MISS MASON EXONERATED.

The Board of School Trustees of the 15th Ward Formally Announces its Decision.

The School Trustees of the Fifteenth ward met yesterday afternoon in the Twelfth street school, and took up the long-deferred case of Miss Virginia Mason, teacher in Grammar School 35. The trustees have had the case under investigation ever since April, when Miss Mason was formally charged with maintaining improper relations with Robert W. McMaster, a poultry dealer in Washington Market.

Mr. McMaster is a married man, who abandoned his wife and family, and was so much in the company of Miss Mason that scandal was caused and her moral influence as a teacher impaired. The accusation was sent first to Miss Commissioner Dodge by a friend of Mrs. McMaster. Miss Dodge referred the matter to President Simmons and Superintendent Jasper. President Simmons wrote Miss Dodge a letter, saying he had no doubt of Miss Mason's guilt. After many delays the case was turned over to the Fifteenth Ward Trustees for investigation. The Board of trustees consists of Dr. G. Gautier, J. A. Hardenberg, Edward Schell, Alice Pine, and Emerson Foote.

Miss Pine formally made the charges to the Board. Messrs. Foote, Hardenberg, and Gautier were appointed the committee to investigate the charges against Miss Mason. They personally concluded in May that she was innocent, but they put off announcing their decision for unexplained reasons until yesterday, when, after a secret session of the whole Board, lasting an hour, it was proclaimed that the committee had reported in favor of Miss Mason's exoneration, and that the Board had accepted the report. It is understood that Miss Pine voted against the committee's report.

Miss Mason has not attended school this term. A school officer said yesterday that she had resigned or determined to resign, because she felt that her usefulness was gone and that it was too unpleasant for her to withstand the insinuations of the pupils in School 35. Rumor that she intends to sue somebody for defamation of character were laughed at yesterday by those members of the Board of Education and others conversant with the case.
