HOPES OF ANARCHISTS.

Parsons Says They are the Only Agitators who have Not Used Dynamite.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—The Journal prints a long interview with the condemned Anarchist Parsons. Respecting his departure from the city, he says: "The day after the Haymarket meeting I saw that a great many people who had not even attended it were being arrested and roughly handled; and, as I did not wish to court personal indignity, I thought I would leave the city for a while. Accordingly I took a midnight train and went to Elgin. I stayed there two days, putting up at a boarding house, without giving any name. I then concluded to go to Milwaukee, but on the way thither I went to Waukesha. No one but myself was responsible for my return and my appearance in court on the opening of the trial. I had a very comfortable time as long as I stayed away. I thought in coming back I could safely trust the sober second thought of the community and the love of fair play which I think is a characteristic of the American people."

"What have you to say concerning the trial and the verdict?"

"My first and gravest criticism on the trial is that it was a trial by newspaper. One of the morning papers acted fairly enough, but the rest of them treated us with monstrous injustice. These newspapers not only convicted us before the trial, but commented on the evidence as it was taken. The newspaper pressure extends over the whole country, and has not even been quieted by the verdict, but is now seeking to influence the action of the Supreme Court. For instance, a New York newspaper now loudly proclaims that 'These men must not be permitted to escape, and the Indianapolis Journal demands the incarceration and hanging of our counsel. The jurors were sworn not to find us guilty unless the evidence excluded every other theory except that of our guilt, and in the two pivotal points of the evidence the theory of our guilt was the least probable of all. The first of these is the relation of the Anarchists to the use of dynamite. There is a very general impression that they use dynamite for unlawful purposes. The truth is it cannot be shown that, in this country, the Anarchists have ever used it at all, while it is a matter of fact that it has been used by a dozen other classes of agitators and strikers. The striking dry goods clerks in New York city blew out a sewer with it, and the striking miners in the Hocking Valley used it; so did the strikers at Beverly, Mo. Only three months ago a Judge was blown up with it in Canada. The car strikers in St. Louis used it, and finally in Pennsylvania and Ohio during the past year the temperance people have blown up saloons with it, and the saloon keepers in turn have blown up churches with it. But the American Socialists and Anarchists have never yet hurt anybody or anything with dynamite, as far as I know."

"Have you any hope that the Supreme Court will reverse the verdict?"

"Indeed I have. I think that the list of errors which our counsel will be able to present will be such that no court can afford to ignore it. If public sentiment is again to be invoked for our destruction, there may be some demonstrations of public sentiment in our favor also the next time. But even if the Supreme Court or the State should not overturn the verdict, I still have hope that the United States Courts will do so, as the General Government is just as much bound to secure free speech and the freedom of the press as the State of Illinois is; and one of the instructions overruled by Judge Gary will open the way of appeal all the way up to the Supreme Court of the United States."

The committee of twenty-one appointed at the recent labor meeting to make preparations for a labor Convention was in session last night. The committee is using most strenuous efforts to obtain the freedom of the convicted Anarchists by means of the ballot. The Socialist Joseph Grunthut said last night that the present movement would not have been started but for the impetus given it by the revulsion of feeling created by the verdict against the Anarchists. The design is to put a labor ticket in the field and to call upon all workingmen to support it.

HANGING ON TO HIS OFFICE.

Postmaster Wilson of Savannah Denies the President's Right to Remove Him.

SAVANNAH, Sept. 1.—Capt. George W. Lamar, who has been appointed Postmaster of this city, called on Postmaster Wilson, who is now in office, yesterday, and demanded the office. Mr. Lamar said: "I have orders here to receive the papers and property belonging to the office, for which I give you these receipts. I demand the office and I shall act as Postmaster of Savannah."

"I shall stay in until put out," responded Col. Wilson. "I refuse to accept the receipts."

"I have been duly appointed Postmaster," said Capt. Lamar, "and I consider you by courtesy on y a visitor in this office."

"I do not yield my rights. You must put me out," was the reply. "You must use force stronger than I am."

Col. Wilson still holds the office. He says that he has done nothing wrong and that the President has no authority to remove him. Both men have lawyers and further developments are expected soon.

Evictions in County Galway.

Patrick B. Egan of 42 Clinton place was driven out of Ireland about four years ago and came to this country. He has been back once since then to his native place in county Galway, where he was outspoken in defence of the rights of the Irish tenants, and incurred by his course the enmity of the landlords there. Mr. Egan's family for 300 years has occupied a farm in county Galway, the present antlord of which is a man named Lewis. Mr. Egan received a cable message yesterday telling him of his father's eviction from his home. The despatch was sent by the Rev. Patrick Egan, a man of the same name, but not a relative. It was dated at Woodford, Ire and and read as follows:

"Eviction consummated 10 days just over. One thousand constables and soldiers for the Government. Four evicted on Gaurigande's property. Holdings guarded by enormous expense swamps income of the estate. Six evicted on Lewis's property. All back except your father, in whose house emergency men are at a cost to landlord of £700 a year. Not a penny paid yet. Splendid victory for the people. Wire Davitt."

