ACADEMY OF MUSIC. TERDE'S "OTHELLO." GILMORE & TOMPKINS, Proprietors and Managers. SIGNOR STANISLAO PANTANINI. Begs to announce a brief season of ITALIAN OPERA, Commencing April 9, in the above spacious and beautiful house, where all the great works of the Italian repertoire have been made known during the last third of a century. The season, to extend over TWO WEEKS ONLY, is undertaken for the express purpose of producing, for the first time in America, "OTHELLO," Giuseppe Verdi's last and crowning masterpiece. The production of "Othello," accomplished by special arrangement with the composer and his publisher, will be effected with the co-operation of several of the leading lyric artists of Europe. To this end contracts have been signed with SIGNOR MARCONI, one of the trio of great modern Tenors ("Othello"), M. MAUREL, Europe's unrivalled Baritone ("Iago"), Signora Tettrazzini, principal dramatic Prima Donna of the Royal Opera in Madrid, and Verdi's chosen "Desdemona," and MME. SOFIA SCALCHI The peerless Contralto ("Emilia"). CONDUCTOR OF THE MUSIC, SIGNOR CLEOFONTE CAMPANINI. New Scenery, Costumes, and Appointments made in Milan in exact accordance with those of La Scala, and on a scale of splendor and accuracy befitting the importance of the work. General Manager, Mr. F. A. SCHWAB.  The exact dates of production, prices, etc., will appear in next Friday's newspapers. *
