Miscellaneous.

A CHURCH FOR CARRAROE,

WHAT BISHOP CARR, DR. KENNY, M. P., SIR THOS. F. BRADY, AND MR. C. T. REDINGTON SAY ON THE SUBJECT.

Who has not heard of Carraroe?

Through the American speeches of Mr. Parnell and the pages of A. M. Sullivan's "New Ireland," the bleak and backward region of Carraroe has become famous, not less for the extreme poverty of its people than for that bravery they have displayed in resisting the armed forces of the evictor, which has won for it among our exiled brethren in America the title of the "Lexington of the Irish Land War."

For these poor but faithful people of the parish of Carraroe an appeal is now made to the piety and charity of the public for aid to build, on the island of Letterfinlen, a new church in some way suitable for the sacred purposes of Divine worship, and capable of accommodating the large congregation of pious worshippers in that portion of the parish.

The existing church, perhaps the oldest of its kind in Connemara, is a small, rude structure of the most primitive style. It is an oblong, rectangular edifice, without chancel or aisle or sacristy, 40 feet by 22 feet, and 8 feet high. On the south side it has two small horizontal-headed windows, but none on the north. It has neither belfry nor cross nor any architectural ornamentation to mark it out as a house of worship. A small flag flying from a pole on a hillock behind the church is used to signal the pious peasantry to mass on Sunday. But for half the assembled congregation there is no accommodation. The young men and women who remain after mass to hear the Christian doctrine read and explained before betaking themselves to their innocent rural pastimes are frequently obliged, in the autumn months, to abandon the suffocating atmosphere of the small and ill-ventilated apartment. Even in winter the lot of those who kneel bare-headed outside is not much worse than that of those inside, upon whom the rain drops through the leaking roof and the unbroken Atlantic gale blows through the pointless doorway.

The design of building a new church has the approval of the Bishop, the Most Rev. Dr. Carr of Galway, who recommends the work to the piety and charity of the faithful, in his Lordship's letter, under date 14th ult.:

"My Dear Father Conroy: I highly approve of your design of building a much-needed church at Letterfinlen.

"The present small and old chapel is in every respect unsuited for the purposes of Divine worship and the needs of the poor but faithful islanders.

"I strongly commend the work to the piety and charity of the faithful at home and abroad.

"I will contribute [illegible] to the help to my power."

The undersigned gratefully offer aid from the public to enable these poor islanders to bring their undertaking to completion in the spirit in which the bishop and Dr. J. E. Kenny, M. P., a distinguished member of the Parnell Parliamentary party:

"Any one who knows Carraroe, with its islands washed by the Atlantic, its poor and rocky soil, its chronic want and misery, borne so patiently and bravely by industriously industrious and kindly people, will be glad to learn of your brave, if apparently somewhat rash, efforts to build a new church on Letterfinlen. I know where one is so urgently needed. Coming at the extreme verge of your flock precludes the possibility of your being able to accomplish your great task by their aid alone, and without help from the outside public. I feel confident, however, that when you do appeal to the general public, your appeal will not be in vain. Need I say, how heartily I wish your undertaking Godspeed."

What Mr. (now, by the act of the late Home Rule Viceroy, Sir) Thomas F. Brady, the Friend of the Fishermen, says on the same subject, while sending a generous subscription, with appeal with great weight to all charitable men the world over:

"My Dear Father Conroy: It is most gratifying to me to learn that you are going to build a new church at Letterfinlen. I know no place where such is more required. * * * I am sure there are hundreds of people who, though they may differ with you in religion, would subscribe cheerfully toward promoting, in a properly decent manner, the worship of God; and this can hardly be said to be done, if the building intended for His worship is wholly inadequate to shelter at such times its worshippers, and such is the case at present, unfortunately, on the island. * * * I send you my own small contribution."

Mr. C. T. Redington, Senator of the Royal University of Ireland, is of opinion that, in all his travels as Chairman of the Piers and Roads Commission (Poor Relief (Ireland) act, 1886) he has not seen along the whole western seaboard and islands from Galway Bay to Ballyna Bay, such a poverty stricken district as Carraroe. In sending me his splendid subscription he takes occasion to say:

"I know from my experience on the Piers and Roads Commission the great poverty of the district of Carraroe, and the inability of the poor islanders to complete, without aid, the great work they have undertaken.