Michael Davitt is now at Lincoln, Neb., and Mr. Egan forwarded the despatch to him by telegraph.

Yellow Fever in Mississippi.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 1.—Yesterday a committee of the State Board of Health left here for Biloxi to investigate the sickness there. The investigation was made to-day, and the disease was pronounced yellow fever. A number of families from New Orleans and other places spending the summer at Biloxi, have left for home. Biloxi is on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, eighty miles from New Orleans. It is a town of 5,000 residents swollen in summer time to 8,000 people by the visitors from New Orleans. It is a favorite resort for excursionists from the city, and a sort of little Monte Carlo. A number of canning factories are carried on there, to which the present sickness was at first attributed, as large quantities of shrimp were left to rot on the wharves. Sickness broke out last week in two houses near each other. The patients were treated for bilious remittent fever, and on Sunday two of them died. Ten persons have so far been attacked by the disease, of whom seven are convalescent, and one new patient is announced.

The Rock Island Train Robbers.

CHICAGO, Sept. 1.—Five tramps, Cleveland Charley, Capt. Jobs, Brick Henry, Jack Williams, and an unknown, are now believed by detectives to be the perpetrators of the Rock Island train robbery last March, when Messenger Nichols was killed and $21,000 was stolen from the express car. Cleveland Charley and Capt. Jobs are at present under sentence to the Washita, Wis., penitentiary for a burglary committed in Milwaukee, and the detectives are close on the track of the others. The first clue, it is said, was obtained from the keen of a tramps' boarding house in Chicago, to whom Cleveland Charley gave a bundle of bloody clothing to keep until called for.

Probably his Last Woman Scrape.

SCRANTON, Sept. 1.—Dr. W. S. Madden became notorious here some time ago on account of a charge of seduction, which Miss Sarah McClenahan, a handsome girl 19 years old, preferred against him. He was a married man, and he brought Miss McClenahan here from Lewisburgh, Pa., and for her confined in seclusion for several weeks. Madden was subsequently placed in jail, and after he had been indicted the Court accepted bonds, his brother being his brother. When his case was called for trial, neither he nor his bondsman appeared. It is just learned that he has been shot and probably fatally hurt in Cumberland, Md., by William Mercer, whose wife he had insulted.

The Ladies Win at the Polls.

TARRYTOWN, Sept. 1.—The ladies won the school election here only eight scattering votes being cast against their ticket. The hall was crowded with ladies voting, electioneering, and loosing on. Many ladies who wanted to vote were prevented from doing so by a lack of the qualifications. Carriages were furnished, which brought a great many out who came to vote. The trustees elect are Mrs. Harriet C. Wilkinson, wife of Prof. Wilkinson, a retired Baptist minister, and Mrs. Julia C. Grant.

Prize Fighters Arrested.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 1.—John Murphy and Billy Young, principals, and Jake Kilrain, accessory, were arrested this morning on the charge of having engaged in a prize fight on Monday night. Murphy and Young are charged with having assaulted each other, and Kilrain with having abetted both. They were each held in $1,000 bail.

Jumped From an Express Train.

BRIDGEPORT, Sept. 1.—James Glean of Brooklyn jumped from an express train at Fairfield last night and received quite a gash about the head which will probably be fatal. He was brought to this hospital here where he now lies unconscious. The train was running forty miles an hour when Glean jumped.

Another Fishing Vessel Seized.

HALIFAX, Sept. 1.—The Dominion cutter Howlett arrived at Georgetown, Prince Edward Island, today with the American schooner Highland Light of Wellfleet, seized at 8 o'clock this morning off East Point, for fishing within the limit.

CHRISTIANS MASSACRED.

The Natives of Western and Cochin China Attack the Missionaries.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 1.—Advices from Ching Too-Foo, chief city of the province of Sauchnan, say that the natives of the eastern part of that province and those of Northern Cochin China have risen against the Christians, and are massacreing them and destroying their property. This active persecution is attributed to the imprudence of the English and American missionaries. In Cochin China alone fifty Christians have been killed, their houses burned, and their farms destroyed.

In Sauchnan a general massacre of Christians is reported to be in progress, and they are killed wherever found. It is said that whole villages occupied by Christians have been destroyed, and that all lands occupied by the possessors of that faith are being devastated. The Apostolic Vicar's residence in Sauchnan has been burned to the ground. Not a piece of furniture, nor a book, nor a paper was saved. The foreign Consuls barely escaped from Sauchnan with their lives.

