FIGHT IN A CHINESE BROTHEL.

Highbinders Try to Rob a Place that Refused to Pay Blackmail.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6.—A desperate fight occurred in a disreputable Chinese house yesterday between the proprietors and a gang of highbinders who attempted to rob the place. The highbinders had a confederate sleep in the place and then admit them. Chin, the highbinder leader, threw red pepper into the eyes of the woman at the door, beat the wife of the proprietor over the head with an iron bar, and badly wounded the proprietor. Wong Too, who was left as guard at the rear door to prevent the escape of the inmates, tried to shoot Wong Gong, who appeared at a window ready to jump. Gong procured a rifle and shot the highbinder twice, inflicting wounds from which he died in a few minutes. The police arrested all the parties. The raid grew out of the failure of the brothel keepers to pay blackmail to the highbinders.

Sunk in Boston Harbor.

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—The fishing schooner Goldsmith Maid, Capt. Hines, returning from a voyage to the Middle Bank with 30,000 pounds of fresh fish, was run into and sunk in Boston harbor last night by the steamer Glaucus of the Metropolitan line. Peter Landry and Howard Monroe of Shelburne, N. S., who were asleep in the forecastle of the schooner, went down with her. The rest of the crew reached Gallloupes Island, where they spent the night. They were taken off by a tugboat this morning. The Glaucus kept on her course until near Boston Light, where she came to anchor for a time. The Goldsmith Maid was of 60 tons. Her cargo was valued at $1,500.