"I enclose a small subscription, and heartily wish you success in your good work."

"The work is great, for a house is being prepared not for man, but for God." Nevertheless, with scarcely any means at my disposal, I have ventured to lay the foundation stone on the festival of the Nativity of our Lady (Sth inst.). The approval of my Bishop, who so well knows the generosity in such matters of the faithful, and particularly of his fellow countrymen, has encouraged me like the command on a similar occasion of the Royal Prophet: 'Take courage and be up! * * * for he (God) will work with thee.' * * * I hope that God will work with me, and that I may be enabled to finish the work for the service of the house of the Lord."

Any one desirous in this instance to "offer to the Lord," and thus assisting at a work of the returning wanderers, which will return increased and augmented, may do so either by sending an offering, he (if not so small as to be unworthy of the great cause) would consider it a favor, to the Sacristy of the Nuns and the prayers of the congregation will be offered for subscribers every Sunday until the church has been finished.

In all cases it is requested that the source be stated through which acknowledgments are to be made, and that all Money Orders be made payable to meet liabilities.

THE

GENUINE

Johann Hoff's

MALT EXTRACT

Received 66 Medals from Exhibitions, Medical and Scientific Societies. Manufactured since 1847, and improved in accordance with the advancement of science.

Office of ALBERT FRICKE, M. D.,
235 North 6th st.,
Philadelphia, Dec. 7, 1885.

DEAR SIRS: After careful investigation of the merits of the different Extracts of Malt in the market, I have concluded to use the genuine Johann Hoff's Malt Extract imported by you, in my practice, as I have tried it not only on myself, but also on a great number of my patients with marked success, in cases of convalescence, impaired digestion, for mothers while nursing, and in general debility, and have found it to be an excellent remedy for building up the system. In my own case of impaired digestion it has benefited me more than all other remedial agents which I have used.

Yours very truly,
ALBERT FRICKE, M. D.

BABY'S SKIN

Infantile and Birth Humors Speedily Cured by Cuticura.

For Cleansing the Skin and Scalp of Birth Humors, for allaying Itching, Burning, and Inflammation, for curing the first symptoms of Eczema, Psoriasis, Milk Crust, Scald Head, Scrofula, and other inherited skin and blood diseases, CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOAP, an exquisite Skin Beautifier, externally, and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, the new Blood Purifier, internally, are infallible. Absolutely pure.

MY OLDEST CHILD,

Now six years of age, when an infant six months old, was attacked with a virulent, malignant skin disease. All ordinary remedies failing, we called our family physician, who attempted to cure it, but it spread with almost incredible rapidity until the lower portion of the little fellow's person, from the middle of his back down to his knees, was one solid rash, ugly, painful, blotched, and malicious. We had no rest at night, no peace by day. The physician did not know then, and does not know now, what it was. Finally we were advised to try CUTICURA REMEDIES. Without the knowledge of our physician I procured a box of CUTICURA and a cake of CUTICURA SOAP. The effect

WAS SIMPLY MARVELLOUS,

Using the two together, first washing him thoroughly with CUTICURA SOAP, then anointing him with CUTICURA. From the first application a change for the better appeared. The doctor said we had no further need of him, and ceased his visits. In three or four weeks a complete cure was wrought, leaving the little fellow's person as white and healthy as though he had never been attacked. In my opinion, your valuable remedies saved his life, and to-day he is a strong, healthy child, perfectly well, no repetition of the disease having ever occurred. You are welcome to make any use of this you may deem best.

Constitutional Catarrh.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than Catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, the mind—one or more, and sometimes all—yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and breaks up the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because but little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved of it this side of the grave. It is time, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedies within the reach of all passed into hands at once competent and trustworthy. The new and hitherto untried method adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his RADICAL CURE has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in affording relief in all head colds, sneezing, snuffing, and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, sweetening the breath, restoring the senses of smell, taste, and hearing, and neutralizing the constitutional tendency of the disease toward the lungs, liver, and kidneys.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and one improved INHALER; price, $1.