No efforts had been made up to the latest reports to quell the disorder, and, so far as now known, it continues unsuppressed.

PARIS, Sept. 1.—The Pope has accepted France's proposition that Monsigner Agliardi, recently appointed by the Vatican Papal Nuncio at Pekin, instead of going to China as Nuncio, proceed thither to study, conjointly with representatives of France and China, the conditions for the eventual establishment of a nunciosship in China.

ENRAGED AT THE DOCTOR.

He Mutilates a Boy's Arm Without the Father's Knowledge.

ATLANTA, Sept. 1.—Mattie Robertson, aged 9 years, is the niece of M. D. Eubank. When six months old she fell in the fire and has suffered since from a sore upon her head. A short time ago Dr. Henry Wile decided to give the girl a new scalp. By appointment, Mattie Robertson, accompanied by her cousin, Richard Eubank, 12 years old, went to Dr. Wile's office. The Doctor explained that he would have to take the needed cuticle from one of their arms, and he asked the children from whose arm it should be taken. The boy gallantly bared his arm and held it out to the Doctor, who took twenty-five small pieces from the forearm of young Eubank and placed them upon the head of his cousin. The boy and girl stood the operation bravely, and it was performed to the Doctor's satisfaction.

The boy's father was not so well satisfied. When the children reached home and told what had been done Mr. Eubank's indignation knew no bounds. He swore out a warrant charging Dr. Wile with assault and battery on his son and had him arrested. Dr. Wile gave bonds for his appearance.

The B. and O. in Castle Garden.

The Commissioners of Emigration considered yesterday the application of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad for the privilege of selling its immigrant tickets in Castle Garden, and decided to grant the request, subject to the same regulations governing the other trunk lines. The company will continue the sale of its tickets outside of Castle Garden. It charges the same tariff that the other lines do, but outside of the Garden allows agents ten per cent. None of the other roads sell immigrant tickets outside of the Garden. It is understood that if the Baltimore and Ohio secures what it considers a fair proportion of the floating traffic in the Garden it will become a member of the Clearing House, through which the other roads do their business.

The Baltimore and Ohio Company has just ordered the construction of two steel ferryboats, to be used in carrying its cars between St. George, Staten Island, and the Battery. They are required to have power sufficient to make the distance between the two points in seventeen minutes.

Thirty of Capt. Williams's Prisoners Discharged.

The nine men and the twenty-one young women who were arrested in the four disorderly houses raided by Capt. Williams on Tuesday night were discharged in Jefferson Market yesterday. The proprietresses of three of the houses were held for trial or examination. Emma Brown, who runs the fourth house, 104 West Thirty-seventh street, had fits in the station house after her arrest, was sent as a prisoner to Bellevue Hospital.

Begging on her Own Account.

Agnes McCormack, a pretty ten-year-old girl, whose mother lives at 451 West Sixteenth street, was arrested by Agent Stocking of the Children's Society on Tuesday night for begging in West Eleventh street. Agnes, who is an interesting and intelligent child, had with her a letter which she had written herself, and to which she had signed her mother's name, begging "charitable people to give Mrs McCormack, a widow with four children, a mite to help her pay her rent and support her four children." Agnes had collected nearly $1 before stocking arrested her. The child did not deny that she had written the letter, but Justice Ford allowed her to go home with her mother.

Mr. Tilden's Will.

Messrs. Andrew H. Green and John Bigelow, two of the three executors of Mr. Tilden's will, with Mr. Lewis Cass Ledyard, their attorney, and Charles E. Simmons and Mr. Edward H. Dixon, two of the witnesses to the will, were before Surrogate Coffin at White Plains yesterday to have the will admitted to probate. None of the heirs were present. Mr. Ledyard representing all of them except Mrs. Caroline B. Whittlesey of Wisconsin. Mrs. Whittlesey had written that she would waive service of the citation and be represented by counsel, but no one appeared to represent her. Mr. Ledyard finally had the matter adjourned one week.

A Stray Salvationist at the City Hall.

A tall woman, dressed in deep mourning, apparently about 60 years old, marched into the City Hall yesterday carrying a large white silk flag bound in red and dotted with blue squares. She passed up the front steps and out at the rear, waving her flag and followed by a crowd of urchins. At the explanation she gave of her strange conduct was to say:

"There is my banner; follow it and be saved."

She passed through the Court House, along Broadway, followed by a curious crowd. She was apparently a stray recruit of the salvation Army.

Dying Alone in a Field.

