A RALLY FOR THE FLAG.

THE INDIANAPOLIS CLUB SHUT OUT BY THE CHAMPIONS.

Smiling Mickey Held the Secret of the Visitors' Downfall—Brooklyn Loses to Columbus—Other Games—Gossip.

The result of the League games yesterday was: New York 7, Indianapolis 0; Boston 10, Chicago 3; Philadelphia 5, Pittsburgh 4; Cleveland 5, Washington 3.

NEW YORK, 7; INDIANAPOLIS, 0.

It did not require any great amount of hard work to place a victory to the credit of the New York Club yesterday. Mickey Welch was simply invincible, and his field support was all that could be asked by any pitcher. Only two errors were made behind him, and these cost nothing. A more listless and uninteresting contest has not been seen at Staten Island this season. It was the first appearance of the Indianapolis team, and from the good work which they did before getting here, it was supposed that they would at least put a little life in the game, but they did not seem to be able to move without a great effort.

Getzein did the pitching for the visitors, and although he was hit freely the hits were so scattered that but one run was earned off him. Ewing carried off the honors at the bat with four hits in five times at the bat, and it was by his timely hitting that at least three of the New Yorks' runs were brought in. As for the visitors' hits, there were only two, and they consisted of a bunt and a fly to centre field. Gore should have got the latter hit. In fact, the New Yorks' outfielders do not show the proper amount of life in their work, and not only do they linger too long before getting a gauge on the ball, but they are too long in returning it. They get the ball in all right, however, when it gets started, but they let too many men get around on their slow toss.

The attendance at the game was small, only 1,131 spectators being present. There was not a cheer during the whole game, nor even a kick at a decision of the umpire. There was a great improvement in Umpire Lynch's work over that done by him on his last visit. The rain had left the ground in a bad condition for play. The contest was all one way from the start, the New Yorks having things all their own way. They opened the game with two runs on bases on balls to Gore and Tiernan, a sacrifice by Connor, and a hit to left field by Ewing.

O'Rourke made a good start in the second inning by driving one of his copyrighted two-baggers into left field, but it netted nothing. In the fifth inning Seery became responsible for three runs, for, after Welch had hit safe to centre field, both Gore and Tiernan were forced out and Richardson hit an easy fly to Seery which he muffed in the most approved form. A hit by Connor then sent Welch across the plate and Richardson to third. McGeachy fumbled Connor's hit when it got to him, and he got to second. Buckley then tried to catch Connor off second, but only allowed Richardson to steal home. A hit by Ewing brought in Connor.

In the next inning an error by Glasscock, a base on balls by Welch, and a hit by Gore gave a run. Then came the last run of the game, with one hand out Ewing hit safe to left field, and stole second, and scored on Richardson's getting first on a missed grounder by Glasscock. The score:

COLUMBUS, 7; BROOKLYN, 4.

COLUMBUS, May 28.—The game to-day was remarkable for nothing, unless it was for the manner in which Columbus commenced to do business with Mr. Hughes and kept it up until the close of the third inning, when Long Dave Foutz was put in the box and Terry placed on first. In the three innings that Hughes was in the box the bases occupied seven hits and gave promise of getting many more, but Long Foutz unloosed himself and cut the Buckeyes off with three hits during the balance of the game. But it was too late; the game had been lost.

The umpiring of Goldsmith gave satisfaction, and, barring a few little kicks on either side, the game was dull to the bleachers. In the first inning Brooklyn scored once on Pinckney's base on balls, O'Brien's two-bagger, and Collins's fly to Greenwood.

In the second Columbus made one run on O'Connor's single, Greenwood's base on balls, Easterday's single, May's force hit, which retired O'Connor at home, and McTammany's base on balls. In the third, Columbus made four runs on Daily's two-bagger, Marr's fly out to Corkhill, and Orr's hit for three bases, when Collins threw in badly and let in two runs. Greenwood hit for a single, Easterday got first on balls, Mays hit a long two-bagger down the right foul line, bringing in two more runs.

Columbus added two more in the fourth, fifth, or sixth, but Brooklyn secured one in the fifth on Terry's single, which was followed by a gift of first by Mr. Mays on four balls. O'Brien struck out and Collins sacrificed, sending Terry home. Visner going out from Greenwood to Orr. In the seventh Marr secured first on a wild throw of Pinkney. Orr sacrificed, sending Terry to second. O'Connor hit a hard two-bagger, scoring Marr.

In the last half of the seventh, for Brooklyn, Smith hit for two bases, Terry sacrificed, Pinkney went to first on Mays's wild pitch of the third strike. O'Brien hit to Easterday, scoring Smith. The score:

Easton, May 28.—Owing to the presence of a large number of strangers in Easton today witnessing the annual parade of knights Templar, over 1,000 witnessed the game with Jersey City, and notwithstanding good plays was liberally hooted on both sides. Earle, the catcher, has been disheartened for some time, and was today relieved. Wilkesbarre is negotiating with him. The postponed Wilkesbarre-Easton game is to be played on Friday.
