
Everything is crowding for mention to-day. Men's clothing first, of course, because most important; with business suits in the front rank; $15 to $30. Thin Summer suits are a feature with us. If you're already preparing for hot weather look at the unlined, extra light weights; $10 to $25. Office and house coats of flannel, serge, mohair, alpaca, and Sicilian—from beautiful solid mode colors to the extremely stunning Blazer effects.

The Boys' vacation suits we are selling at $3 and $3.50 are not of the grades usually retailed at such prices. Strictly all wool material, neat patterns, and thoroughly well made. Extra short trousers, $1.25. All sizes, 4 to 16 years; belted and plain blouses. They are, however, only a fraction of the Boys' stock; whatever a boy needs for wear is here.

HATS. Such names as the makers do give to light shades this season. "Jersey mud," "Connecticut gravel," "Potato peel." Sell you a good hat $2.50 and $3. Straws are ready if you are.

SHOES. Since we marked down all our men's shoes $1 or $1.50 a pair the business has doubled, as we knew it would. Only the best sorts. Prices way under the market.

FURNISHINGS. Shirts, 50, 70, and 90 cents unlaundered; 20 cents more if laundered. Better shirts than we ever sold at such prices; better than you have ever bought. Night Shirts 75 cents to $2.50. Underwear for as little as a good thing bought direct from the mills can be sold. Black Hosiery that's both "clean" and "fast." Neckwear at 50 cents and $1 that would bring more if we chose to ask it. We've "bagged" the tennis business of the town—Blazers, Caps, Belts, and Sashes.

All our stores open this evening.