Alfred Gibbs of Riverside avenue, Newark, found the dead body of an unknown man in one of his fields yesterday morning. The man had evidently died several days ago, and the position of the body indicated that he died in great distress. From a misplaced truss which he wore it is supposed that the man died of strangulated hernia. He was apparently 40 years old. He was seen at the car stables in the neighborhood on Friday night, and complained of being sick, but refused to go to a hospital. He said that he had come from Paterson.

Removals by Gen. Newton.

Gen. Newton found time yesterday besides attending the meeting of the Aqueduct Commission, to remove five employees of the Public Works Department. They were George Adams, John J. O'Connell, John E. Collins, and Michael Murphy, appointed as laborers and serving as clerks, and Theodore A. Hamilton, doing duty as house inspector. The removals were made on the recommendation of the Chief Engineer and have no political significance. No appointments were made in place of the men removed.

Held for Whipping His Grown Daughter.

Miss Marion L. Cadmus, a young milliner, whose mother lost her life at the Brooklyn Theatre fire, had her father, Philip Cadmus, arrested yesterday on a charge of assault. She said he had whipped her with a cat-o-nine-tails. In answer to his daughter's complaint Justice Ford asked Justice Dasey that he thought he had a perfect right to whip her for disobedience, all as she is. He pleaded guilty to the charge and sentence was deferred.

A Legacy Seeking an Heir.

Annie Egan, who eight years ago was employed in a private family in Flushing, has by the death of an uncle fallen heir to a legacy of $16,000 in Ireland. It is not known where she is now. The Rev. Father Donnelly of St. Michael's Church, Flushing, has been asked by her father, Michael Egan of Cloughjordan, Ireland, to ascertain her whereabouts.

Jeremiah P. Robinson's Estate.

The will of Jeremiah Potter Robinson, the Brooklyn millionaire, was offered for probate in Kings county yesterday. The estate, which is estimated at $5,000,000 is distributed among the members of the family, the widow receiving one-fourth, and the other three-fourths being equally divided among four surviving children.

Scalded by Escaping Steam.

A tube blew out in the boiler of the North River sugar refinery, at 33 Coriears street, yesterday forenoon. James Roach, coal shoveller, was badly scalded on the legs, and Frank Kearns, fireman, was scalded on one leg. The escaping steam was mistaken for smoke and a fire alarm was given. The damage is about $1,000.

After Ten Years of Abstinence.

A middle-aged man in black clothing and clerical collar, who said he was "Father Edward Coleman of Iowa," was very drunk at Thirty-second street and Madison avenue yesterday morning. Coleman said at Jefferson Market that he had not drank liquor in ten years before, and Justice Ford discharged him.

Committed Suicide to Avoid Murder.

George Lindner, aged 45, a hardware dealer, at 1,262 Myrtle avenue, Brooklyn, killed himself yesterday morning by shooting himself in the head. He had been mentally disturbed for some time by the fear that in a fit of insanity he might kill his wife.

Sundstrom's Long Swim.

Gus Sundstrom swam from Governor's Island to Long Point, a distance of seventeen miles, yesterday morning, for a wager of $500. Morris Doyle swam part of the way with him, and Whitehall boats piloted him.

What is this Dark Shadow

That follows us wherever we go? It is the fear of mental exhaustion that terminates either in Insanity or Death.

We as a people live fast. We are overworked, so that old age comes upon us when quite young in years. We pass sleepless nights or with a sleep that gives no rest. This is nervous exhaustion, and we require a tonic that will restore the brain and nervous system to its normal condition, bringing back youth and vigor. The NEW QUININE, called KASKINE, is the most powerful tonic known. It removes that tired and depressed feeling, gives us a good appetite, makes us feel strong and healthy, gives quiet sleep that refreshes the languid and weary.

Bellevue Hospital, N. Y., "Universally successful."
St. Francis Hospital, N. Y. } "Every patient treated with Kaskine has been discharged cured."

Rev. Jos. Desribes, Chaplain of Charity Hospital, writes: "I will be surely, on every occasion, through conviction, a most devoted promoter of Kaskine."

St. Joseph's Hospital, N. Y.: "Its use is considered indispensable in our establishment."

Dr. L. R. White, U. S. Examining Surgeon, writes: "Kaskine is the best medicine made."

Dr. L. M. Giessner has cured over 200 patients with Kaskine after quinine and all other drugs had failed. He says: "It is undoubtedly the best medicine ever discovered."

Prof. W. F. Holcombe, M. D., writes: "Kaskine is superior to quinine in its specific power, and never produces the slightest injury to the hearing or constitution."

Kaskine is pleasant to take and can be used without special medical counsel. Pamphlets giving information, &c., sent on application.

Send for the great book of testimonials unparalleled in the history of medicine. $1 a bottle. Sold by all druggists, or sent by mail on receipt of price.
