SPORT WITH THE BASE BALL.

THE BOYS ARE ALL IMPROVING AND WILL BE IN SHAPE BY SATURDAY.

Many Games Yesterday, but They Do Not Show the Real Playing Power of the Men—News and Notes from Everywhere.

Brooklyn's American Association team were hardly a match for the New York (N. L.) team yesterday at the Polo grounds, but then they caught the League team in better shape than they have been this season. Their playing in the field was absolutely perfect, not the slightest evidence of a mistake being noted. Denny's playing was of a phenomenal description. He made several one-handed stops that, upon ordinary occasions, would be good for safe hits, and he did superior work with the stick. Bassett gave a very pretty display at second base and again led his team at the bat. Mickey Welch pitched for six innings and did remarkably well, but three hits being made off him. For the Brooklyns, O'Brien, O'Connell, Bowes, and Gerhardt played good ball. The score:

BROOKLYN (N. L.), 8; BARNATT, CARHART & CO., 3.

The Brooklyn (N. L.) team had but little trouble in winning from the Hackett, Carhart & Co team at Washington Park yesterday afternoon. At the seventh inning it looked as if the Commercial team would be retired without a run, but a streak of hitting in the eighth sent three runs across the plate. The score:

NEWARK, 14; SYRACUSE, 4.

The Newarks had a regular picnic with the Syracuse Stars yesterday and got sweet revenge for their defeat on Sunday. Lyons, who opened in the box for the stars, was knocked out in the second inning and Keefe took his place, but fared little better as the Newarks had their eye on the ball. The score:

NEW YORK (P. L.), 34; A. A. A. A., 2.

The Actors' Amateur Athletic Association's base ball team did not do themselves justice yesterday in a game with the New York (P. L.) Club at Brotherhood Park. They promised to show a marked improvement over their exhibition with the Brooklyns, but failed. For three innings they played fairly good ball but one or two ball plays completely broke up the game, and it became simply a question as to how many runs the big Players would make. The actors have a clever pitcher in Cutler and a pretty fair infield in Clark, McFarland, and Mullarkey.

The New Yorks were not obliged to extend themselves in any part of the game. Crane pitched quite easily for five innings and then O'Day finished the game. The score:

JERSEY CITY, 6; HAMILTON, 1.

It is not very often that a team plays a better game than that which the Jersey City put up yesterday. The team played with more vim and dash than in any of the previous games, accepting all but one chance. Hamilton put Lafouche in the box, but the way the Jerseymen began to pound him made Manager Powell take him off again. The score:

BROOKLYN (P. L.), 21; LINDSEY ATHLETICS, 0.

By stacking up against amateur teams the Brooklyn (P. L.) Club derive plenty of practice, and this naturally helps the men to limber up. In yesterday's game against the Lindsey Athletics at Eastern Park in East New York, the professionals gave a fair exhibition of base ball, which completely demoralized the amateurs, and the result was they played badly. Little now pitched a remarkable game, and was cleverly supported. Hammond proved a failure in the box for the Lindseys and Larkin was substituted. The score:
