed by a prominent malt-whiskey company.

Roland Reed's "Humbug" is a light and popular continued hit at the Bijou. Last week's audiences laughed it to success, and Reed may be pleased with his reception, which was hearty. He is taller by two inches more at ease as Azro Shaw, and puts more vivacity and less grotesquerie into the part. This young actress is under a three-years contract to Mr. Aronson, and he has heard her friends have a great deal of faith in her future. She was trained musically in Chicago, and is engaged to be married to Mr. Mark Murphy of the Irish comedy team of Murphy and Mulligan, of "Our Flat" and "Slats" fame, in Murphy's company the past season. A neat bit of character acting in "Humbug" is done by old Sam Wilkinson, who is a relative of the early days of Yankee dialect comedians, and has been on the stage since 1828, when he began in Baltimore, where he was born in 1828.

Two changes were made in the cast of "Zitka" at the Park theatre. Herbert Kelcey, who had spent a week in the cast with exceptional force and dignity, sailed for Europe, taking along his wife, Miss Evans. "Avenging Cupid in Zitka" was taken by Frank Evans, "fine made-up" of the piece, and Mr. Kelcey's part of Count Rudolph by Mr. Zitka's "history, for he was William Carleton's friend, and worked hard to get the piece produced." The Count is a very fine part, and Mr. Carleton's acting of Revisoff to Mrs. Gerald Eyre. The novel from which Carleton took "Zitka" is Hector Malot's "Le Chanet Rouge." The author is a Frenchman, and has never been heard from, as might have been expected. One is to Miss Jarrett, daughter of H. C. Jarrett, the old-time manager, the other is Wilson Barrett's property, and will be produced in London on his tour. "Zitka" can at least claim priority of production.

It appears that Lew Dockstader, in his promised minstrel performance at the Comedy, is backed by the administration and stockholders of Frank Solomon's Bijou Opera House manufacturer. Dockstader is an excellent new comedian and his work on the end of a gorgeous and elaborate show will be a novelty in Broadway. It looks strongly that he is ready to lift Dockstader to a very ambitious managerial altitude, the case of the house from the Bijou lasts two years to run, and the amount of capital is not calculated to make it low. Important alterations will be immediately commenced. The prophets are divided in their predictions as to the success of the venture, but most people think that increased receipts can be made to pay well if a sufficient local flavor be imparted to the entertainment, through the medium of the best political and social satire. The battle-song of Sothern, dramatic and musical successes, and the improvement of the station Yet Mr. Solomon is strongly eccentric that it may be free to say that he will take a share of not, into a valuable advertisement of his soap.

The Wild West Show of Buffalo Bill Cody is prolonged at Staten Island. Nate Salsbury of "Troubadours" fame, and Buffalo Bill himself are making only a short call of the season of Salsbury's show, one of the best-liked attractions in the profession. Not many years ago this was a struggling comedian at a modest salary. The Wild West Show is a novelty in the way of a sight to attract the Continent. All the Indians, cowboys, frontiers, and sharp shooters will be taken along. Cody's show is a good one, and has been in all sorts of weathers, since the Sioux chiefs attached to the show is being taken almost in a very pleasant way. America will be the proud home, and the time is the time of the Indian. Cody's show is a white man's show, and the Indian is the subject of the show—a white man who has civilized and was forced to quit work. Buffalo Bill's show is a novelty in the way of a sight to attract the Continent. All the Indians, cowboys, frontiers, and sharp shooters will be taken along.
