HER CHILDREN IN HER ARMS.

Handsome but Divorced Mrs. Byrne Makes Part of a Dramatic Scene.

Walter L. Byrne, a clerk in the Brooklyn Trust Company, obtained an absolute divorce about six months ago from Lottie Byrne, and the custody of their two children, aged 3 and 2 years respectively, was awarded to the father. The couple were married in November, 1883, and until a short time after the birth of the second child lived happily in Pulaski street, although the husband was double the age of the wife. In the divorce proceedings a dentist and an actor were co-respondents.

Mrs. Byrne has frequently requested the father to allow her to see the children, but he has persistently refused to do so, and yesterday she forced him to produce them before Judge Clement in the City Court in habeas corpus proceedings. When the divorced wife entered the court her pretty blue-eyed children were playing by the knees of an aged gentleman, who was stroking their golden hair, while their father sat alongside with a cold look on his face. The mother, apparently unconscious of her surroundings, rushed forward to the group, and, falling on her knees, took each of the children in turn in her arms and hugged and kissed them, weeping passionately as she did so. The old gentleman tried to remove the children from the mother's embrace, and, appealing to the Court, said: "Judge, is this right?" Judge Cullen said: "I see no harm in a mother embracing her children in court. It can do no harm."

For a long time the children remained locked in their mother's arms, and, affected by her tears, they also wept. When the argument in the case was adjourned until next Saturday, Mrs. Byrne was led off by her lawyer, followed by the father and the children.

Mrs. Byrne is a very handsome woman. She wore a rich sealskin sacque, a silk dress, and valuable diamonds.

MRS. MAGNUS'S AFFECTIONS.

She Says there is No Truth in Her Husband's Talk About Mr. Albrecht.

Suit will be begun in Newark this week by William Magnus, the proprietor of a wholesale tailoring establishment, against Gustave Albrecht, the senior partner in the bookbinding firm of Albrecht & Koch. Mr. Albrecht is rated as a wealthy man, and Mr. Magnus wants $5,000 to requite him for the loss of his wife's affections. He accuses Mr. Albrecht of having alienated them. Six years ago Mr. Magnus married rosy-cheeked widow Schnell, who was then 22 years old. They now have two children. Just one year ago Mrs. Magnus left her husband's home, and, it is charged, took up quarters where Mr. Albrecht supported her in comfort.

Mr. Magnus called the attention of the Grand Jury to his wife and Albrecht as violators of the law, but a mutual friend induced him to withdraw the prosecution, and take his wife back to his home. Five weeks later she left home again. This was in August last, and since then she has not been home. Magnus says he is afraid of personal damage at the hands of Albrecht, for they are deadly foes. Last week he went to Justice Blum and asked to have Albrecht bound over to keep the peace, alleging that the latter had threatened to kill him if he brought suit.

Mrs. Magnus said yesterday that there was not the slightest vestige of truth in the allegations made by her husband against her, and that they were prompted by insane jealousy.

Sadie Martinot's Reappearance.

Not long ago Sadie Martinot thought that she would not appear on the American stage again for a long time. It is now stated that Miss Martinot will appear within three weeks at the Bijou Theatre in this city with Louis Harrison. The play will be of a similar order to the "Flower of Pekin," although the exact title of the piece has not yet been agreed upon. Mr. Rice has already brought from San Francisco some elegant costumes, and the piece will be splendidly staged.

THE "BEST" TONIC.

SOME STRONG ENDORSEMENTS.

44 WEST 46TH ST., NEW YORK, Jan. 9, 1888.

PH. BEST BREWING CO.

GENTLEMEN: As a mild nutrient Tonic, I find your preparation designated The "Best" Tonic fulfils many indications in cases of debility that have come under my observation and professional treatment. Very truly,

ED. G. HARWOOD, M. D.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 20, 1887.

PH. BEST BREWING CO., Milwaukee, Wis.

GENTLEMEN: I have used in my family and practice the Liquid Extract of Malt and Hops, known as The "Best" Tonic, with the most satisfactory results. I consider the Malt Extract the most valuable of all of its class of Tonics, and especially adapted to those cases of debility arising from enfeebled digestion. The "Best" Tonic I believe fully equal to the best imported Malt Extract, and I am confident will give satisfaction to patient and physician.

J. H. THOMPSON, M. D.

1,523 K ST., N. W., WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 24, 1888.

PH. BEST BREWING CO., Specialty Department, 28 College place, New York.

GENTLEMEN: Sample of "Best" Tonic received. Gave to member of my family; was delighted with effects. Only trouble, there was not enough of it. It seems to be a pure, excellent Tonic, improving the appetite and digestion.

What would you furnish me with a dozen bottles as test?

S. J. RADCLIFFE, M. D.

1,019 EAST CLAY ST., RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 17, 1888.

PH. BEST BREWING CO., Eastern Depot, 28 College place, New York.

GENTLEMEN: I have been using your "Best" Tonic for some time. I find it a most splendid article. You will see from the enclosed "coupons" how much I have enjoyed the Tonic. My health is much improved, and I will take pleasure in recommending it to my friends.

I would thank you to send me the portrait of Mrs. Cleveland, which I will much appreciate and keep as a memento of the good I have derived from your "Best" Tonic. Respectfully,

Miss MINNIE KIDWELL.

NEW YORK, Jan. 17, 1888.

PH. BEST BREWING CO.

GENTLEMEN: Your "Tonic" is one of the Best "Nervines" I have ever used, and has worked like a miracle with some of my patients, in cases of insomnia especially.

I thank you for the sample bottles, and can assure you of its value in my own case.

I have never used anything which has shown better results as a Nerve and Blood Tonic. I advise its use frequently, and have ordered my druggist to have it on hand. Very truly,

JULIA H. LOMBARD, M. D.

The Society of the New York Hospital, House of Relief, 140 Chambers st.

NEW YORK, Dec. 20, 1887.

PH. BEST BREWING CO., Milwaukee, Wis.

GENTLEMEN: Permit me to acknowledge the receipt of three cases of your "Best" Tonic.

We have given it a thorough trial, and can truthfully say it has been a great help to us. In the cases under observation it has stimulated the appetite and undoubtedly caused a refreshing sleep.

We shall continue to use it, and can recommend it as the Best Tonic. Sincerely yours,

LUTE L. VON WEDEKIND, M. D., House Surgeon.

Catarrhal Dangers.

To be freed from the dangers of suffocation while lying down; to breathe freely, sleep soundly and undisturbed; to rise refreshed, head clear, brain active and free from pain or ache; to know that no poisonous, putrid matter defiles the breath and rots away the delicate machinery of smell, taste, and hearing; to feel that the system does not, through its veins and arteries, suck up the poison that is sure to undermine and destroy, is indeed a blessing beyond all other human enjoyments. To purchase immunity from such a fate should be the object of all afflicted. But those who have tried many remedies and physicians despair of relief or cure.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE meets every phase of Catarrh, from a simple head cold to the most loathsome and destructive stages. It is local and constitutional. Instant in relieving, permanent in curing, safe, economical, and never failing.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE, consists of one bottle of the RADICAL CURE, one box of CATARRHAL SOLVENT, and one IMPROVED INHALER, all wrapped in one package, with treatise and directions, and sold by all druggists for $1.00.
