MONDAY, March 31.

The April payments that have been contemplated by Wall street for some weeks past as an obstacle to speculation in stocks have been provided for without disturbing even the surface of the money market. It would be interesting to know what the next bugaboo of timid operators and impecunious brokers will be. To-day's stock market reflected nothing except an indisposition to trade. Yet a number of important negotiations are going on in the railroad world that ought, when completed, to enhance the value of several securities. The tone of the phenomenally small market was strong, partly because Boston bought a little Atchison on the large traffic returns of that system, and the traders picked up a 100 shares here and there, because money was in abundant supply. The chances of activity in the near future are much reduced by the suspension of business at all speculative centres the latter part of the week. The closing was firm, prices in the main fractionally higher than on Saturday.

Final sales compare with those of Saturday as follows:

New York Markets.

MONDAY, March 31.—FLOUR AND MEAL—The market was very dull and prices somewhat unsettled and nominal.

CORN—Futures opened at some advance in response to a stronger report from Liverpool, with the next crop showing exceptional strength owing to the breaks in the Mississippi levees and the bad planting weather generally. The easier closing at Liverpool caused momentary depression. This was recovered, and the close was well up to the best prices of the day, but both bulls and bears moving very cautiously. May and June were the leading months, but there was a fair business for September. Cotton on the spot was dull; sales including uplands 17,746c. Gulfs, 11,111c. The following are the closing prices bid for futures, with sales aggregating 48,700 bales.

April.....11.44c. July.....11.55c. October...10.56c.
May.....11.47c. August.....11.52c. November 10.40c.
June.....11.51c. September 10.51c. December 10.40c.

PROVISIONS—Lard futures were quite dull, but prices about steady. The only sale was 250 tcs. at 6.60c for May.
