ON THE BASE BALL FIELD.

MANY EXHIBITION GAMES THAT WERE WELL PLAYED.

The Arbitration Committee and the Case of Bob Pettit—The Cincinnati Club Releasing Players—Other Sporting Gossip.

The New York (N. L.) Club played the crack Newark team yesterday on the Polo grounds, and beat them 6 to 2. The visitors played a spanking game, but they were outclassed, as the score indicates. Barring two fumbles by Glasscock, one of which was an unusually hard-hit ball, the New Yorks gave a perfect display. It was a strong team to compete against, especially in batting. Rusie was in good form, and he was splendidly supported by Buckley. For the Newarks, Fields, Duffy, and McDermott carried off the honors in the field. The score:

BROOKLYN (P. L.), 13; CRESCENT ATHLETICS, 6.

The Brooklyn (P. L.) Club met the crack team of the Amateur Association at Eastern Park in East New York yesterday, and had harder work in defeating them than they anticipated. It was the first appearance of the Crescent Athletics on the diamond this season, and considering that they were some what stiff for the want of practice, they did pretty well. The amateurs batted well and took daring chances in base running, and had they fielded more carefully the professionals would not have tallied as many runs as they did. At any rate they gave Ward's men the hardest tussle for victory so far this season. The score:

BROOKLYN (N. L.), 9; METROPOLITAN, 3.

The Metropolitans gave the Brooklyn (N. L.) Club a hard fight at Washington Park yesterday afternoon. The League team found some trouble in hitting Carsey, but managed to outbat their opponents. Corkhill's lame arm interfered with his throwing. Lovett and Stallings relieved Hughes and Buxbong in the seventh inning. The batting and fielding of Collins was the feature. The score:

PHILADELPHIA (N. L.), 5; ATHLETIC, 8.

PHILADELPHIA, April 14.—The Athletic and Philadelphia clubs played the best game of the season to-day in the presence of 1,800 spectators. The League club won again, and it was principally through Allen's fine work at shortstop that the Athletics lost. In the fifth and seventh innings the latter had men on bases but Allen stopped base hits and prevented the opponents from securing a lead. The score:

ROCHESTER, 13; JERSEY CITY, 2.

The Jersey City and Rochester clubs played an interesting game for three innings at Oakland Park yesterday afternoon, but after that the visitors began to touch up McDermott at a lively rate, and in the next three innings sent in thirteen runs. After that McDermott settled down, and no more runs were scored off him. Knouff and Sneden pitched four innings and Weyling five. Lyons, Knourles, O'Brien, and Burke, who played with the Jersey City club last season, were liberally applauded by the 600 spectators. The score:

BROOKLYN (A. A.), 5; HAMILTON, 4.

One of the prettiest exhibition games of the season was played on the Ridgewood Park grounds yesterday between the Brooklyn (A. Powers pitched a steady game and managed to scatter the visitors' hits after the third inning. The score:

CHICAGO (P. L.), 4; PITTSBURGH, (P. L.), 2.

ST. LOUIS, April 14.—The Chicago and Pittsburgh Players' League teams put a brilliant game to-day before a light attendance. The weather was cold and threatening and a raw wind that chilled the spectators swept through the park. The contest was for blood, and had old Jim Galvin remained in the box until the finish Pittsburgh would have won. Galvin pitched five innings, and Chicago secured just one hit off him. Staley relieved him, and did very well until the seventh inning, when Chicago began to hit him freely. The score:

PITTSBURGH (N. L.), 9; CLIMAX, 3.

PITTSBURGH, April 14.—The local National League club played the Climax team, a South Side aggregation, here to-day. The game was interesting because the visitors and Miller the National League club's star battery, played with the Climax team. The game was in aid of the Newsboys' Home. Bowders was pounded unmercifully by the colts. Baker pitched well for the Pittsburgs. The score:
